The Navy Ministry has informed us that all the under mentioned military personnel have fallen in Allies hands, due to the fact that they voluntarily came from Turkey, where they went after the Isle of Lero ~~was occupied~~ ^{was captured} by the Germans. Said individuals must not be considered POW due to the fact that they have been captured after the armistice and that they have fought with the Allies against the Germans, during the battle in the Lero Island.

SUBJECT : Italian Cemetery at SPALATO -

TO : Yugoslav Representative,
Allied Commission -

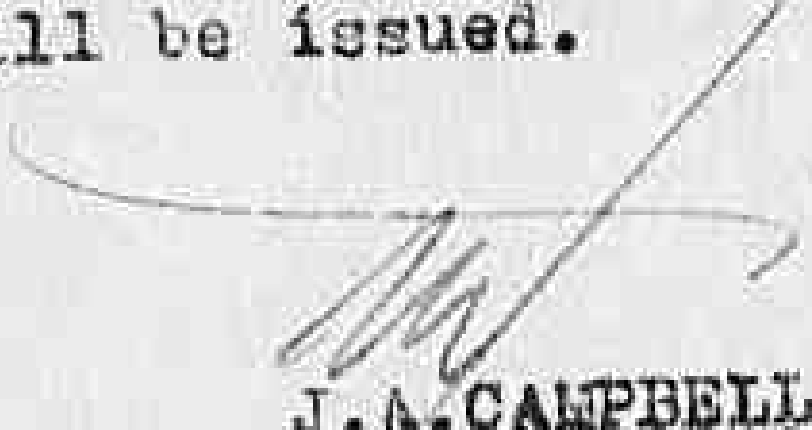

1. The Italian Ministry of War has written asking if it would be possible to send an Italian Military Chaplain to Spalato to put the Italian Cemetery there, into proper order.

It appears that the Italian soldiers who fell at Spalato were only given a temporary burial in this cemetery.

2. The Ministry states that it is its intention to proceed with the identification of these bodies so as to ensure a proper burial.

The travel of Italian Military CHAPLAIN UGO MIGLIACCIO to the Italian Cemetery at SPALATO, was referred to the British Embassy, Belgrade. Reply was received to the effect that requests from Italians to proceed to Yugoslavia should be referred to Yugoslav Representative, Allied Commission.

3. Request you kindly take necessary action and if agreed necessary orders will be issued.

The enclosure reads:

"Dear wife!

A letter from ROME, you will think. However, for obvious reasons I must avoid mentioning any names to sender impossible any investigation. I am going through difficult times. At last I must admit that for the time being there is no way of coming back from captivity to my dear wife. Although we have thought of many ways, all have failed and it is impossible. One can only let fate take its course and wait. When you receive the other letter by regular channels, send me what I want in two wrappings, even, both parts in one package. I am personally doing fairly well so far as treatment by the British is concerned. We have become sullen and apathetic. Did you receive news from me through Switzerland and Sweden? from your husband."

It is like this dear Peter, not only they don't help us, but we are lucky if they don't beat us. You will not believe me if I tell you that I am disgusted of all the Italians and that I often would like to be back in Halbau. At least there we suffered, we were miserable, but we could ~~swore~~ ~~at~~ those who put us in that condition, but here what a dirt what a robbery. If I could only go back in those days when we escaped. We risked our life, we fought every hour, we sacrificed ourselves, but at least we were real friends. We divided potatoes and a jail, the heavy work and a bottom of a cigarette picked up in the street. Do you remember Dachau? How we have suffered there. But still we divided a bisquit. That is the man, that is the life. Here wherever you go you only find thieves, and cowards. How disgusting. If I had not the joy of my family God knows what I would have ~~done~~ done. Do you know that 2 or 3 days ago at the Military District a colonel said to me "But who told you to kill the Germans?" You did wrong."

COMPLAINTS AGAINST THE ALLIES BY A YUGOSLAV IN THE OSNABRUCK CONCENTRATION CAMP

"The Germans have been defeated; German prisoners are going back home earlier than we. The Allies justify it saying that they must rebuild their destroyed towns. But are not also our towns and industries ruined? Moreover we are their allies, and we made many more sacrifices in this war than Germany itself. Don't we need workers as well as do the Germans? But we know the Allies' aims; the reconstruction of German industry is much more profitable for them than that of our industry. In this searching for the highest profit with the least work, they have even surpassed the Jews. Moreover, we have been betrayed by them. They had promised to send us home one month after the liberation; they are liars more than the Germans themselves."

ILL-TREATMENT TO EX PRISONERS OF WAR FROM GERMANY DUE TO THE

PROVINCIAL ADMINISTRATION

"The treatment they are receiving in TURIN is really shameful. Only eight trucks have been placed at the disposal of 100,000 wretched people. If they don't increase transport facilities.- since only 4 trucks per week are leaving with 500 persons-see how many years their repatriation will take.

