The family of 2nd Lieut. LANNINI Gian Antonio, son of Gaetano, born in 1916, belonging to the 513 machine-gunners Company PW 3551, have informed us that:

Said officer was made a prisoner in Sicily (Bagheria-Palermo) in July 1943 by the Americans. He wrote two post-cards in August 1943 and his address was C/O POW Information Bureau Camp D.W. 127 Washington (USA). From that date the POW gave no more news to his family.

In January 1945 the Red Cross informed the family that said 2nd Lieut. No.81-1-40531 had been repatriated since February 1944 from concentration camp in Oran (Algeria).

We beg your Sub-Commission to communicate to this High Commissariat any news of said POW.

SUBJECT: Acts of Aggression by the French Towards Italian PW in British custody in NORTH AFRICA

TO : Italian High Commissioner for Prisoners of War.

Reference your letters 895/pol./C-3 di prot. dated 24th March 45 and 1313/Pol/C.3 di Prot. dated 25 April 1945.

1. The allegations made in the Italian High Commissioner's letter 895/pol/C-3 di Prot. dated 24 Mar 45 relate to incidents which took place at MAISON CARREE in November 1944, involving Italian Co-operators of No. 2 Italian RAF Company. These incidents have been fully investigated and the facts would appear to be as follows:-

2. At the time of the incidents Italian Co-operators in NORTH AFRICA, as in ITALY, were allowed a considerable degree of liberty. This state of affairs was resented by the French and for some weeks a state of high tension existed between the Italian PW Co-operators and the French military and civil population.

3. During this period an affray took place between Italian PW Co-operators and French military personnel at MAISON CARREE, in the course of which two French soldiers were stabbed, one of them fatally. On 23 Nov 44 a party of French soldiers congregated at the entrance to the RAF premises at MAISON CARREE. Before they could be dispersed, shots were fired which resulted in the wounding of 23554 Sold. SPEDICATO Antonio of No. 2 Italian RAF Company. It appears clear that this action by French soldiers was by way of reprisal for the stabbing of their comrades. The French soldiers did not succeed in gaining admission to the premises of No. 2 Italian RAF Company and all possible action was taken by the British RAF officer for the protection of the Italian PW under his command, such action resulting in the early dispersal of the French soldiery concerned.

4. In accordance with Article 2 of the GENEVA Convention and in agreement with the French authorities action was forthwith taken to protect Italian PW in NORTH AFRICA from aggression by the only means possible, that is to say, confinement of the PW to their camps with consequent restriction of the liberty they had previously enjoyed.

5. The allegations as to ill treatment by the French of Italian PW while under interrogation relate to the investigation of the stabbing of two French soldiers referred to above, as a result of which an Italian PW in French custody named VIBRATI is now awaiting trial by a French Military Court. The following facts have been elicited:-

a) There is no trace that an Italian W.O. on the strength of No. 2 Italian RAF Company was at any time handed over to the French for interrogation. Italian personnel of the Company have been questioned and know of no such incident as that described.

b) Captain SALEMI has made a statement on oath confirming the statement made by the High Commissioner that he was not allowed to accompany his men during interrogation. It is, however, pointed out that there is no provision in the GENEVA Convention affording any such right to an officer PW. In this instance, as is frequently the case in the conduct of criminal investigations, it was desirable that interrogations should be conducted without the presence of any third party.

c) The statement by the Italian High Commissioner relating to the ill treatment of Sgt. PICCITTO and SoldS. ZANELLA and MUSCAS while under interrogation has been supported by statements made by these PW. The British WO and NCO who were present at these interrogations have been examined and attached are certified copies of statements made by them and of their answers to questions put in cross-examination.

6. In general the Italian High Commissioner is assured that the responsible British authorities in NORTH AFRICA have throughout been fully conscious of their obligations to ensure protention to Italian PW in their custody from aggression. All possible steps have been taken to this end and it is considered that in view of the state of tension referred to in para 3 above, the fact that acts of violence were almost completely avoided in itself affords the clearest proof that these obligations have been fully honoured.

279916 Corporal Neumann, V.M.D., having been sworn states:

I am 979916 Corporal Neumann, V.M.D., officiating interpreter attached to No. 65 Section S.I.B., C.M.F.. On or about the 22nd. November 1944 I was directed to assist C.S.M. Plant, R.W. on an investigation into the alleged stabbing of a French Soldier at Maison Carree. Touey, 31 May 1945, I have read the statments of Captain Salemi, Lt. Dr. Centolo, Lt. (Chaplain) Bourrante, M.A.T.9n1 Sgt. Piccitto, 25576 Cpl. Musces and M4/r.230030 Pte. Zanelis, all of N° 2 Italian R.A.F. Company. I identify myself as having been the British police Corporal concerned, and Commissaire Puig and Inspector Masconi, Jesuit Costantin and an "Inspecteur - Chauffer" whose name I cannot recall as having been the Frenchmen present at the interrogations of Sgt. Piccotto, Cpl. Musces and Pte. Zanelis. I totally deny the allegations made by these three Italians. At no time did I bathe the lip of an Italian or wipe blood off an Italian's clothing, nor did I see such an action carried out by anyone else. At no time in my presence were any of the above Italians or any other Italians under interrogation either stepped, struck, insulted or spat upon, nor was any other maltreatment offered them by either the British or French police or anyone else. As far as I am aware, the Italians under interrogation were at no time alone with the French police, and either C.S.M.Plant or myself was always present during the interrogations.

