CONFIDENTIAL

Major T. Leahy, Kings Own, (41159)

This officer has now been serving under my command for about two months, during which time I have kept a very careful watch on his conduct on account of information that a confidential report would probably be called for.

He is in my opinion an excellent officer who has had several disappointments and has been passed over for promotion within his regiment on at least two occasions. As a result he adopted a rather "Bolshie" outlook. I have been led to believe that previously there was trouble with this officer drinking too heavily but during the time I have known him he has been a very moderate drinker and has never behaved in any way unbecoming to an officer.

I strongly recommend that this officer be given a chance as a regimental officer as I feel sure he will do well. He is quite capable of being 2 i/c of a Bn.

CONFIDENTIAL

Major T. Leahy, Kings Own, (40159)

This officer has now been serving under my command for about two months, during which time I have kept a very careful watch on his conduct on account of information that a confidential report would probably be called for.

He is in my opinion an excellent officer who has had several disappointments and has been passed over for promotion within his regiment on at least two occasions. As a result he adopted a rather "Bolshevik" outlook. I have been led to believe that previously there was trouble with this officer drinking too heavily but during the time I have known him he has been a very moderate drinker and has never behaved in any way unbecoming to an officer.

I strongly recommend that this officer be given a chance as a regimental officer as I feel sure he will do well. He is quite capable of being 2 i/c of a Bn.
