Io sottoscritto, padre del prigioniero di guerra attualmente in India: Sottotenente Ing. Giulio Galletti nº 9259 c/o C.R.E. Office N.W. Army - Rawalmpindi (India) espongo quanto appresso:

Mio figlio, Ing. Giulio Galletti recatosi in Eritrea fin dal 1935 quale Impresa di costruzioni e di autotrasporti, riuscito a portare la sua attività tra le maggiori dell'ex Impero, fu sorpreso dalla guerra nella piena attività dei lavori fra i quali alcuni per conto dello Stato italiano. Per obblighi di leva (classe 1901) appartenendo agli ufficiali di complemento, trovandosi ancora in Eritrea, fu richiamato alle armi dal Presidio di Asmara ove nel 1941 combattendo al fronte di Cheren fu fatto prigioniero ed inviato nei campi di concentramento in India.

Durante la prigionia, fin dal 1944 per le sue particolari attitudini professionali, dal Comando Inglese venne chiamato a collaborare quale ingegnere progettista dei lavori ferroviari dell'India ove tuttora si trova.

Naturalmente tutte le sue attività rimasero abbandonate in mano ai suoi dipendenti che si trovano tuttora in Eritrea in attesa del suo ritorno per essere, fra l'altro, anche liquidati.

Egli ha l'impellente necessità di sistemare, oltre le varie attività tecniche ed amministrative, anche il suo patrimonio costituito in massima parte da fabbricati, officine, cantieri e varie attrezzature industriali fra cui numerosi autocarri, macchinari per costruzioni stradali, edili ecc.

Ha fatto regolare domanda al Comando Inglese dal quale dipende, per ottenere il permesso di transitare per l'Eritrea durante il rimpatrio e di fermarvisi quanto necessario; ma gli è stato comunicato, dalle stesse Autorità inglesi, che per l'esaudimento della sua domanda è necessario il nulla osta del Governo Italiano, perchè per la convenzione di Ginevra, il Governo Inglese che detiene i prigionieri italiani deve riconsegnarli direttamente in Italia.

Ciò posto, io sottoscritto rivolgo la presente domanda a codesto Ministero a che conceda il suo nulla osta. A tale riguardo faccio presente che dalle stesse Autorità Inglesi gli è stato comunicato che il NULLA OSTA deve essere fatto anche in forma di DOMANDA, ossia che

TO MINISTRY FOR POST WAR ASSISTANCE
ROME

The undersigned father of 107 in India, 2nd Lt. Giulio Galletti, No. 9259 c/o C.R.E. Office N.W. Army, Rawalpindi, India states as follows:

My son Giulio Galletti, engineer went to Eritrea in 1935 with a firm for Motor Transport and Building Activities; at the opening of the hostilities, being of the class of 1901 and Officer of the reserves, he was called in the Army by the Garrison of Asmara, he fought at Keren and was captured in 1941 and sent to a concentration Camp in India.

During his imprisonment up to 1944, due to his profession, he was asked by the English to collaborate with them as an engineer to plan the railway system in India where he still is.

All his private activities remained in the hands of his dependents who are awaiting his return in Eritrea to be payed off.

He is in great need of arranging his private affairs, consisting in greater part of industrial property that must be taken care of from an administration technical point of view.

He made a formal request to the English Command from which he depends, in order to obtain the permission to go to Eritrea during his repatriation and to remain there as long as was necessary; but he was informed by said Command that he would have to get a "Nulla Osta" from the Italian Government, because according to the Geneva Convention, the English Government repatriate the Italians directly to Italy.

For this reason the undersigned requests this Ministry to obtain the "Nulla Osta" from the Italian Government.

Regarding the above request, the english authorities have informed them that the "Nulla Osta" must be meade in the form of a request, that is in a form that authorizes and at the same time requests that he may be given permission to transit in Eritrea and remaining in that Country as long as is necessary,

1828

The authorization must be sent to India to the following address:

THE GENERAL HEADQUARTERS, INDIA

Hoping that you will take into consideration the above request, I thank you.

