Subject: M/V. 'DONIZETTI' - Missing I.S.N. personnel.

From the account given by Commander ARCANGIOLI Adriano, formerly commanding the I.R.M. Headquarters, Rhodes, it appears that the M/V "Donizetti", which was captured by the Germans in Greece, left Rhodes p.m. on 19th September 1943 carrying service personnel to be interned in Germany.

Of the troops on board this vessel which was sunk on the night of 19-20 September '43, about 1200 were Petty Officers and Seamen and the lists of these ratings were held by the German Authorities at Rhodes.

As this Ministry has failed to trace the nominal list of those embarked and the Italian Red Cross has not communicated names of survivors, it is requested that the appropriate Allied Authorities may be asked to make enquiries with the object of recovering the abovementioned lists.

The undersigned Elda Dina FICCA, daughter of the late Carmine, sister of POW Serg. Maj. Fulvio Ficca n. 67302 POW in the concentration camp of Zonderwatef, has the honor to request your office to ask that the South African Government authorize after 4 years imprisonment (after broken heart) be allowed to keep and bring back with him to Italy, his manuscripts and music written by him during imprisonment. He has tried duting imprisonment to arrange all this material away from his country and his family and it means a great deal to him, as all his hopes are ~~forwarded~~ FOUNDED in his writings and that the Italian Society of Authors will examine and take into consideration his works.

I ask this in my brother's name, in the certainty that you will consider his request; he has spent many years in prison and during this time has lost his mother who died of a broken heart and worry over her two only sons who were exposed to all the dangers of war and afterwards the hard life of imprisonment.

I beg your Excelency to interest the competent South African authorities and the Allied Command, that they may consent to my brother returning with his manuscripts which rappresent his future possibility of earning a living.

Thank you.

Dear Sir Francis;

reference your letter 85/35 45 dated 12 Dec 45.

On 19 November 1945 the Legal Sub-Commission of the Allied Commission requested this Division that steps be taken to secure permission for Lt. Salvatore RICCOBONI to send by the safest mean possible the treatise on Roman law which he has compiled during his term of captivity.

The matter was referred to G-1 (B) AFHQ and we are now awaiting a reply which I will be pleased to communicate to you.

85/35/45

Dear Colonel Regis,

His Excellency Salvatore Riccoboni, the well-known Italian academician, has appealed to me, through the Vatican, to assist his son Tenente Salvatore Riccoboni, P.O.W. No. 17781, Camp 26/6, India, who is anxious to be given permission to bring home with him a treatise on Roman Law, which he has compiled during his term of captivity.

It would seem that a local law prohibits the carrying of documents by ex-prisoners on repatriation, but perhaps it might be modified in certain cases.

I should be very grateful if you could forward this appeal to the competent authority.

Yours sincerely,

D. G. Osborne.

Dear Sir,

re Santo Verde deceased
The son of Signora Marta Maggio Verde

I enclose herewith a letter of today's date which I have addressed to Signora Verde with enclosures therein mentioned.

I am sending it through you because I am not sure whether in the circumstances of this case, which you will observe from the letter and enclosures you may desire to arrange for the "In Memoriam" Testimonial to be handed over to the mother of this Prisoner of War publicly.

In this country, as you will be aware, it is customary for such presentations, in general, to be made at the Local Magistrates' Court.

re: MUSCOLIN ATTILIO
born at Isola d'Istria
19.3.1921

We were asked by Mr. Vittorio Muscolin to assist him in obtaining some news about his son's fate. Attilio Muscolin was in June 1942 in Cirenaica as a Tank Corporal of the XI Battaglione Carri M. 13/40 Compagnia Comando P.M. 56 c.

Mr. Muscolin received the following communication about his son's from the Commander.

" On June 3rd 1942 in a locality near Bir Hakeim towards 9 p.m. a German truck with some wounded stopped near the workshop. Muscolin offered to escort them to the Sanitary Station. Owing to the darkness it is supposed that they lost their way and that they reached the British lines. Everybody is convinced that he is a P.O.W."
Could you please check his name in your lists and let us know as to the result?

