Colonel Reagis,

Dear Sir, In writing you re the subject I telephoned you about a couple of days ago. Because of the news, the Mother of one of the lost men, wrote to my daughter, it is possible that the United States may be able to give us correct news of the loss of this Submarine "Faa di Bruno" which was a recent and finished ship before Italy declared war on G. Britain. The Submarine left the French Coast on October 31st 1940 + no news has been heard of it or any of the crew, since November 5th 1940 when they received the last Radio message from them, saying they were approaching Newfoundland. It appears, that none of the usual traces of the wrecked submarine was found, it seemed to have disappeared mysteriously. Any papers or letters, on my son-in-law would be addressed as follows,

Comandante. Aldo. Enrici,
Sommergibile Faa di Bruno,
Ministero della Marina,
Roma.

or N. H. Aldo. Enrici,
Capitano di Corvetta,
Ministero della Marina,
Roma.

If you could give us any news regarding my son-in-law who was the Commander of the "Faa di Bruno", or any of the crew, we should be very grateful. We were not given any hope from the beginning, as no news from any source regarding the ship could be obtained. We would like to know if she were sunk or were the men taken prisoner, or how they died + what happened to the "Faa di Bruno". We would be grateful for all details, as we do not like the silence + the lack of any news about the Commander + his men. It is now nearly nine years since it disappeared. And, now, that this person has written the following 5.8.2 it is possible that they were taken or sunk, by your men, + not the British. She wrote as follows. (A child - a boy - is making a great sensation in Italy because of his natural powers of foretelling events + numerous people there have no news of their relatives. A man visit his home + have been told two things. His home is at Albiolo "grasso" near Milan. She said that, in her sorrow + great anxiety to have news of her son, who is married + has a child, she went to see this lady, who is dedicated, to the seeking of news of those who have disappeared in the War - to see if she could help her. Well she said that her son spoke to her in her presence + said, that he was at Fort Ford; Campo 151; Reparto X; America. We could not quite understand the first word before Ford, but, I have written it as she did. She said, there were about 2000 people present, + that not all had the good luck to hear their dear ones answer them + the boy also, told some of those present that their men were dead. Well, that is the story we have just received. There may be something in it, + there may not. I have heard of such things being authentic, + we read about this lady's remarkable powers some time ago, but there nothing about it. Perhaps, the address given above as to talk to this Mother, may help to receive some news about the others I hope so, +, if you would let me know something, as soon as you receive news, if any, I would be grateful. With many thanks, in advance, for anything you can do.

Are there still men, prisoners, (Naval men) Italians, taken by your Country or the British? If so, where are they? Most of sailors + officers have returned some time ago, who were on submarines, + about whom our news had been heard for very little, as regards. the Foa di Bruno" all is silence. Once again, very many thanks for any news whether good or bad.

Telephone No. Slough 94.

Yours faithfully,
D. M. Morgan-Williams.

Lt. FABBRI was on the "S.S. Citth di Palermo", that was sunk on the 5th Jan.1942 on her way from Brindisi to the Egean sea near the island of Cefalonia.

It seems that, as she was sunk near the coast some few people were saved, aftern were taken prisoners by the Allies and others were reported missing. Could you inform us as to whether FABBRI was one of those taken prisoner.

Captain Ugo DEL VECCHIO who was onboard was heard of on the 20-2-1946 from England. From enquiries forwarded to the British General Staff regarding DEL VECCHIO present address the following was received :

(Evacued in United Kingdom - England or the Dominion) but nothing was heard from him directly.

If possible to trace Del Vecchio, he might be able to furnish news.regurding Lt.Fabbri.

We beg your Division to take this matter up with the competent British Authorities and would greatly appreciate if you would inform us of the result of the investigation.

Io sottoscritto MOCCIA Giuseppe , aviere scelto, attendente del Maggiore Pilota FILIPPI LUIGI - 23° Gruppo C.T.- dichiaro quanto appresso :

" Il 20 febbraio 1943 con una FIAT 1100 R.A. montata dai sottosegnati militari :
Maggiore Pilota FILIPPI LUIGI - Tenente G.A. MAJONE Mario - Aviere scelto autista CIPRIANI Renato - Aviere scelto MOCCIA Giuseppe - sullo stradone Feriana -Tebessa in Tunisia venivamo fatti segno da intenso fuoco nemico in conseguenza del quale rimanevano sul posto morti o presunti tali il Tenente Majone e l'autista Cipriani, mentre lo scrivente illeso ed il Maggiore Filippi ferito al petto venivano catturati prigionieri dal reparto americano colà operante.=

Lo scrivente dichiara che il Maggiore Pilota Filippi Luigi fu colpito al petto da proiettile di mitraglia , forse di rimbalzo, mentre stava a terra ed una volta catturato ebbe le prime assistenza sanitarie nelle immediate vicinanze dopo di che,medicato sulla camionetta stessa che l'aveva raccolto da personale di sanith americano, fu portato con la medesima verso le retrovie.=

Mentre il personale sanitario prestava le prime cure ed un Capitano Cappellano di nazionalità inglese, che aveva studiato sette anni presso il Vaticano e quindi conosceva bene la lingua italiana, somministrava i sacramenti al Maggiore Filippi, io Moccia, suo attendente, chiedevo di potermi avvicinare per vedere il mio Maggiore che tutt'ora era vivo e solo lamentava forti dolori.=

Io Moccia sottoscritto chiedevo notizie sullo stato del ferito al Cappellano il quale affermava essere la ferita un po' grave senza aggiungere altri particolari.=

Dichiaro che quando la camionetta partiva per le retrovie il Maggiore Filippi era sempre vivo.=

Da allora non ho avuto altre notizie del Maggiore.=

Durante un interrogatorio subito dai Degaullisti a Tebessa ho visto il libretto di volo del Maggiore che per ragioni militari ho dichiarato di non conoscere.=

Tanto rilascio a richiesta della mamma del Maggiore Pilota Filippi Luigi.=

Milano, 18 June 1946

Subject: Research for a missing soldier.

To : The G.H.Q. C.M.F. Caserta.

The Apostolic Delegation of Washington whereto I have applied, has informed me that the soldier in subject is not held in any concentration-camp located in the United States. This Delegation has advised me to apply to the British Command in Italy so that adequate researches be carried out in all the Concentration-camp, which are under British jurisdiction.

Therefore I am applying to your Command in the hope that you will arrange researches in order to locate this soldier. The Post-War Radio of Milano has broadcast that many Italian soldiers (mostly Navy-Personnel) are being held in the Concentration-camp of Malta. I hope that you will help a mother who has been waiting for her son for 5 long years.

Many experiments of telediagnosis and rhabdomancy indicate him to be living.

I, the undersigned, aunt of the missing soldier, am expecting a solicitous reply from you. I thank you in advance.

yours

s/ Elisa Petricciuole

The missing soldier is:

Guerrazzi Enzo Rossanelli, son of Giovanni and of Bice Bianchi, born on 13 October 1920 at Florence. He was aboard of the Vessel V 5 in the Aegean Sea. He was considered missing following the action of 20 May 1941. The last news we received from him dated 18 May 1941.

Dear Sirs,

We beg You to make researches about the Serg. COLOMBI Luigi, belonging to the 1st Grenadier Regiment, machine-gunner comp.P.M. 64. In the month of October 1943 his regiment was in Corsica and then it was transferred to Sardinia, from where the family has never received news from him. Only some time ago a soldier coming from Sicily told a member of the family that he had heard speak about Colombi in some Sicilian military hospital, but he could'nt give any other details.

Awaiting Your kind answer, we thank You in advance, as