QUESTION: Was Pte Zanelis already suffering from a bruised lip at the stat of his firs interrogation?

ANSWER : I do not remember even having observed his bruised lip.

QUESTION: Did you at any time receive from Captain Salemi or any other Italian officer complaints of maltreatment or insult to Co-operators.

ANSWER : No, Sir.

QUESTION: How do you account for the testimony that certain Co-operators left the interrogation looking "white and shaken".

ANSWER : In my opinion this was due to fear of having given something away, and not to fear of the questioners.

FURTHER STATEMENT OF 2010947 G.S.M. PLANT, J.E. Having been sworn states:-

QUESTION: Are you absolutely certain that no complaint of maltreatment or insult was made to you other than that of the Italian with the split lip you have already mentioned?

ANSWER : I am absolutely certain that no complaint was made to me, but I think that mention of this was made to an R.A.F. Interpreter by Captain Salemi on another occasion. As far as I can remember at this interval of time his mention was only made in the course of conversation between Captain Salemi and Corporal McKennie of R.A.F.

QUESTION: You do not remember being approached by F/Lt. Camona O.C. of No. 2 Italian R.A.F. Company, with any complaint of maltreatment of Italians during interrogation by French officials in your presence.

ANSWER : No, Sir, I do not remember.

QUESTION: What official instructions exist regarding the use of intimidations or blows in order to obtain police informatio

ANSWER : No such methods are tolerated in the police, either army or civil, regarding any person of any nationality, race or creed.

QUESTION: Have you nevertheless been given to understand unofficially that circumstances might arise where such methods were desirable provided their use could not be proved?

ANSWER : No, Sir.

FURTHER STATEMENT OF 979316 SURGEON KEUHAUS, V.M.D.

QUESTION: Will you reconsider your statement that you at no time received from Captain Salemi or any other Italian Officer complaints of maltreatment or insult to Co-Operators?

ANSWER : I only saw Captain Salemi once, and that was before there was cause for any complaint. On that occasion there appeared to be a personal quarrel between Captain Salemi and Sgt. PASQUINELLI in the Italian language, but the latter did not translate to me any complaint by the Italian Officer. No blows were exchanged, and there was no physical contact.

5th July 1945

Dear Mrs Campanari

Parcels for Prisoners of War in French hands in North Africa:

With reference to your recent representations concerning the possibility of instituting a special parcel service to Italian Prisoners of War in French hands in North Africa from their relatives in this country I have now been informed that it would not be practicable for the American or British Army Post Office to undertake the conveyance of such parcel mails from Italy to North Africa.

I have made enquiries as to the practicability of the Italian Government making direct approaches for the necessary shipping facilities and am told that there is no reason why bids for the necessary tonnage should not be placed in the normal way. It is pointed out, however, that the availability of shipping from Naples to Algiers is very infrequent.

In these circumstances I can only suggest that the problem should be discussed with the Italian Red Cross and representatives of the competent Italian Ministries including the Ministry of Posts and Telecommunications.

It seems to me that in view of the uncertainty of shipping facilities and the indefinite amount of traffic requiring to be concentrated at the despatching point, the best course would be to commence any such scheme on an experimental basis by issuing a special label permitting the despatch of one parcel to each of the Prisoners of War concerned.

The Ministry of Posts and Telecommunications would probably agree to parcels bearing such labels being accepted at Post Offices and forwarded exceptionally by internal postal channels wherever space permitted and the Italian Red Cross would no doubt assist where serious difficulties in this respect were experienced We would make similar arrangements so far as Military Government territory is concerned.

I am very doubtful whether the accumulation and retention of the parcels at Naples pending shipment could be undertaken by the Italian Post Office which is already in very serious difficulties owing to lack of sorting office accommodation in Naples. Perhaps the Italian Red Cross has a warehouse which could be used for the purpose?

The packing of the parcels would need special attention if they are to arrive in good condition and this may be a matter of some difficulty for the families concerned in view of the scarcity of suitable paper and string.

The arrangements for the receipt of these parcels in North Africa and their subsequent distribution to the various camps would need to be discussed with the French authorities, but the best solution would probably be for your Algiers Delegation to make the necessary arrangements. Censorship of Prisoner of War parcels is usually undertaken at the camps.

