1. The Italian Authorities, through Allied Commission, have requested the death-certificate of the above named Italian PW together with information regarding any articles of value he may have left for his next of kin.
2. This man was a PW in UDIA and died at sea while being repatriated on the ship "Felix Russell" in Nov/Dec 1944. (It is thought the ship's name should read "Felix Russell"). He was buried in the Red Sea.
3. In such cases the CMD of the ship usually hands over the death certificate to the AMES at the Port of Disembarkation.

Verdict.

I don't think there can be the slightest doubt as to the facts in this inquiry, Mr. A. L. Simpson- having fitted a new sight to his rifle with assistance of the deceased, BIASUTTI Mario, an Italian Evacuee carpenter from Nanyuki Evacuee Camp who was working for him - went out to test it on a range: firing at a target only 30 yards or so from the workshop.

Deceased Mario BIASUTTI went and signalled the hits for him : and after signalling went back behind the workshop some 30 yards from the line of fire to the right: 10 shots were thus fired, at the 10th deceased called out "bull centre" and he and Mr. Simpson were only 130 yards apart- he was signalled away and started walking back to his place behind the workshop. The target, a sheet of G.I. was not firmly fixed in the ground. It is perfectly clear that at this moment the deceased turned back when some halfway to the work shop and went behind the target- presumably to fix it more firmly: and obviously he thought Mr. Simpson saw him go back: but at that moment Mr. Simpson was having difficulty with a stiff bolt and was looking at that: when he looked up he saw the target clear and no one in sight: he assumed the deceased was back in his usual place behind the workshop; he reloaded and fired again and the shot killed BIASUTTI who was in a crouching position directly behind the target: he died in 1 hour on the way to Nanyuki Hospital. On these facts I find there was no criminal negligence but that both BIASUTTI and Mr. Simpson failed to use the maximum of care and precaution: clearly BIASUTTI should have called out to Mr. Simpson when he turned back to let him know what he was doing and make sure he saw: and similarly Mr. Simpson should have watched BIASUTTI get back behind the shed before reloading: both failed to take the maximum of precaution: the result was an unfortunate accident: I find the death of Mario BIASUTTI was due to misadventure.

On August 1st 1940, the plane, under command of General CAGNA at the head of a formation entered into action against a certain number of English ships, amongst whom, was the air-plane carrier Ark Royal, south of Formentera, the plane in question hit immediately by the anti aircraft, abandoned the formation and flew south.

Around about 19 hrs (about 15 minutes after the bombardment) two Spanish planes coming from the Baleari Islands, commanded by Capt. Sancho, saw at Lat & Long. 4°00' E. 37°32'N. about 35 miles north of Dalys, between Cran and Algiers, a plane S.79 in flames: the Spaniard flew down to 50 meters and saw a man standing up on the right wing and two others holding on to the same wing. One of the Spanish planes threw three life Belts, that fell near them, while the other plane asked for help by radio from the Baleari Islands - how ever when the help arrived there was nothing to be seen except a submarine at Lat. & Long. 2°45 E and 38°00 N. From the Air Ministry at Madrid, from our information service we were informed, (which information was afterwards confirmed by the English) that the Ark Royal on the 3rd of August, on her return from the above mentioned military operation, landed 15 or 20 Italian prisoners at Gibraltar, who were imprisoned in the prison of Wind Mill Hill, being all Italian military personnel.

They remained at Wind Mill Hill untill the 5th of August, after which date they were put on a cruiser and sent North.

On 2nd August two other planes were sent out to look for them.

The London Radio on the 3rd or 4th of August at 20<sup>15</sup> hrs. during the transmission in the Italian language stated that, 4 pilots during the military action of August 1st, had made use of their parachutes.