Will you please make inquiries regarding the whereabouts of Lt. Pellery Gianni - Artillery - who results as being prisoner in British or American Custody.

No news has been received from this officer since March 1942 where he was captured at Tobruk on the 23-11-41 and interned in a Camp in Egypt.

Furthermore his family are in great anxiety because after his capture, two ships in convoys from Tobruk at Alexsander transporting POW were sunk.

Per aderire ad analoga richiesta qui pervenuta si prega di voler far effettuare delle ricerche per accertare se il Tenente Artiglieria PELLERY Gianni risulta p.d.g. in mani britanniche o americane.

Il su citato Ufficiale non dà più sue notizie dal Marzo 42 e sembra che sia stato catturato a Tobruk il 23/11/1941 e potrebbe essere internato in un Campo dell'Egitto.

Inoltre i famigliari sono in grande apprensione perchè sembra che successivamente alla cattura, da Tobruk ad Alessandria, due navi del convoglio trasportante p.d.g. siano state affondate.

Si ringrazia.

A CALL FOR HUMANITY

Thank God we are to-day free, after five years of hard imprisonment. But it would be a crime to forget the thousands of our brothers who still languish behind the barbed wire. We cannot keep silence even if ours is only a voice in the wilder_ ness.

We do not ignore the immense difficulties of the moment, that does not permit the Allies to speed up the repatriation of the prisoners all over the world. We know of the serious efforts made by the It. Government to resolve as soon as is possible this said problem, with the difficulties of transport. As soon as we arrived in Naples and after, we were very much conforted by the manifestations that showed the interest of the It. families for the repatriation of the prisoners.

But all this is not enough for practical effects. It is necessary to demonstrate to the supreme Authorities the exsaspe rating state of mind in which the It. prisoners find themselves.

They have arrived at the supreme limit of their patience, which the slowness in repatriation is increasing, their neuropa_ tic state of mind, not due to lack of food but due to their per manence behind the barbed wire. Nor is there a lack of abso_ lute loss of mind in many cases due, to prolonged imprisonment- another alarming symptom of the situation was the strike of protest that was made in the POW Camp of Kenya and elsewhere.

If it is just to show precedence in this tormenting problem of starving Europe, it is also a duty from a minimum humanitary point of view to speed up the return of the It. Prisoners in Al lied hands. The desperate call from many mothers, wives and children cannot remain unheard at the throne of God.

Signed/ VITALI Father Marco
O.F.M. Military Chaplain

Appello umanitario

Grazie al cielo, noi siamo oggi liberi, dopo cinque anni di dura prigionia. La sarebbe un delitto dimenticare le molte migliaia di nostri fratelli, che restano tuttora a languire dentro il filo spinato. Non possiamo tacere, anche se la nostra non fosse che una voce clamante nel deserto.

Non ignoriamo le immani difficoltà del momento, che non consentono agli alleati un ritmo più celere nella restituzione dei prigionieri sparsi un pò ovunque nel mondo. Sappiamo pure tutti i generosi sforzi del governo italiano per risolvere al più presto l'angoscioso problema, ad onta della deficienza dei mezzi di trasporto. Appena sbarcati sul patrio suolo, da Napoli in poi, ci furono d'immenso conforto le manifestazioni vivissime, che dimostrano l'assillante interessamento delle famiglie italiane pel sollecito rimpatrio dei prigionieri.

Ma tutto ciò non basta agli effetti pratici. Occorre far presente con ogni mezzo persuasivo alle suprema Autorità lo stato esasperante in cui si trovano i prigionieri italiani.

Orsai si è giunti all'estremo limite di sopportazione, mentre il ritmo così lento dei rimpatri non fa che moltiplicare i casi di psicoastenia, non dovuti alla mancanza di alimentazione, bensì alla psicosi del reticolato. Né mancano purtroppo i casi di vera e propria pazzia, in stretto riferimento al protrarsi della prigionia. Un altro sintomo allarmante della situazione è lo sciopero di protesta recentemente verificatosi nei campi di prigionia del Kenia ed altrove.