F.43.34/GS 6th July 1945

Subject: Parcels for Prisoners of War in French hands in North Africa.

To : Postal Officers, Emilia, Liguria, Lombardia and Venezia Regions.

1. The attached F.43.33/GS of 5th July is self-explanatory and is sent to you for information and for preliminary consideration of the problem from the point of view of your Region.

2. It is, of course, almost impossible to forecast the amount of parcel traffic which would arise from the introduction of such a scheme but, as there are estimated to be not more than 30,000 Italian P.W. in French hands in North Africa and as a good many of the families would probably not be able to send a parcel, the total traffic spread over the whole country would probably not be excessive.

3. In case of the Northern Provinces there would be less difficulty than in the South as regards the transport of the parcels from outlying Post Offices to the Capoluoghi, but there is the major problem of conveying the parcels from the North to Naples. Possibly by the time the scheme becomes operative the best course would be to concentrate the parcels on Milan and make a bid for direct railway conveyance in bulk. Alternatively it might be worth considering the practicability of direct conveyance under I.R.C.C. arrangements by road into France for shipment from Marseilles which may have more frequent sailings to Algiers than operate from Naples.

1. Many requests come to us from Italian parents who are anxious to know the whereabouts of their sons (a) those who were part of the Italian Army and were stranded in Germany; and (b) those who were part of the Italian Army fighting with the fascist republicans and who have been taken away by Allied forces to POW camps in Italy.

2. It occured to me that it might be possible to grant, at least to those in POW camps in Italy, the right to send a simple postcard to their parents stating that they are alive and well. This shouldn't be too complicated to work out and would be tremendously helpfull to relieve the tension now existing in thousands of Italian families.

TO THE LIEUTENANT GENERAL OF H.M. THE KING OF ITALY - ROME.

At the Prison Camp at Aversa PWE 326, there are about 2800 Italians, amongst these prisoners there are more or less a hundred officers who have been there for 6 to 12 months; said personnel has been kept quiet with promises and questioning of the part of said commission for subsequent liberation.

It is to be noted that the camp in the beginning, was used a sorting camp and the personnel arriving at this camp, in a few days, were sent on to Afragola, if military personnel, and to Padula, if civilian personnel. All those who were sent to Afragola were subsequently questioned and freed. Since Odtober, however, no one has been sent to Afragola, which has created an unjust and unexplainable position of those who remain in said camp.

There arrived at the Camp last November a Sub-Commission who questioned everybody and stated that they would all be freed in the near future, which did not come about for no plausible reason and in complete contrast to the dispozals that had been given up to that time; only now, at the end of hostilities, it has been found out from the Command of the Camp, that the liberation of these Italian Prisoners depends of the Italian Authorities.

In the 2800 Italians at thes Camp are included:

A few hundred Partisans: quite a few Italian Military Personnel, who passed the lines; individuals attached to Offices and Territorial organizations.

The Military Personnel belonging to the first two categories, were tempted to pass the lines by Allied propaganda and cannot resign themselves to imprisonment. Those in the 3rd category, were in the greater part, administrative employees. They were arrested in their respective homes, sometimes after months that they had not been working.

There is no doubt that, (except in a few possible exceptions, easily controlled) these individuals are all people who could not give up the duty imposed upon them by a Government, that governed on a basis of Military authority, sending out circulars and regulations of military character that if not obeyed, would take sanctions and reprisals against the families.

The activities of this ~~of this~~ personnel was all to the advantage of the families of these officers, warrant officers and the soldiers, including the prisoners who were in liberated Italy.

All these people are awaiting with anxiety to return to their homes and they do not resign themselves to imprisonment, knowing that almost the total number of military personnel, who after the 8 of Sept. 1943 were in service, have been liberated and have not been molested, and of those who have been arrested, the greater part have been freed.

Stranger yet, is the position of the Partisans, who since crossing the lines had every reason to think they should have been well treated by their country. On the other hand, if on the basis of the epuration laws, having belonged to the Republica Army is not a motive for epuration, there can certainly be no motive for the restriction of personal liberty.

The position of these prisoners must be definetly decide upon, also on account of the families who receive no indemnity and are deprived of the maintenance that could be given them by their relative imprisoned.

From a humane point of view, the intervention of the Italian Authorities is very necessary, more than ever now, that the position of the prisoners of all the other nations is being adjusted by the intervention of their respective governments.

Shall this be referred to AC P/W Commission

Respectful Direction,

I apply to you with the hope of having my prayers answered.

In " Giornale Lombardo " of June 23rd 1945, I read an article entitled " There is no furlough for our generation ", which was speaking about our p.o.w. too.

I have got my fiancé and my uncle in Algeria. The former was working in a town near Boghar III; the latter at Orano.

