- 1/. All PW who have been passed by a medical commission are in the process of repatriation from North Africa and India, subject to Political security and availability of shipping space.

ROME

The undersigned, LUONGO Raffaele, living at Naples, Corso Vittorio-Emanuele 378, is the brother of

LUONGO Mario, PW M-T/908
AI. Camp P.O.W., Bombay.

He acknowledges the receipt of your letter IPW/I/IB/121, dated 15 October 1944, and thanks you for the kind reply and for information regarding the eventual repatriation of the above PW.

Nevertheless, he takes the liberty to insist upon the necessity to accelerate, if possible, the repatriation of his brother, owing to the character of the disease he is suffering from.

In spite of the fact that Mario LUONGO has been included in the list of PW to be repatriated, more than a year ago, he has not yet returned home, though other PW, declared repatriable by the Medical Mixed Commission after him, are already in Italy.

Besides, I call your attention to the fact that the nature of his disease (mental disturbances surely due to a profound sense of nostalgia, because the PW has not been home for 8 years), as well as the diagnosis of the local medical personnel, seem to indicate, that LUONGO will be able to recover only in his native country.

The undersigned, therefore, hopes that, owing to your personal action, the above sick PW be included in the list of sick PW, whose repatriation will be ordered as soon as possible.

Yours faithfully
s/ Raffaele Luongo

In spite of the fact that MARIO LUONGO has been included in the list of POW to be repatriated, more than a year ago, he has not yet returned home, though other POW, declared repatriable by the Medical Mixed Commission after him, are already in Italy.

The undersigned, therefore, hopes that, owing to your personal action, the above sick PW be included in the list of sick PSH, whose repatriation will be ordered as soon as possible.

Yours faithfully
a/ Raffaele LAONGO

Reference is made to your IPW/1/18/24 of 29 Sep 44.

1. It has not been possible to obtain any information in this Headquarters that throws any light on the subject of this repatriation.
2. The British Resident Minister was under the impression that the Portuguese Government would not agree to Commander Ferretti's repatriation last April, but there has been no previous mention of Lt. Anastasio.
3. It is suggested, however, since Commander Ferretti has now apparently been released, that Lt. Anastasio's repatriation be requested on the requisite grounds.

Dear Colonel McFadyen,

I enclose a copy of a letter which I sent to you in March 1944. I had a telephone conversation with your office about it in March but have had no information as to any action which may have been taken on it.

I should be grateful for any information which you may have to give me, particularly with regard to Lieutenant Foggioli who I think would be very useful at this time and whose services to the British Army merit some consideration. His mother has recently been released from internment at Cortona.

Lieutenant Foggioli's present address is :-

If you are unable to do anything about Foggioli, I should be grateful if you would indicate to which other section I could usefully address myself.

Dear Colonel McFadyen,

22 Mar '44

I am writing about a Tenente Poggiolo of some Alpini Regiment who was taken prisoner in 1940 and who worked at the 19th General Hospital, M.E.F. for 2 years. I was in charge of 450 Italian O.P.'s and 25 Italian Medical Officers who were running a 1000-bedded hospital and during most of this time he acted as my adjutant.

He speaks excellent English and his mother was an English-woman from Bradford and he has spent some time in England. He is Anglophile and Anti-Mussolini although a loyal Italian so far as the King is concerned.

He was so outspoken in his opinions and antagonism to Mussolini and the Germans that his mother was put in a concentration camp after the first repatriation of sick and medical personnel to Italy. I think a Captain de Grenet, an Italian Officer in the Diplomatic Service was probably responsible although there were many others who would have been prepared to do so. I do not know if Poggioli knows that his mother was interned.

He is a lawyer by profession I understand and I have found him an exceptionally resourceful, reliable and helpful person with considerable personality and a great facility for getting things done and for maintaining discipline.

I am sure that he would be found an extremely useful man.

In the Middle East he was interviewed by various Intelligence Officers and passed their examination satisfactorily. He was I think offered the chance of doing propaganda in Cairo but declined.

He was a friend of various people at the British Embassy in Rome before the war and one of them whose name I forgot but who was in the Army got in touch with him when he was at Geneva.

I do not know where he is now. He was evacuated from Middle East at the end of 1942 or the beginning of 1943 and I understand he was being sent to India. There was a report that he was on the ship which was torpedoed in the Red Sea or the Indian Ocean but I believe this to be incorrect.

