TO: THE ALLIED COMMISSION
 R O M E

SUBJECT: Legal Action against POWs co-operators Soldiers GUIDO GRUPPA and Tommaso GRECO accused of robbery.

See 15, 16, 17, 33, 34

The High Commissioner has been informed that the POW co-operators Guido GRUPPA and Tommaso Greco (attention your letter IPW/1/24/16 dated the 9th of March 1945) have been judged by an English Court Martial at Pastena (Salerno) on the 6th of March 1945 and sentenced for the crime of stealing. The Italian Officer from the Military Command at Salerno who was to defend them could not do so, his defense being opposed by the Command of the 94th Sub Aerea on the Grounds that they had arranged that they were to be defended by an English Captain.

I would be grateful to the Commission to inform me as to what sentence was pronounced on the two Italian POWs on the basis of the 65th Article of the Geneva Convention.

1. The Italian High Commissioner for Prisoners of War has requested that longer notice should be given of trials by military court of Italian PW. It is stated that in the case of Sold. FORNER Enrico, (your letter 339A dated 10 Jan 45 refers) notice was only received two days before the trial.

2. Whilst it is not considered necessary that the terms of Article 60 of the Geneva Convention should be rigidly adhered to, it is felt that notice should reach the Italian Government not less than 7 days before the date of trial.