Now, are the p.o.w. in Africa also included in this article that I send you? And is there any hope that they will come back soon?

Thank you

Iris Tempesti

The article. Minister Lussu has been interviewed.

The Government - he said - has the intention of setting on a new base the problem of the return of p.o.w. and he hopes that the Allies would examine the whole problem again. We hope that, as far as transport permits, the p.o.w. who are still in the United Nations, will be allowed to come back to Italy.

ITALIAN HIGH COMMISSIONER FOR PW
Military Section

No.9892/12 di Prot.

Rome, 3 July 45

TO: The Allied Commission

SUBJECT: Request for the repatriation of the family of ex-POW A.ATO Antonio.

Major A.ATO Antonio (Air Force of the regular army) repatriated on the 15th of September 1944, from imprisonment in India, now residing in Naples Via Tito Angelini No.2, has reported on the particularly compassionate conditions under which his family are living in Asmara, having left Italy for said city a few days before war was declared and are still there, awaiting repatriation.

Major Amato was taken prisoner on the 3 of April 1941 and has not seen, since that date, his wife Anna and his four children Tarcisio aged 8, Carmelo aged 7, Paola aged 6 and Francesco aged 5.

The elder child Tarcisio was wounded in both legs during an arial bombardment and as a result presents a shortening of one leg, for which reason a surgical operation has become necessary.

Mrs. Amato is in dire financial straights having to provide for her family much as she can from the small shop that she owns in Asmara.

At present her financial situation has become very difficult, due to the fact that she has had to sustain the expenses of her son's medical treatment, and for which reason she has had to sell all her possessions.

Mrs. Amato has already asked to be repatriated but her request was not accepted.

We beg you to examine this matter with benevolence and if it is the case, to call it to the attention of the competent authorities, in order to obtain the repatriation to the Amato family, whose address is as follows: Via della Regina 55 - Asmara.

We would greatly appreciate if you will let us know as to what action can be taken on this question and we thank you.

It has been decided that Italian Prisoners of War may be repatriated on compassionate grounds to the Italian Colonies on the same basis as compassionate repatriation to Italy, viz :-

(i) The standards applicable must be the same as would warrant the repatriation of British Troops serving overseas, and must be strictly applied.

(ii) The circumstances on which the application is based must be verified by the Allied Authorities.

Applications for compassionate repatriation submitted by Italian Prisoners of War will, therefore, be transmitted to the appropriate Military Authority as given below for verification.

Applications submitted to the British Military administration of former Italian Colonial Territories will be transmitted to the country holding the Prisoners of War for action.

In all cases copies of applications and replies will be sent to the War Office (P.W.1). Applications to return to Eritrea and Tripolitania will be dealt with by CCAO, Cival Affairs Branch, Middle East Forces, and Somalia by CCAS0, Cival Affairs Branch, East Africa Command. As the Italian population of Cyrenaica was evacuated before the Allied occupation, there should be no applications to return there on compassionate grounds.

This craft was shot up by fighter A/C. on the afternoon of 7 May '43 (the date of the fall of Tunis); sh. caught fire and sank off Sidi-Bou-Said, close to the Cartagine beach (Tunis) in a calm sea.

Survivors of M.S. 22 reached the shore were given shelter and taken prisoners the following morning, 8 May 1943.

The families of these men have had no news to-date so it is thought that they must have been taken to some out-of-the-way Camp - hence lack of news.

If Allied Authorities lack information in their regard the inhabitants at Sidi-Bou-Said or Military Authorities in the area would know something about them.

Notes of the letter to be sent to prisoners residents of Venezia-Giulia

Dear countryman

Through the Italian Red Cross we obtained your address, which gives us the opportunity of bringing you the sincerest wishes from the fellow men of North-East Italy, residents at present in southern and central part of Italy. Among these various associations were formed; one of these the Adriatic League was born in Naples since the spring of 1944. Without any political tendencies its purpose is to carry on relief, with the strength at their means, to all the countrymen who are in need of moral and material help. The following gentlemen are in charge : Dott.Ing.Virgilio Formasir, Eng. Gabrio Vidulich-Fremuda, Prof.Ara, Eng.Collebi, Dr.Garbassi,Mr.Bisiani.

We want you to feel welcomed with great cordiality in our unity, and we want you to let us know whatever you need and wish : we shall do our best to be of help to you. Remember that we generally try to solve the following activities:

forwarding messages,

welcoming repatriated prisoners and their assistance, to solve all kind of applications which are of interest to refugees,prisoners, or returning soldiers.

Should, in your prisoners of war camp, be any other countryman, let us know his name and we shall get in touch with him. We will be very grateful to you if you also let us know about prisoners in other camps.

We will be grateful to you if you assist us in placing countrymen prisoners and it will also contribute to the completion of our modest mission.

Best regards and best wishes.