I met in Naples Professor Renato di Blasio who works at the Ospedale da Pace. He was one of the Medical Officers at the 19th General Hospital in Geneva and when he was repatriated in 1942, he got into trouble because he was denounced as Anglophile by several doctors. He got away with it partly I think because he is a General. He is an honest man with a real hatred for

He was one of the Medical Officers at the 10th General Hospital in Genoa and when he was repatriated in 1942, he got into trouble because he was denounced as Anglophile by several doctors. He got away with it partly I think because his brother is a General. He is an honest man with a real hatred for Germans.

He reported to me that Capitano Buon Giorno who worked under the British at the P.C.W. Camp at Genoa was court-martialled on his return and reduced to the ranks. At all events Professor di Blasio knows where he is living (somewhere near Naples). He is a good doctor, an honest man, a good organizer and I think speaks or understands English. I think he would be useful to you.

Incidentally there is a Major Roy Fletcher, D.A.M.C. who was a few weeks ago D.A.M.S. at Tripoli who knows a great amount about the Italian Army Doctors. It is safe to say that he can probably information about any Italian Medical Officer who was a prisoner of war between/.

There is also a Sgt-Major Dante Bagnoli of the Italian Medical Corps who I have heard is at the Italian Military Hospital in Naples (? Ospedale da Minacoli or di Miracoli). This man is a first class warrant officer and a reliable man. He worked under me for two years until he was repatriated.

He is a regular soldier with much experience and knowledge and he carried out a difficult job with conspicuous success.

He is intelligent, a good organiser and a good judge of men. His English is competent.

I recommend all these men without any reserve whatever,

SUBJECT: Capt. CORAZZIN Corrado No. ME 300690 PW in Kenya.

1. Capt. CORAZZIN Corrado has been declared suffering from neurasthenia and hypertension by the Mixed Medical Commission and included since April 1944 on a list of PW to be repatriated from Kenya. Nevertheless he is not yet returned to Italy.

2. The family of the PW which has not yet any news from him for a long while and which is preoccupied about his state of health, asked the High Commissioner to kindly take measures so as to accelerate, if possible, his repatriation.

3. Though I completely realise the difficulties the Allied authorities have to overcome organising the repatriations of PW, nevertheless I beg the A.C.C. to use its good offices to permit Capt. CORAZZIN to join his family as soon as possible and has his ailments properly treated.

TO: The Allied Command, Algeria.

A mother begs you instantly that her son, Lt. d'Acquisto Salvatore (POW in Algeria, 81-I-50506, Enclosure 131) should be repatriated owing to the special conditions she is undergoing.

I am 70 years old and I am very sick (suffering from heart disease) I have been a widow for a long time, and I have a young girl so busy that she cannot attend who requires such care, as she is of a very weak constitution. My two sons were called up from the first days of this war, and since a year or more, my son is in your hands, whilst the other, Domenico, is a POW in Germany. My estate, located at Campofelia, Roccella, which consists of a large citrus fruit garden, was awfully damaged, as it was occupied by a POW camp, so that the resources which I used to get from my sons and from my garden are cut off completely and I am in a very bad and sorrowful financial condition.

I beg you heartily, Sir, to consider my pitiful condition and to take my request into consideration, and to grant to me the favor of having my son returned as soon as possible. He himself has suffered a lot, and he spent several months in an hospital. He could then resume the running of my estate, and resume also his own work near la Ditta Conigharo e Gillardi di Palermo, as proved by the request from la Ditta itself which was presented in its time.

With my heart full of hope, I am expecting from your high benevolence that my request should be accepted, and I'll remain eternally grateful and faithful to you--

High Commissioner for Italian PW

Military Section

No. 8415 di Prot.

Rome 21st May 1945

To the Allied Commission

Sub-Commission for Italian PW.

Subject: Corporal SOLERI Rodolfo POW in Egypt.

The father of Corporal SOLERI Rodolfo, POW No. 349492 Camp 305 in Egypt has made the following report to the High Commissariat.

"As father of POW SOLERI Rodolfo, I report as follows.

In 1943 my son was at the working camp No. 8 (working Coy).

Due to the state of his health and the hard life he was obliged to live I asked the Holy See to help me in having him transferred to another camp. In fact, in the month of February 1944, he was transferred first to camp 307 after a few days to camp 305.

I presume that it was due to my interference that he was sent away from the working camp, and for this reason he was sent to camp 305. I can assure you that my son has never expressed any fascist sentiments nor had he ever any chance to do so, having passed his youth in the Cutelli College at Catania (a private school of no political importance) and with his family at Tripoli where he was employed at the Saida firm (Trucchi Panquale) a transport company who is now working for the national reconstruction.