The equipage of the plane S.79 that went down on August 1st was composed as follows:

- NT General Stefano CAGNA
- NT Lt.Col. CAPAZZI Nello
- NT Maj. SPOLVERATO Guido
- NT 2nd Lt. PALLAVICINI Guglielmo
- NT Warrant officer RIE. ARIBERTI Giovanni
- NT 1st Airman DELLA GIUSTINA Ugo

SPEECH DELIVERED BY THE MINISTER OF THE POST-WAR
ASSISTANCE TO PRISONERS OF WAR

As Minister of the Post-War Assistance, I desire to appeal to our prisoners of war: to those who still live the hard life of the concentration camps and who are still longing for their return home. 2701

I desire to greet them all, aware that their misfortune, among those which afflict Italy, without any responsibility on our part being a democratic government, is the one which grieves and torments us most.

I extend my greetings not only to them but to their families who number almost a million, many of whom besides eagerly awaiting the return of their loved ones, are also experiencing anguish over the uncertainty of their present lot.

We feel that your fate, prisoners of war scattered all over the world, is the same fate as that of our country. You represent the youth which Fascism removed from its peaceful pursuits and crazily threw into a very deep abyss, by forcing it to fight against those peoples most loved by the Italian people.

You have not been defeated; defeated are those who are responsible for your fate. You are the victims of a great injustice. But all those of you who have kept in their souls a profound humane and conventional feeling of justice, in reality, are the unconquered and not the vanquished.

You find yourself in such a situation as to need your country's help while your country needs your own help. We all sense that the return to normal of your Nation without you is impossible and that without you the Nation is mutilated and incapable of rebirth.

I know that my words will not reach all of you; too many difficulties have compromised our mutual relationships. The Government is aware of your situation, but it cannot do anything to bring back to normal our relationships. I want you to know your immediate repatriation to Italy does not depend upon us.

The Allies have willingly helped us for as much as they could, but they, have still to face the problem of transportation in Central Europe, the problem of the transferment and demobilization of their Armies in Europe, Africa and Asia and that of supplying the most war-stricken populations.

Due to such difficulties, the repatriation of all of you was not yet been effected. It still is an extremely difficult operation.

Nevertheless, 300,000 prisoners have been repatriated from the most remote countries of the earth, mainly from Central Europe, either individually and collectively. This is an esiguous figure indeed, but the number of returnees is increasing every day. And we hope that, gradually the means of transportation will become increasingly available, so that even the prisoners overseas will be able to return home. We hope that everybody will celebrate next Christmas with his own family. However it is known, thru the data available to this Ministry, that all our prisoners who are in Germany, Austria, France and in the large zone controlled by the Soviet Army, will be repatriated by next September.

You, well know, that Italy is terribly battered; this is the sad inheritance of Fascism. For this reason it is difficult to grant to every one that help which he deserves. But our Government will do the best it can so that the sick be given medical care and the others, either professional persons, employees, workers, farmers, be enabled to resume their places in Society. Some legislative provisions have already been adopted, while others are under enactment, which will better the assistance given to the prisoners so that they won't feel neglected, either upon their arrival in Italy or upon their return to their communities.

The country has suffered much both from the Fascist regime and from the war; over one million refugees and war-stricken people are suffering too and are entitled to support from the Nation. Italy is a poor nation: what she is doing in their behalf is more a moral participation in their sufferings than actual help.

I have been head of this Ministry a short time, which is your own Ministry, and in which there are as my close co-operators the Great National Association of Veterans, the Association for Disabled Veterans and the Committee for Former POW's which was constituted within the main association. Ours is a very great family, indeed, while the assistance is accepted not as a beneficence out, rather, as an act of unified solidarity.

I am convinced that some great problems, among those regarding you, will be quickly solved by means of the generous love of your Country as I am sure that yourselves will be the first originators of your own rebirth.

We have to accomplish many things in unity of purposes and of aims in order to bring about the rebirth of Italy as a free, peace-loving, industrious Nation.

It is in order to attain this aim that we await you:
we must reconstruct Italy together.

1859

From : Ministry of War, Autonomous Bureau for Former P.O.W.'s and repatriated Veterans.

August 1945

This is a speech delivered, by Count Stefano JACINI, Minister of War, to Italian P.O.W., and interned soldiers.