In view of the fact that Italian Prisoners of War in British hands will not be repatriated for some time, this Ministry has been asked whether it would not be possible to send at least two copies of each political newspaper to the various prisoner of war camps, for the purpose of illuminating the said prisoners on the subject of Italian politics.

We put this matter to MMIA, begging you kindly to inform us of your decisions regarding the matter.

Attached is one example of the numerous letters received here by this Office.

It is appreciated that in the case of the majority of the Balkan countries there is very little that the American and British governments can do directly.

The case of Greece, however, should not be so difficult. Is anything known of the prospects of repatriation of Italian PW from that country?

TO THE ALLIED MILITARY COMMAND - MILANO.

From the newspaper "Ritornano", we come to know of the bad situation of our prisoners in the Balkans and to be precise in Macedonia who "suffer, languish and die forgotten in the Balkan peninsular."

Only the Allied Army, can liberate our dear ones, so far from us in this Concentration Camp (says the newspaper) and it is just for this, that also in the name of other mothers, sisters and wives, that we beg this Comman to take our appeal into kind consideration as soon as possible.

It is now some time since we had any news, are they still living? suffering? are they dead? we know nothing.

I, the undersigned, Garri Pierina, have a brother in Macedonia, Garri Leonardo, from whom we have had no news, but hope that through your kindness, to know something soon, because you must know that when your English prisoners fled from the Concentration Camps in that far off Sept 1943, we did everything we could to save them, rather than consign them to the fascists.

As a matter of fact, I had in my house from Sept to Dec 1943, eight English military men, nursed one who was seriously ill, in spite of the risks and danger then prevailing. In fact owing to a repugnant fascist spy, I, with all those poor fellows, was arrested while we were having our supper, They, being soldierswere sent to a Concentration Camp, and I, as you well know, should have been condemned to death because I had transgressed the fascist law; instead I was confined in a gloomy prison, where I suffered pain and humiliation of every kind, from which I shall never quite recover.

Now,on hearing of my brother's treatment knowing that only the Allies can free these poor prisoners, I, in the name of all, appeal to you, so that their sufferings may end; the fault is not theirs but the Facsist Government has been the cause.

Hoping that this appeal will be taken into your kind consideration , and soon to have the satisfaction of embracing our dear ones now so far from us

Believe me Gentlemen
Yours very respectfully
Garri Pierina

SUBJECT : S.-Ten. Salvatore Riccobono: Prisoner of War in Bombay.

TO : Italian Prisoners of War Sub-Commission.

I enclose a letter from the Minister of Education regarding Lieut. Salvatore Riccobono at present a Prisoner of War in Camp No. 26, Bombay. The Minister states that Lieut. Riccobono has occupied his leisure during captivity in writing scientific studies on Roman Law, which the regulations will not allow him to take away with him when he is repatriated. This would not only be a great hardship, and, as mentioned in the letter, an injury to science, but may be considered as a breach of international conventions regarding prisoners. In order that Lieut. Riccobono may not be deprived of the fruits of his labours during years of captivity which will be a definite contribution to legal science it would be greatly appreciated by this Sub-Commission if the I.P.W. Sub-Commission would take all steps necessary to have the manuscripts sent by the safest means to Italy.

Will you please examine with all benevolence the following case and do all you can to bring it to a favourable finish.

P.O.W.Salvatore Riccobono nephew of the famous lawer, himself also a student of Roman law has written during his inprisonment a scientifical treatise on that subject.

He has been informed that on his repatriation, owing to regulations, he will not be allowed to bring back this work, which rappresents years of labour and will certainly be a very valuable document in this material.

I beg you to intervene on his behalf also not to add to his sufferings with the prohibition for him to keep his work as he has already been sorely tried due to the death of a son which occured during his inprisonment.

Cordialy yours,

Aranjio Ruiz.
