Dear Major,

I have received by Major Davies the cigarettes
you have, very kindly, presented the C.A.R. with.

I am very grateful to you for your cordial thought, and thank you heartily for that.

It is a pleasure to me to seize the occasion to enclose some photos for you and the Officers of the B.L.U. .

I feel sure that you will receive them as a cordial token from both my Officers and myself.

With my best wishes and greetings,

I am yours sincerely

10 Dec. 45.

A quantity of cigarettes confiscated by Italian police from civilians in Sicily has been handed in at this H.Q.

They consist of some 10,000 Maltese cigarettes of a very inferior type plus a small quantity of British and American cigarettes, about 1500.

May disposal instructions please be given.
