1. The above Wireless Set is no longer maintained and no further Provision or issue of spares has been made by U.K., since July 1944.

2. It is suggested, however, that the depot may possibly be able to supply certain items of which stocks are held for other equipments. Will you please, therefore state:

(a) No of W/Sets No.11 held by you

(b) Minimum amount of spares required to put these in working order, quoting correct part numbers. (Ident list attached which please return.

3. It is pointed out however that even if it is possible to satisfy your present requirements, no further issues will be made for this set so that in the event of your only being able to make these wireless sets temporarily serviceable it is suggested that you endeavour to have them replaced through D.O.S., A.F.H.Q.