Moreover, these people are made to alight from the trucks at Porta Nuova where they are left without assistance.

Some have no money to reach their families and beg in the streets, some have not strength even to stand. That's a quite wrong, one of the many....."

ITALIAN PRISONERS WHO LONG TO REPATRIATE

"We all preferred to remain as prisoners and as such, we preferred the forced labor of the Nazi regime, the sufferings, hunger, insults, beatings, rather than help "our comrades". Why don't our brothers in Italy send at least one cheering word of comfort to this mass of ex Italian prisoners? I wonder whether there is somebody in the new government in Italy who thinks of coming to an agreement with the Allies, our liberators, in order to have us repatriated? Are there any difficulties about transportation? Is repatriation the French, Belgians, Dutch etc., it seems that no such difficulties were repatriated a long time ago - what then?

Des macaronis! Au moins ça fait couleur locale... Le Français au caractère réversible regrette déjà le régime allemand. Il est vrai qu'en Allemagne personne n'a jamais couché à même le pavé, un pavé dur, rouge et froid, comme nous le faisons depuis 20 jours. De plus la nourriture est, comme je vous le disais plus haut, très insuffisante: jamais de viande (dans les prisons allemandes il y en avait une fois par semaine) jamais de légumes verts...."

COMPLAINTS OF A FORMER FRENCH PRISONER REGARDING TREATMENT RECEIVED IN ITALIAN CONCENTRATION CAMPS

" Although I had been waiting till the 24th of May before making up my mind to leave Klagenfurt, I did leave far too soon, as I am here since 3 weeks condemned to the depressing macaroni diet. Just a monthful et noon and in the evening. Macaroni! It is at any rate quite peculiar to the country.... A Frenchman's reversible temper already regrets the German diet.... It is true that in Germany we never had to lie on the bare floor, a hard, red and cold floor, as we have here, for 20 days now. Moreover, as I said, the food is quite insufficient: no meat, no fresh vegetables... (In the German jails there was some meat once a week)...."

ARRIVAL OF ITALIAN SOLDIERS EX-PRISONERS OF THE ALLIES

Caller: They arrived tonight and I could talk with them for two hours. They are in good health and have camped near PISA, separated from the Germans and the Fascists. They are being treated very well just as the American troops, since they are receiving white bread, jam and chocolate. I was allowed to talk with them without any watch. They have camped now by SAN ROSSONE, but their first residence was much better, since they were sheltered by the trees, which are completely lacking in the new place. We don't know when they will be released; for the time being they are not allowed to write.

Callee: Thank you for this information. We have come back from the VALTELLINA, where the food situation is rather bad. For ten days they have not received any bread, owing to lack of transportation. My husband will probably come to GENOA very soon.

PRESS CAMPAIGN ABOUT MATHAUSEN PLANNED

Caller: I would like to talk to PAIETTA because, as an internee of the MATHAUSEN Camp, he knows the story of those internees very well. He might be of use to the propaganda campaign we would like to launch on the British press.

Callee: AMENDOLA as well as PAIETTA are at the meeting today.

Caller: I should have liked to talk to PAIETTA, about what there can be done about MATHAUSEN where there are 110 comrades who can't get out. I would like to broaden my press experiment. Therefore I mentioned it also to the Americans here in MILAN. It is a very important matter, because we want this disgusting business at MATHAUSEN to stop.

15000 IX P/MS IN JUGOSLAV WORK BATTALIONS

Meanwhile our position here in JUGOSLAVIA is somewhat complicated, due to the transfer of ISTRIA and TRINISTE to JUGOSLAVIA. They should not demonstrate against the Yugoslav authorities in ROME, because we and nobody else are the ones to suffer. I would like SONINO and some of his acquaintances in ROME to make known our delicate position; we are 15,000 Italians, ex-prisoners of the Germans, who are here in JUGOSLAVIA united in work-battalions. Do they know it in Italy that we have been liberated since October 44 and still not repatriated?

Dear Admiral,

Lt. Paolo Arnesio RUIZ, son of R.E., the Minister of Education, formerly D.O.W. at N.10 Camp Bombay (India), has recently arrived to Italy and has been interned at N.209 Camp - Anagnola.

It appears that he sailed from Egypt, where he had been transferred pending repatriation, without awaiting the necessary authorization.

As the aforesaid officer kept during his period of detention a very good conduct, so much so that the Commander of the N.10 Camp in India entrusted him with various tasks and employed him as an interpreter, sending him also in mission to Australia, I venture to hope that his case may be favourably considered.

I would be very grateful, my dear Admiral, if you would kindly interest in this question the proper Authorities, with a view to obtaining it. RUIZ's release from the Anagnola Camp.