Se è giusto riconoscere un diritto di precedenza al problema tormentoso di un'Europa affamata, è pur doveroso per un minimo senso di umanità fare qualche sforzo in più per accelerare il ritorno dei prigionieri italiani in mano alleate. Il grido disperato di tante madri, spose, e bambini non può rimanere

TERRITORIAL MILITARY COMMAND OF BARI
BOARD OF INQUIRIES FOR SOLDIERS
REPATRIATED FROM THE BALKANS

Taranto, 4 March 1946

To : G.H.Q.- C.M.F. - Caserta

Subject : Search for POWs.

The undermentioned soldiers, captured by the Partisans in St. Giorgio di Piano (Bologna), have not informed their families of their capture.

Their relatives have made numerous investigations in order to find them, without obtaining positive results. Therefore they suspect, the soldiers have been slaughtered by the Partisans.

Inasmuch as some of the soldiers captured by the Partisans, were handed over to the British Command and later on sent to Algeria, some families have applied to the undersigned to find out if their own relatives are among the POWs at present stationed in Algeria.

We beg earnestly your Allied Command to check if possible the list of the POWs held in Algeria and let us know the result.

Reference your letter IIW/1/3/2228 B. dtd 25 February 1946.

The desire that the M.M.I.A. has manifested for the purpose of sending newspapers to the Italian prisoners in Camp "S", Taranto, is greatly appreciated.

It is thought that the newspapers to be sent are those that are more or less independent and of general information, published in Rome, such as: "The Army news bulletin" - "Il Giornale del Mattino" - "Il Tempo" - "Il Globo" - "Il Mimito" - "Il Giornale della Sera" - "L'Osservatore Romano" - "Il Lavoro" - "Espresso" - and "L'Indipendente".

The method of distribution as these papers are published in Rome, should be as follows:

The Press Office attached to the Presidency of the Counsil of Ministers should provide for the gathering together of the papers and their onward transmittal to the Command of ~~the~~ Camp "S" or any other organization could do the same work that the M.M.I.A. desires to indicate.

The distribution could be made in measure of 1 newspaper for every ten prisoners.

As Camp "S" depends up to date from the Allied Authorities and as the M.M.I.A. has established that the payment of the papers shall be made by the Camp Welfare, we beg you to inform us if the Allied Authorities will make said payment or will it be made by the Italian Authorities.

We await your courteous answer.

Risp.fIPW/1/3/2228B del 25 febbraio 1946

Si è molto apprezzato l'interessamento di codesta M.M.I.A. per far giungere ai prigionieri di guerra italiani del campo "S" di Taranto, giornali civili italiani.-

I giornali che si ritiene siano i più adatti sono quelli indipendenti e di informazione, pubblicati a Roma e cioè: "Il notiziario dell'Esercito" - "Il Giornale del Mattino" -"Il Tempo" - "Il Globo" - " Il Minuto"- "Il Giornale della Sera" - "L'Osservatore Romano" - "Il Lavoro" - "Espresso" - "L"Indipendente".-

Il metodo di distribuzione, poichè si tratta di giornali pubblicati a Roma, potrebbe essere il seguente: raccolta giornaliera dei giornali fatta a cura dell'Ufficio Stampa della Presidenza del Consiglio e successiva spedizione al Comando del Campo "S", oppure all'Ente che codesta M.M.I.A. vorrà indicare.-

La distribuzione potrebbe essere fatta, ove ritenuto conveniente, nella misura di un giornale ogni 10 p.di g.

Siccome il campo "S" di Taranto dipende tuttora dalle Autorità Alleate, e poichè codesta M.M.I.A., con foglio cui si risponde, ha stabilito che il pagamento dei giornali sarà effettuato con

i fondi del Benessere del Campo, si prega voler precisare se detto pagamento sarà fatto a cura delle autorità alleate oppure sarà dovuto alle autorità italiane.-

Si rimane in attesa di cortesi comunicazioni.-
