CORBO Orazio.

Reference your letter 5417/02 dated 14 July. This Unit does not wish to interfere in any way with the individual posting of soldiers, but it is suggested that Sgt. Major Corbo (whom I recollect as an excellent NCO in the Special Italian M.F. Company) would prove to be a competent Instructor and might be sent on the Instructors Course at Central Training School (your letter 3254/01 dated 24/4/46 refers).

1. O.C. 11 B.L.S. PALERMO has made the following suggestions as to the disposal of certain personnel of 2 Italian Special Coy (V.P.):

(a) O.C. 2/Lieut GAGLIARDI P. to be posted to 11 Territorial District HQ and attached to 11 BLS as Interpreter (your letter 562/ord II dated 1 Feb 46 refers). This officer has been known personally by O.C. 11 BLS for nearly three years, and it is understood that 2/Lieut GAGLIARDI has an exceptional knowledge of both English and conditions in SICILY.

(b) Lieut. CECALANI G.
Marces. COIRO O.
Serg. Magg. SETTIMO E.

These personnel have had some experience of British training and it is suggested that they be sent on a course by CAGLIARDI, with a view to them becoming Training Instructors.

2. This Headquarters will be grateful if you will give sympathetic consideration to these suggestions.

2 It. Spec. Coy (V.P.)

Ref. your SD/5/2 dated 25.Mar.46. addressed to the Min. of War.

Following a conversation between myself and O.C. Brit. Tps. Sicily, I have the following proposals to put forward regarding the disposal of some of the personnel of the a/m Unit.

a. O.C.- 2/Lieut. CATALANO P.- to be posted to 11 Terr. Dist. and attached to 11 B.L.U. as Italian L.O. - (note- I have personally known this officer since Aug.43. when he was used as an Liaison Officer at HQ. 1 District in Catania.) His English (written and speaking) and his knowledge of Sicily are both exceptionally good.

b. Lieut. CICALONI G.) Maresc. CORBO O.)
Serg. Magg. SISTITO N.) These personnel having had some British Training, to be sent to GESANO, with a view to them becoming Instructors at a C.A.R.

c. O.C. Brit. Troops Sicily has HQ. 3 District authority to keep 1 offr. 1 Senior N.C.O. and 12 men for police-Duties for a limited period in order to clear-up some outstanding matters.

d. Balance of the personnel to be posted to HQ. 1 Bde-Catania for disposal.

e. It would be appreciated if you would please pass these suggestions on to Min. of War with the necessary recommendations.

Herewith nominal roll for your guidance in posting.

Tenente Cicaloni is a good officer and well worth special employment, unfortunately he speaks no English. Tenente di Focatio has been sick and I don't know him. I recommend him on Catalano's word. Maresciallo Corbo is a quite exceptional Italian soldier, he models himself on the best type of British Warrant Officer with considerable success. He has plenty of powers of leadership and is a first rate disciplinarian. Serg Maj. Destito is not in the same class as the Maresciallo, but is outstandingly good and reliable.

Catalano and Cicaloni have been together on police duties for over two years and are anxious not to be separated.

It would be much appreciated if a section at least of the men marked 'X' could be attached to this HQ, after posting, for police duties.