There are no words apt to express the anxiety of the whole Nation, which for years, is doing its best in your behalf, POW's and all other soldiers scattered abroad because of the war. Your country has been sharing your very torments and hopes and has been embodying your very passion.

It is incredible not to have sensed this stream of profound affection which spontaneously originates from the heart of the people and which rejoins all of you, more tenaciously than ever before, to your dear ones and to your country; it is incredible not to have perceived how your country, although unfortunate, it is slowly but securely emerging to a new life, has always considered you in a light of pride and of unchanged faith.

The numerous messages addressed to you were meant to materialize the firm and affectionate spiritual communion which joins the entire country to you. Perhaps only few of them have reached you, if they ever have, due to the insufficiency of reliable communications: our worries our soul, have been and are always outstretched in your direction.

These sentiments of which you can righteously be proud and which have rendered the impatient waiting for your return more hectic should constitute a consolation as well as a help in enduring better the suffering deriving to you as prisoners, especially if we consider that you might be held as prisoners for a long period of time.

The Government, which directly emanates from the people whose anguish it shares, is since tackling the difficulties concerning your repatriation. These difficulties are of a various and complex nature due to the impossibility to reach any immediate and definite solution because of the Armistice-determined juridical status of Italy in regards with the United Nations.

I cannot for obvious reasons, furnish details on the delicate and tenacious job being carried out earnestly by the Government in this field.

Nevertheless, as you can assume from the figures I am going to quote to you, some favorable results have already been obtained, thanks to the spirit of comprehension of the Allies. It is for this reason that we fore-see that the gradual betterment under way will lead to a definite solution of the problem, as a consequence of the likely new diplomatic status of our country.

Up to 20 July either POW's and Interned soldiers whose repatriation was made possible, amount to over 180,000 persons and to be exact:

|--------|---------------------------------------|
| 22,000 | from Africa                           |
| 2,500  | from India                            |
| 800    | from the U.S.                         |
| 71,500 | from the Balkans, Greece and Bulgaria |
| 22,000 | from Switzerland, France              |

It was so far impossible to gather the exact data on the amount of the strong grove of people repatriated from Germany, either soldiers and interned civilians or POW's.

Soldiers alone amount to several thousands. All those of you who are about to realize your longed return from Germany or still waiting to commence the journey back home, be certain that your welcome was planned with the utmost care by authorities fully aware of the particular gravity of the moral and material sufferings you have endured: receiving centers, relief organizations, stations of medical care are all set to house you.

It is hoped that your repatriation can be completely effected within the month of September.

We hope that also repatriations from the Balkans, Greece and Albania will be shortly accomplished: the amount of military prisoners stationed in such regions has been repatriated almost entirely.

The long months of strenuous struggle carried out against the Germans under difficult conditions of environment and with scarce and unsecure supplies, but in very high hopes, are apparent on the faces of these brave soldiers.

Every effort has been and is being made to cope with the first and greatest difficulties of these brothers of ours who so much deserve their own country's gratitude.

If the material means available were sometimes not proportioned to the necessities, yet they represent the climax of our possibilities.

Compared with the huge number of POW's awaiting repatriation home to their families, the figures of persons repatriated might appear limited, especially to those who have no possibility to verify either the largeness and complexity of the problem concerning repatriation of POW's.

Being fully aware of your state of mind, of the insufficient exactness of news that might get to you and might increase your spiritual affliction, of your infinite suppositions, inevitably optimistically or pessimistically exaggerated, I believe it is my duty to inform you better of the situation, how it is in reality. This situation, though delicate and difficult, does not justify, however, exaggerated worries.

Apart from the grave difficulties deriving from shortage of means of conveyance, aggravated by the continuation of war in the east and by the conditions of our railroads, the problem of repatriating POW's bears directly on the economic-social conditions of the Nation.

