Further to our letter of even reference dated 19 Sep. '45.

We have now received the following information from our Liaison Officers regarding the a/n officer.

1. About 18 months ago one of our Liaison Officers was approached by S.M.S., asking if he could have a more senior officer attached, who was more capable of handling men than 2/Lt. LIVIA.
2. The S.M.S. Liaison Officer put the matter to the Comando Gruppo asking that they should find a more suitable officer to take over the duties of 2/Lt. LIVIA who was unable to exercise the disciplinary control required of an officer in that position.
3. Another of our Liaison Officers who was stationed in that area at the time, also states that he did not at any time give authority for the transfer of 2/Lt. LIVIA.
4. It is considered that due to some misunderstanding, the Italian Command concerned issued posting - instructions for 2/Lt. LIVIA, overlooking the fact that he was, at that time of P.V. Status.
5. It is suggested that in view of the fact that 2/Lt. LIVIA has been employed by the Italian Army as an officer his documentation as a P.V. be adjusted so that he may officially relinquish his P.V. Status w.o.f. March 1946.

I remember this case, although it will be appreciated that the details are somewhat hazy after 18 months. The circumstances, so far as I can recollect them, are as follows:-

SME approached me with a tale of woe about LIVIA, saying that they would like him replaced by an Italian officer who was capable of controlling the PW and who could also speak a little English. I said that it might be possible to find an Italian Army officer senior to LIVIA who could control the men and have him attached. SME were very keen on having LIVIA removed without delay. I did not undertake to arrange this however, and explained that neither the Italian Army nor MMIA had any jurisdiction over PW Co-operators.

Subsequently I put the whole matter to the Comando Campania, asking them to find a suitable disciplinarian of the rank of Captain or Major for SME and to send him to the school as soon as possible. I told them about LIVIA's unsatisfactory qualities, but I am quite certain I did not instruct them to remove him.

What happened after this I do not know, as the gesture of sufficient concern to me to warrant following up.

All I can say is that, either Campania HQ misunderstood me, or that his posting must have been engineered afterwards at the instigation of SME. At any rate SME should have been sufficiently familiar with their responsibilities towards co-operators to have known that they could not simply "lose" a PW without some authority from O2E.

- Ai primi del mese di maggio 1944 il Capitano Thrupp della Commissione alleata di Controllo, sottocommissione per l'Esercito, telefonò a questo Comando esponendo che presso il campo prigionieri di Capua si trovava il s.ten.LIVIA Salvatore, prigioniero di guerra, con l'incarico della sorveglianza disciplinare dei prigionieri italiani di quel campo, utilizzati dagli alleati per lavori;
- che detto ufficiale non era di loro gradimento sia per la giovane età e mancanza di energia in relazione al compito affidatogli, sia per la mancata conoscenza dell'inglese;
- che pertanto ne chiese la sostituzione, cosa che fu fatta, e così gli Alleati restituirono il s.ten.LIVIA.

In seguito a tale movimento, l'allora Comando FF.AA. della Campania, destinò il LIVIA al deposito 31^o fanteria come risulta anche dal foglio del detto deposito n.3476/MO/Mov. in data 15/4/43.

GRECO and the Company Costiera which he commanded were made Allied Prisoners in July 1943 near Palermo and were sent to Concentration Camp Orano, Algiers. Now he is in Italy and works as an employee of the Americans as his own request. Recently being given a furlough to his home he was appaled to see the precarious financial condition to which his father and mother and two sisters are reduced. It is quite insufficient for their needs. He therefore urgently petitions to be allowed to return to Civil life in order to be able to give to his family the help of which they are in indispensable need.

Verso il 7 - 8 maggio 1944 (non posso precisare con esattezza questa data) mentre mi trovavo a Capua a prestar servizio presso la S.M.E. - C.M.F. (Scuola Militare del Genio Inglese) nella posizione di prigioniero cooperatore, giunse al Comando della detta Scuola un fonogramma della M.M.I.A., che ordinava il mio trasferimento ad un deposito munizioni italiano a circa Km. 2 a Nord di S. Giunto a quel Deposito munizioni un colonnello del R.E. Italiano mi consegnò un altro ordine scritto del Comando FF.AA. Campania (da cui dipendeva quel Deposito m.), con il quale mi si invitava a presentarmi lo stesso giorno a Napoli al Com. FF.AA. Campania.

chiero quanto segue:

Verso il 7 - 8 maggio 1944 (non posso precisare con esattezza questa data) mentre mi trovavo a Capua a prestar servizio presso la S.M.E. - C.M.F. (Scuola Militare del Genio Inglese) nella posizione di prigioniero cooperatore, giunse al Comando della detta Scuola un fonogramma della M.M.I.A., che ordinava il mio trasferimento ad un deposito munizioni italiano a circa Km. 2 a Nord di S. Maria di Capua Vetere, entro la giornata successiva.

Giunto a quel Deposito munizioni un colonnello del R.E. Italiano mi consegnò un altro ordine scritto del Comando FF.AA. Campania (da cui dipendeva quel Deposito m.), con il quale mi si invitava a presentarmi lo stesso giorno a Napoli al Com. FF.AA. Campania.

Così feci e il detto Comando mi assegnò al Deposito 31 Regg. Ftr. da cui fui assunto nella forza effettiva regolarmente.

Medical Officer BRUSCHI Vittorio.

The a/m medical officer BRUSCHI Vittorio who was at Valona (Albania) when the armistice was signed, joined the partisans (with which he still is) to fight against the Germans.

Recently an English officer brought me a letter from Lieut. Bruschi who writes that he is very ill, suffering many months from rheumatism and colitis with haemorrhoidal haemorrhage.

He is under the Komanda e Sthabit Zones I Valona, Argirocastro (Albania). I will be very grateful to this Sub-Commission, if they would signal this case to the Allied Authorities in Albania, so that the a/m officer could be repatriated.

Il Tenente Medico BRUSCHI Vittorio, che all'atto dell'armistizio si trovava a Valona (Albania), per combattere contro i tedeschi si diede alla montagna, unendosi a formazioni partigiane presso le quali ancor oggi si trova.

Mi é di recente pervenuta, per mezzo di un ufficiale inglese, una lettera del Tenente BRUSCHI il quale dichiara di essere giunto allo stremo delle sue forze perché da molti mesi malato di reumatismi e di colite con emorragie emorroidarie.

L'ente da cui dipende l'ufficiale é il Komanda e Sthabit Zonës I° Valona - Argirocastro (Albania).

Sarò assai grato a codesta Sottocommissione se vorrà cortesemente segnalare il caso alle Autorità alleate in Albania perché esaminino la possibilità di fare rimpatriare il Sottotenente BRUSCHI.
