SUBJECT : Italian PW Mail for Certain Individuals.

TO : PWIB, HQ, EAST AFRICA COMMAND

1. This office receives repeated inquires from families of Italian PW-instances in which no word from the PW has been received by relatives for months.Because often as much as six months or a year has elapsed since news was last received, these families repeatedly write to the "Ministero per l'Assistenza Post-Bellica" and to every possible Allied Agency asking for information about the PW.

2. To avoid having several Headquarters working on each case, this office is,with the consent of Allied Force Headquarters,writing directly to your office(Attention: Italian Prisoners of War Section)asking that you forward a letter in each case to the PW, and that you obtain a receipt from him. Letters with attached receipts are enclosed. The receipt will then be returned to the family,assuring that he is alive,thus discontinuing the flow of excited correspondence in regard to the prisoner's existence. The problem of his not corresponding in future then becomes a personal one instead of a matter for official attention.

SUBJECT : Italian PW Mail for Certain Individuals.

TO PWIB, Union of S.A. Dept. of Defence, PRETORIA, South Afri

1. This office receives repeated inquires from families of Italian PW-instances in which no word from the PW has been received by relatives for months. Because often as much as six months or a year has elapsed since news was last received, these families repeatedly write to the "Ministero per l'Assistenza Post-Bellica" and to every possible Allied Agency asking for information about the PW.

2. To avoid having several Headquarters working on each case, this office is, with the consent of Allied Force Headquarters, writing directly to your office (Attention: Italian Prisoners of War Section) asking that you forward a letter in each case to the PW, and that you obtain a receipt from him. Letters with attached receipts are enclosed. The receipt will then be returned to the family, assuring that he is alive, thus discontinuing the flow of excited correspondence in regard to the prisoner's existence. The problem of his not corresponding in future then becomes a personal one instead of a matter for official attention.

Reply to Memo No131949 - 304 P.O.W. Camp 20/11/45.

WAR MIDDLE EAST 101

Subject:-Port Lieut.CASTAGNA Giovanni.

In reply to the above mentioned memo of your office I beg to submit the following information.

Port Lieutenant CASTAGNA Giovanni was captured by the Germans on Sept.9th.1943 together with the personel of the Harbourmasters Office of Nauplia, and interned with all the Italian Officers of the garrison, at the hospital of that town.

After a short period of captivity he escaped from the concentration camp and found sanctuary with a Greek family of Nauplia, by whom he was helped to join the Greek patriots.

Early in Nov.'43 he reached the town of Leonidion(East Arcadia, Peloponnesus) where he staved until 25 Jan'44. on which date he left the town, to avoid a German mopping-up, and reached St. Andrea, a coastal town North of Leonidion.

As the threat of the mopping-up still persisted, together with about fifty more Italians he boarded a motor-vessel and left the town and the country, and on 31st Jan.44. he reached Kranidion (Argolys-Corinthia)(Peloponnesus).

From Feb.1st. to Feb.19th. he stayed at Kranidion, where he was put in prison by the rebels of the E.L.A.S. for unknown reasons.

On Feb.20th.'44 he was taken to Didima (Argolys-Corinthia) where he was last seen by the writer. On the evening of the same day, according to information gathered later on from the inhabitants of this town, he was executed.

The following day Feb.21st'44 the undersigned found (to comfirm the above) only his clothes, among which the shirt with a blood-stained collar. It has been impossible for the undersigned not only to recover, but even to locate the wallet, personal documents, photos or any other personal belongings of Lieut.CASTAGNA. Later on the grave was located nearby to where the above mentioned Lieut. had been murdered just outside the built-up area of Didima, left of the road which from the new school-building of Didima leads to Lucaiti; in front and immediately before reaching the limit of the farm belonging to the Misses Papanto-niou.

(Sketch in pencil on the original document)

The body had not been exhumed, at the time writer left the town of Didima.

The Port Lieutenant CASTAGNA Giovanni was married and lived with his wife Mrs Angelina CASTAGNA and his father on the Island of Ischia (Naples)

The undersigned is in a position to supply any further information or particulars that may eventually be required by your office.

1. This office receives repeated inquires from families of Italian PW-instances in which no word from the PW has been received by relatives for months. Because often as much as six months or a year has elapsed since news was last received, these families repeatedly write to the "Ministero per l'Assistenza Post-Bellica" and to every possible Allied Agency asking for information about the PW.

2. To avoid having several Headquarters working on each case, this office is, with the consent of Allied Force Headquarters, writing directly to your office (Attention: Italian Prisoners of War Section) asking that you forward a letter in each case to the PW, and that you obtain a receipt from him. Letters with attached receipts are enclosed. The receipt will then be returned to the family, assuring that he is alive, thus discontinuing the flow of excited correspondence in regard to the prisoner's existence. The problem of his not corresponding in future then becomes a personal one instead of a matter for official attention.