Our country which is now slowly raising again by dint of laborious efforts is hampered by an economic depression which, perhaps, does not appear in its entire reality to one who is unable to observe all of its features. Said depression is determined by the grave difficulty of realizing food supplies, by the utmost shortage of clothing, by the conditions of agriculture so heavily stricken by war, by the scarcity of the most commonly used goods indispensable to life. The help being lent by the Allies, who are supplying us animated by a spirit of understanding in every field of national activity, has enabled us to make the first step towards a gradual but secure rebirth.

You, as well as myself, being veterans and jealous defenders of our traditions of heroism and sacrifices, hold particularly dear this tangible acknowledgment of our contribution to the struggle against the common enemy, of the bravery of our fighting soldiers, whose blood so generously profused is a secure proof of the tenacious will of the Nation to be redeemed and be returned to life.

In addition, it is also an acknowledgment of the silent and active contribution of the remarkable number of you, which has been used by the Allies as cooperators. This contribution, while highly appreciated by the Allies, deserved the gratitude of the country which fully estimates its importance as directed to accelerate its resurrection.

But the help furnished by the Allies, though given with generosity, cannot substantially alter the present conditions of general misery which will be bettered and definitely overcome one day, only through hard work.

The Italian people do not lack the will to work as we are every where well known and enjoy a good reputation of being intelligent and stubborn workers.

The possibility to obtain from foreign countries those credits which are indispensable to the supply of raw materials for our industries mostly spared, for our agriculture, for the resumption of our activities depends mainly on our seriousness, on our capacity to work honestly, on the discipline we will demonstrate to be endowed with as a guarantee of the credits we need and which will thus be made into either work and bread for our families.

This is the ultimate only secure base on which to found the rebirth of our country.

You, POW's and interned people who are living in the heart of the people more than ever, being the natural and jealous custodians on its nobless accomplishments and having kept your faith in the national flag inalterate and your most profound devotion to your country throughout these long years of torment, have also the pride to be an example of order, discipline and faith in every field.

Raise your souls anew beyond the moral sufferings of this undeserved captivity of yours in the pride of the duty accomplished by you and in the certainty of shortly returning to the affections of your dear ones and to your status of free and active men.

The country, which is waiting for you with so much warm impatience, sees in all of you the support of orderly energies, of disciplined and tenacious will, which will aid it to overcome better this critical moment.

But your country, very generously, in spite of the very grave economic restrictions, is contributing and will contribute also through the after-war Ministry of Assistance, instituted for this purpose. To the activity of caring for your families and those veterans who have already returned.

A complex organization has been prepared by the Government welfare organizations to welcome you back home.

Receiving centers, scattered by the Military Authorities all over the National territory, are ready to welcome you at your arriving locations at home and to care for your first necessities.

With the least loss of time - the stay at the receiving center is no longer than four or five days - upon completion of the processing and administrative operations and upon liquidation of the due amounts, the veteran is expeditely routed to his residing place being entitled to a two-months leave with complete war compensations paid in advance.

During the same leave and by the After-war welfare Ministry, it is provided that, upon expiration of leave, the veterans may be secured with the maximum possible help in his efforts to secure a definite settlement to work.

It is impossible to express to you how numberless and grave the difficulties are being coped with and resolved daily for this purpose, and there is no word capable of depicting the affectionate passion which pervades the entire nation adds to this opus, by dint of hard sacrifices.

You shall deserve so much affection and shall prove worthy of the faith the country entertains in you.

Upon your return you will face some living difficulties which you will be able to overcome only if you'll face them with calm, without unchecked stirrings, being fully aware of your duty towards your dear ones and yourself.

Your sense of responsibility, your firm faith, the sentiment of discipline which can only assure the cohesion of a whole country in its noble effort to find its own greatness in a serene and fecund peace, your pride of being free men, morally and spiritually strong, constitute those values indispensable to our country to regain its prestige in the world.

Soldiers, POW's and Internees who are the most precious of this Italy of ours so great even in its Misfortune: 2692

Raise from every field your thought to the flag which is the sacred and eternal expression of our people, greet these people who, still covered with profound wounds, is already marching with determination and faith in a pacific and noble competition along with civilized Nations.