I therefore acclaim that his being today in camp 305 is due to a mistaken idea of his political sentiments.

In view of what is written above I beg the High Commissariat to have a revision made of this question and to further the attached request from the Firm Trucchi Panquale of Saida, Via dei Villini 18 who desire the return of my son to his job in said firm. The firm has need of all its employees, as they have taken on a large work of reconstruction of tunnels and bridges."

The Presidency of the Council of Ministers has put the name of my son on a list of Civil servants and employees needed for the work of National reconstruction.

The Firm Industrial firm of Saida with a Branch in Rome has forward the attached letter requesting the repatriation of Corporal SOLERI because, before he was recalled to arms he was in that firm in an administrative capacity.

We beg the Allied Commission to examine the possibility of repatriating Corporal SOLERI

Thank you

Dear Colonel McFadyen,

I enclose a copy of a letter which I sent to you in March 1944. I had a telephone conversation with your office about it in March but have had no information as to any action which may have been taken on it.

I should be grateful for any information which you may have to give me, particularly with regard to Lieutenant Forcioli who I think would be very useful at this time and whose services to the British Army merit some consideration. His mother has recently been released from internment at Cortona.

Lieutenant Forcioli's present address is :-

If you are unable to do anything about Forcioli, I should be grateful if you would indicate to which other section I could usefully address myself.

The undersigned Father Giovanni PASIGLIO in consideration of the part played together with Rev. Father Giorgi Fernando, Massa Giuseppe, Valentini Michele, during the fascist oppression, in order to hide Allied and Italian people, among these, one P. Wiles, Chaplain Captain of 1st Div. South Africa, asks for the repatriation of his brother, prisoner of war in India No. 58158 Camp No. 25/4.

Also he wishes to make known;
That he has another brother, Charles, class 1915, prisoner of the Germans No. 56999 M. Stenlager VI, I, Kommando n. 1845 F; and a third one, Louis, class 1924, escaped from the Germans and is somewhere in Yugoslavia.

That besides, having had his parents home gravely damaged by war operations at Genzano di Roma, lately the vineyard was badly consumed by fire by unknown people.

That his brother Dionisius, prisoner of war in India, was compelled to have his name entered for the militia for two reasons: to protect his father, who had come out of the Pasigio on 1938 and therefore was charged for anti-fascism (and has been persecuted for two years), and to be able to work at ENIA Viscosa of Rome.

In 1939 he was compelled to leave for Africa. When he came back for leave, he affirmed he wanted to leave only as a soldier and with his class 1910. But the Marshal of Carabinieri threatened strict punishments to all the family.

When he arrived in Africa, he was punished and after he was sent to the Egyptian front, where he gave himself up as prisoner on 3rd of January 1941.

For these reasons he asks to have the brother in India repatriated.

- 1/. I have studied the question of the repatriation of the Officer Prisoner of War concerned and would point out:
- (a) Although a request was made for his repatriation to the Commander of No. 1 District it could never have been approved otherwise some notification should have been given to this office.
 - (b) It is presumed that the Prisoner of War mentioned was a co-operator otherwise he would not have been assigned to a Prisoner of War Battalion in Palermo.
 - (c) It is pointed out that only in exceptional cases will co-operator Prisoners of War be released and only when their release does not interfere with the work which they are doing towards the war effort.
- 2/. If a case can be put forward for the repatriation of the Officer named - under the existing terms and conditions for release it is suggested that a fresh application be put up for consideration

Log No. 29 SEP 1944

New York 11 30 Luglio 1944

GENERAL WILSON- COMMANDER ALLIED FORCES IN THE MEDITERRANEAN-

GENERAL H.Q. A L Q I R G

I, the undersigned, DONATO Angela, the wife of Capt. DONATO Antonino fu Vincenzo, of the Italian Army, P.O.# 81-I-47699 NAPOLI I.T.A. N° 111 GRAN (Algeria), beg to ask of your sense of justice that my husband may be released and sent back home.

He is a Director of the Italo - Americana Standard Oil Company- Branch of Messina. He is one of the few who did not really belong to the Fascist Party, and, for his honest life, he deserves the happiness to go back home to know one of his daughters born during the war and to relieve the distressed condition of his family. On his return home my husband would resume his job at the Standard Oil Company where he has been working twenty years. My father-in-law DONATO Vincenzo once the President of the Railway Engineers Club was expelled in 1923 because he was an anti-fascist. My husband was chosen one of the first co-operators in the 1st P.I. Camp, and, being noticed by the American Command, he was appointed Adjutant. The Italian Officer Commander and Vice C.O. of the Camp have already been released and returned to Italy.

