1. I am sorry I could not get down there to help you, but I was held up to do the work that had accumulated during my absence.

2. After many attempts I managed to phone ADOS M.M.I.A. today and gave him the dope on the position down there, he is going to see War Office (Italian) about getting British Accounting for the speres that you have got hold of. ADOS also told me that he will try and arrange for me to come there three or four days a week to help you.

3. ADOS M.M.I.A. would like you to phone him as soon as you have time in order to give him the position at Bologna, his extension number is 342 on the M.M.I.A. exchange.

4. I am enclosing some copies of identification lists for artillery and wireless which I have received, I hope that the will be of some use to you. 1406

With reference to the 3 Ton load of Khaki Drill Uniform that Major Bradley recently obtained from Bologna for issue to troops under your Command. It is requested that you please inform this unit of the quantities and types of uniform that were included in this shipment, and to whom they will be issued showing quantities to each unit concerned.

It is regretted that this uniform was not of better quality but it was all that could be obtained by personal appeal to the controlling officer; but nevertheless, it is hoped that it will perhaps be of some use for rough work, or to wear whilst the mens' best suit is being washed.