To avoid having several Headquarters working on each case, this office is, with the consent of Allied Force Headquarters, writing directly to your office (Attention: Italian Prisoners of War Section) asking that you forward a letter in each case to the PW, and that you obtain a receipt from him. Letters with attached receipts are enclosed. The receipt will then be returned to the family, assuring that he is alive, thus discontinuing the flow of excited correspondence in regard to the prisoner's existence. The problem of his not corresponding in future then becomes a personal one instead of a matter for official attention.

For the Acting Chief Commissioner.

SUBJECT : Italian PW Mail for Certain Individuals.

TO : PWIB, Curzon Street House, Curzon Street, LONDON W.I

1. This office receives repeated inquires from families of Italian PW-instances in which no word from the PW has been received by relatives for months. Because often as much as six months or a year has elapsed since news was last received, these families repeatedly write to the "Ministero per l'Assistenza Post-Bellica" and to every possible Allied Agency asking for information about the PW.

2. To avoid having several Headquarters working on each case, this office is, with the consent of Allied Force Headquarters, writing directly to your office (Attention: Italian Prisoners of War Section) asking that you forward a letter in each case to the PW, and that you obtain a receipt from him. Letters with attached receipts are enclosed. The receipt will then be returned to the family, assuring that he is alive, thus discontinuing the flow of excited correspondence in regard to the prisoner's existence. The problem of his not corresponding in future then becomes a personal one instead of a matter for official attention.

For the Acting Chief Commissioner.

SUBJECT : Italian PW Mail for Certain Individuals.

TO :
PWIB; AG's Branch; GHQ; SIMLA INDIA

1. This office receives repeated inquires from families of Italian PW-instances in which no word from the PW has been received by relatives for months.Because often as much as six months or a year has elapsed since news was last received, these families repeatedly write to the "Ministero per l'Assistenza Post-Bellica" and to every possible Allied Agency asking for information about the PW.

2. To avoid having several Headquarters working on each case, this office is,with the consent of Allied Force Headquarters,writing directly to your office(Attention: Italian Prisoners of War Section)asking that you forward a letter in each case to the PW, and that you obtain a receipt from him. Letters with attached receipts are enclosed. The receipt will then be returned to the family,assuring that he is alive,thus discontinuing the flow of excited correspondence in regard to the prisoner's existence. The problem of his not corresponding in future then becomes a personal one instead of a matter for official attention.

Dear Sirs,

We have been asked by our Office in Rome if we would deliver the following message to an Italian P.O.W. from his wife :-

P.O.W. Andrea DELL'AMICO, NA/T 30903.
N.R. 210 P.O.W. Camp.

She says : She and her little girl are in good health. They come to Rome on 28th February. She has sent her husband two letters but is afraid that they have not reached him. She hopes that he will soon return, or else send for her, which she would prefer. Their little girl has grown and is beautiful ; her husband would not recognise her now."

As the recipient of the message is at a P.O.W. Camp and not under the care of UNRRA, we are unable to deliver the message. We shall be obliged if you will transmit it for us.

Yours faithfully,

CIVIL AFFAIRS SECTION
ITALIAN PRISONERS OF WAR DIVISION

IPW/A/404 2341-45

SUBJECT : Italian PW Mail for Certain Individuals.

TO : PWIB, AG's Branch, GHQ, SIMLA INDIA

1. This office receives repeated inquires from families of Italian PW-instances in which no word from the PW has been received by relatives for months. Because often as much as six months or a year has elapsed since news was last received, these families repeatedly write to the "Ministero per l'Assistenza Post-Bellica" and to every possible Allied Agency asking for information about the PW.

2. To avoid having several Headquarters working on each case, this office is, with the consent of Allied Force Headquarters, writing directly to your office (Attention: Italian Prisoners of War Section) asking that you forward a letter in each case to the PW, and that you obtain a receipt from him. Letters with attached receipts are enclosed. The receipt will then be returned to the family, assuring that he is alive, thus discontinuing the flow of excited correspondence in regard to the prisoner's existence. The problem of his not corresponding in future then becomes a personal one instead of a matter for official attention.

ITALIAN PRISONERS OF WAR DIVISION

SUBJECT : Italian PW Mail for Certain Individuals.

TO PWIB, Curzon Street House, Curzon Street, LONDON W.I. ENGLAN

1. This office receives repeated inquires from families of Italian PW-instances in which no word from the PW has been received by relatives for months. Because often as much as six months or a year has elapsed since news was last received, these families repeatedly write to the "Ministero per l'Assistenza Post-Bellica" and to every possible Allied Agency asking for information about the PW.

2. To avoid having several Headquarters working on each case, this office is, with the consent of Allied Force Headquarters, writing directly to your office (Attention: Italian Prisoners of War Section) asking that you forward a letter in each case to the PW, and that you obtain a receipt from him. Letters with attached receipts are enclosed. The receipt will then be returned to the family, assuring that he is alive, thus discontinuing the flow of excited correspondence in regard to the prisoner's existence. The problem of his not corresponding in future then becomes a personal one instead of a matter for official attention.

For the Acting Chief Commissioner.