Now I hope it will be my husband's turn to be released and I beg this American Command to examine his situation, for the suffering which he and his family are undergoing because of his long detention of his family.

Subject: Prisoners of War escaped from British India:
Comd. MILANI FERRETTI Cassillo and 2nd Lt. ANASTASIO Pasqualino.

The International Red Cross Committee has been informed that two Italian officers, escaped from PW Camps in British India, namely Comd. MILANI FERRETTI Cassillo and 2nd Lt. ANASTASIO Pasqualino, are for more than a year in Goa, Portuguese India, from where they have asked to be repatriated.

The High Commissioner has been informed that Comd. MILANI FERRETTI, whose repatriation has been requested by the Government and by the Allied Headquarters at Algieri, has already left Goa and should be, in a short while, in Italy. In the meantime it seems that no order has been given regarding 2nd Lt. ANASTASIO Pasqualino, whose repatriation has been asked for together with that of Comd. Milani Ferretti.

We, therefore, beg the ACC to ask the Allied Authorities to also authorize the repatriation of the above 2nd Lt. and to expedite the means of his return.

The undersigned CARINI Adriana asks for the repatriation of her brother

Cpl. M. CARINI, Gaetano, PW No. 7 87185
Camp No. 98 - Great Britain.

Her father died in 1942, so that her condition became even worse lately.

File No. 5893/Mil/I/O.5

To: A.G.C.

ROME

Subject: Mrs Maria BONURA.

I beg to inform you about a case which has not only a personal, but also a general importance.

The Major Engr. in s.p.c. Giovanni BONURA, who was PW in Africa, has been assigned on January 1st 1944 to a Command of a battalion of PW at Palermo, at the dependency of the Allied Authorities.

The PW status was maintained in his regard.

According to the well known agreements, the XII C.A. Command at Palermo forwarded, in due time, to the I District Command, a request for liberation of the above officer.

Nevertheless, on June 11th 1944, he was transferred, always as a PW, into the Salerno zone, where he is still, as it seems.

Due to the fact that the officer has been transferred from Sicily to continental Italy, ~~xxxxxxxxxxxx~~ the request and, which is more important, the liberation of the PW, cannot receive now favourable consideration.

As it seems, of such instances this is not the first. I consider, therefore, necessary to call ~~in~~ the attention of the A.G.C. to the condition which is created by the non-realized liberation of some military detained as PW in Sicily, ~~and~~ whose liberation was considered as imminent.

I ask, therefore, in this particular case, that Maj. BONURA be liberated.

Subject: Sergeant CORRADI Francesco, detained as PW - Camp 371 (Italy)

- 1/. The Sergeant CORRADI Francesco is actually detained as PW in Italy; his address is: No. 371 POW Camp.
- 2/. On September 8th, 1943, the day of the Armistice, he was on service in Lubiana, whence he escaped so as not to fall into German hand.
- 3/. Having been taken prisoner, he succeeded to escape on the way to Germany and to hide at Bologna, where he was again captured by the Germans and again succeeded to escape and to pass the front line.
- 4/. He reported then to the first Allied Command he met (a French one) which sent him to the above PW Camp.
- 5/. We cannot see any reason for Serg. CORRADI to be detained as a prisoner in a camp in Italy; besides, it seems to us, that because of what has been related above, his conduct deserves an award and, therefore, we propose that this military be released to the Italian Authorities.

I beg you to kindly consider such possibility and favour me with a reply in this regard.

Capl. BRUNO POMPEI, Regular Army, Artillery Corp, has been a POW, in Egypt, since Nov 6 1942. He is married to Mrs Ellen Pompei, nee Gherlone, an American citizen, since Dec 1939. His date of birth is 25th of April, 1914.

Captain Pompei is the father of two children of tender age who are also American citizens as can be verified at the American Consul, Rome, where application for their passport was made.

Mrs Pompei, who is at this time employed by AGC is burdened with the responsibility, tremendous at this time, of supporting these children and herself. The return of her husband would greatly lighten this burden both materially and morally.

Captain Pompei is a Regular Army Officer with a very fine record. His record will also disclose his devotion to his duty as a soldier, but not of the Fascist Party. His record can be obtained at the Ministry of War, Rome.

POW address is: P.O.W. No. 362177
Camp 304
P.O.W. Postal Section Middle East
Egypt.

Should any further information be necessary, Mrs Pompei may be contacted by calling extension 351, Office of the Soldier Voting Officer.