The Secretariat of State of His Holiness has been requested to seek information regarding the whereabouts and health of Cap. Major Fulvio Conti.

Fulvio Conti belonged to the 75 Infantry Bn, Palazzolo Acreide (Sicily) He was injured during an Allied bombardment July 9, 1943, and, according to the testimony of his comrades hospitalized at Vizzini. Later he was interned in the concentration camp at Catania, Sicily.

He probably was transferred to Tunis after the Allied occupation of Sicily and may be among the Italian prisoners of war or with the Americans.

Thanking you for the consideration you may deem to give this request, I am

Sincerely yours,

Walter S. Carroll.

I have been given to understand that my Wife, who is in Italy, has been receiving all my letters very regularly ever since the time I was taken as a prisoner in August, 1943, and up till now I regret to say that I have not received any reply from her, and not getting any news as regards the welfare of my family and also the condition of affairs in my home.

I will always be greatly indebted to you, Sir, if you will assist me in my predicament, by contacting the Italian Authorities in my district, asking them please to let me know the actual state of how things are in my home.

TO THE ALLIED MILITARY GOVERNMENT

TRIESTE

The writer MORATTO Giuseppe residing on the Island of Istria Via S. Bortolo 8 begs the A.M.G. to help him in finding his son MORATTO Silvano, born in Istria on the 16th Nov. 192(1)?

His son was onboard the torpedo boat R.N/ Scirocco that was sunk on 23rd March 1942.

From that date he has received no news and the It. Government has reported him as missing.

I have talked with an Italian soldier who assured me that he was with my son in a Concentration Camp at Ismailia-Cairo- either 108 or 308, he does not remember the number, up to July 1945 and that is 40 months after the ship was sunk.

I therefore beg you to make an investigation and inform me of the result.

Lo scrivente Moratto Giuseppe, residente a Isola d'Istria, Via San Bortolo 8, viene gentilmente pregare Codesto Spett. Governo Militare Alleato affinché voglia cortesemente aiutarlo nella ricerca del figlio, Moratto Silvano di Giuseppe e di Carboni Aurelia, nato a Isola d'Istria il 16 novembre 1924.

Il figlio era imbarcato, quale marinaio sul R.C.T. Sirocco, che fu silurato il 23 marzo 1942.

Da quella data non ricevetti più alcuna sua diretta notizia mentre il governo italiano lo calcolò disperso.

Per conto mio iniziai delle indagini e finalmente questi giorni ho potuto parlare con un combattente italiano questi mi assicurò d'esser stato con lui fino al 25 luglio 1945, cioè fino quaranta mesi dal naufragio, nel campo di concentramento di prigionieri di ISMAILIA - CAIRO N. 108 oppure N. 308, non ricorda il numero preciso.

Vengo dunque pregarvi d'essere così gentili di voler fare delle indagini e darmi qualche sua notizia

GO 17614/1

The Minister of the Royal Household

Rome, 11 December 1945

My dear Admiral,

Mr. Giovanni Tariciotti, residing at San Vito Romano, asked for the intervention of H.R.H. the Lieutenant General of the Kingdom to get news from his son, Pfc Guido Tariciotti, class 1915, of whom he hasn't heard for a long time; he was doing service with the 69th Autotruck Infantry Regiment - 3rd Company (VIII Army Corps), which, according to the informations given by the Greek Legation in Rome, was transferred from Arta to Prevesa at the end of November 1944. It seems that at that time Tariciotti was ill, and that there were already allied troops at Prevesa; the said troops were repatriating Italian soldiers.

According to the intention of His Royal Highness, I bring the request of the poor father to your attention, for he is very anxious about the fate of his son. Whatever you will deem it fit to do will be greatly appreciated.

Thanking you in advance, and asking you to let me have an answer for the information of His Royal Highness, I remain, my dear Admiral,

Sincerely yours,

s. Lucifero

10 September 1945

From : Italian Red Cross - Delegation of Collegno.
To : Commander of 211 POW Camp B - Algiers

As an agent of the Italian Red Cross, I am concerned with the case of Corp. Fasano Augusto, born in 1925 and a resident of Rivoli ( Province of Turin ).