With very many thanks, believe me, dear Admiral

SUBJECT : Recommendation for Repatriation of Italian Inventors.

TO : Commanding General, Italian Service Unit Detachment.
APO 600 US Army.

1. Basic communication was referred to this office for technical opinion as to whether or not the 'invention' of Cpl ACQUAVIVA had sufficient merit to warrant consideration of repatriation to Italy of ACQUAVIVA and his two helpers.

2. Drawings of this project have been examined and ACQUAVIVA has been interviewed.

3. To the considerable astonishment of this office, the subject drawings portray a simple and novel single rotary valve arrangement designed to control both intake and exhaust phases of internal combustion engines, with elimination of the following items normally found in poppet-valve engines;

- a. Camshaft and camshaft bearings
- b. Tappet assemblies (all)
- c. Valves (2 per cylinder)
- d. Valve springs (2 per cylinder)
- e. Valve spring retainer assemblies
- f. Valve inserts, where used

Even more advantages seem apparent over conventional sleeve-valved engines, such as,

- a. Elimination of sliding sleeves and their activating mechanisms
- b. Non reciprocation of all valve parts
- c. Increased oil economy

4. In view of the above, and in fairness to Cpl ACQUAVIVA, it is recommended that favourable consideration be given to the request for repatriation of the three men concerned, in order that they might protect their civil patent rights on this basic design before offering it for the consideration of the Italian and United States governments for possible military use.

The High Commissioner for Prisoners of War

Rome, 24 May 1945

Excellency,

Fifteen months ago, when I came back from prison, and being already in the reserve, I gladly assumed the hard charge of High Commissioner for prisoners of war, entrusted to me by the Council of Ministers, thinking it was a highly humanitarian and non-political post in which I could be useful to many fellow prisoners and to the numerous families they had left behind.

I fulfilled this mission with faith and zeal.

As people now want to consider this charge as a high political function, I think it is no longer suitable for me, for I always attempted to work for the country, keeping away from politics.

Will you accept my resignation from the charge of High Commissioner, as well as all my thanks for your kind support which never failed me and for the clear directions you always gave me.

Yours very truly,

G. Ben Gazzera

1. Prior to my repatriation from Italy I arranged privately with the Interpreter at Nocera Hospital (POW) in the first week of April, 1943, to take into his own safe custody a parcel of private personal belongings of mine. The understanding was that on cessation of hostilities I was to contact him and he would return them to me.

2. The reasons why this arrangement was made with this Officer are as follows:

- (a) No reliance could be given to the Italian Authorities that such articles would be subsequently returned to the owners. To my knowledge several complaints had been reported that such articles had been lost and no further word heard of them.
- (b) With the interpreter's social rank and standing, and his friendly attitude towards us it was felt a more secure arrangement. The name of this Officer and his address is:-

Tenente Count G. BOSCHETTI (? Italian Infantry)

Via S. Spirito 14, OR Via Farino 50,
Milano. Medino.

COMMENTS

Treatment given Italian Officers in German Concentration Camps.

".....I telephoned the lawyer SANZONI, (that 2nd. Lieut. who escaped from the camp where Duilio was) he told me that they were always together, in Poland as at Kustrin and at the end at XB. they were given very little food and were always very hungry but with the exception of some old men who before were weak, they are all well. It is not at all true, everything that was said about concentration camps. In the camp XB, all officers are respected as such, no sickness and no bombardments. They were allowed to study and to amuse themselves inside certain limits. In one wing they even had a theatre. If they had not been hungry and cold, they were treated well. Work was not compulsory for the officers but many adhered in order to have more to eat"...

AMG Toscana Region.

1. Reference your RVIII/11C/39 of 29 April 1945.
2. Now that the passes for the whole of Toscana Region are obtainable from you and not from AMG Fifth Army it would be much appreciated if you would arrange for this aged man to be sent by WD transport to Rome on compassionate grounds. It is appreciated that this village of Lido Di Camaiori is a long distance off the usual route for military transport so possibly civilian transport could be used for that portion of the journey where military transport is not available.

COMMENT

REPARATED P/W AND BALKAN SOLDIERS LACK CLOTHING

Caller:

....There is another interesting question: some soldiers have arrived from the Balkans, completely naked, and many others from INDIA. The latter are all sick and almost naked too. I had those 100 sets of uniform distributed, but they do not suffice at all.

Callee:

But the VATICAN had promised to do something about it.

Caller:

In that case, please attend to the matter because I need at least 300 more uniforms.

Callee:

All right. I know that the VATICAN has been informed. I shall call them up now and I shall let you know immediately.

Caller:

It really is a very urgent matter because some of these men should leave the hospital to go on convalescent leave, and we cannot allow them out owing to lack of clothes.

Callee:

All right, I shall let you know.