On two different occasions, my interest in him has been as follows:

After 8 September 1943, finding himself desbanded from the Army, he returned to carry on work on the farm with his father and brother. Hunted by the Republicans, he joined the Partisans. Captured during a mopping up by the Republicans, he was confined in the prison located at Via Asti in Turin. There he was repeatedly tortured and at last, in order to save his life, he had to enlist in the Republican Army.

As a Republican he participated in mopping-up partisan bands; but it was during these operations that he joined again the partisans. Recaptured by the Republicans, he was processed for attempted desertion and had his life spared only through the assistance of the Italian Red Cross. Afterwards he was sent again to a republican unit.

After 26 April, that is after the Germans' and Fascists' surrender, we lacked news from him until we knew that he was held as a prisoner in Concentration Camp No.211.

This Italian Red Cross Delegation, having laready spared the life of the aforementioned man, is applying now to the 211 POW Concentration Camp Commander, in order to have him released. In fact, he was forced against his own will to be a republican and never damaged the partisans, but instead assisted them in every way possible.

To support the above statement, see the following attached documents:

- A) Statement of "Brigada Superga" Commander;
- B) Statement of Mr. Mico, Royal Carabinieri Staff Sergeant;
- C) Letter from S.Martino di Rivoli's Pastor.

Please, let me know if any other formalities are needed for Fasano's release.

With the best regards,

I, the undersigned, Gallo Clemente, former commander of the Unit G.L. Leva, V Division G.L. of the Brigade Suprega, certify that Fasano Augusto belonged to my unit since January 1945.

Moreover he has helped my unit by giving weapons and food-stuff ( grain, wheat, forage etc.) He also allowed us to dwell in his house and put at our disposal horses, carts and everything that was necessary to us.

The above-said can be stated also by all the other partisans of my unit.

TO : Commander of the POW Camp No. 211 - Algiers.

I, the undersigned Rev. Don Pedro Matteo, Pastor of San Martino in Rivoli, make the following statement on the military status and conduct of soldier Pasano Augusto, a POW with serial number 287331.

Thru my personal knowledge and gathered informations I am able to declare that the above named is not to be considered as a deserter of the Italian Partisans Army inasmuch as he did not give himself up spontaneously but was captured by violence near Rivoli; moreover while he was with them he helped in every possible manner the Partisans Command.

I know Pasanos family quite well, a good family both from the religious and from the civil viewpoint and I am able to witness that, because of work on the farm, it has extreme need of the help of the son Augusto.

Consider, Sir, that his Father is 80 years old and unhealthy, with another son invalid of war, and has not been able to cultivate his large farm for over 60 days.

Will, you, Sir, in your understanding and goodness, release the good Augusto; you will do an act of charity and justice, appreciated by God and men.

Accept, Sir, my best thanks and regards.

OFFICE OF THE

Rome,

GAB/99/45/R.

5th December, 1945.

To: Hq. Allied Commission (The Director, War Materials Disposal and Italian Prisoners of War Sub-Commission).

I have been asked by Mr. Marco Chiesa of Genoa, whom I have known for many years, if I could assist in the enquiry he is making in respect of his son Giorgio Chiesa who was born Genoa on the 26th November, 1924.

Mr. Chiesa tells me his son passed over to the Patriots but unfortunately was arrested by the Fascists as a political prisoner and sent to Parma for trial by a special tribunal.

On release from jail he was recruited to the Italian Navy for the submarine chaser division known as "X" (or 10th) M.A.S.. He was last heard of on the 26th April, 1945, when he left Venice for Genoa. Mr. Chiesa says he heard from friends that his son was in Allied hands and sent by them from Spezzia to a concentration camp for young prisoners.

If there is any information available which could be communicated to Mr. Chiesa in respect of his son it would be much appreciated if this could be forwarded to him direct at his home address:-

Marco Chiesa,
Via Redipuglia 18,
Genoa/Quattro.
