GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. REJECTION OF BIDS: The Government reserves the right to reject any or all bids regardless of whether the same constitute the highest bids, to waive any informality in bids, and unless otherwise specified by the bidder, to accept item or items in the bid.
2. TIME FOR GOVERNMENT'S ACCEPTANCE: Unless otherwise specified herein, the bidder will allow thirty (30) days from the last date for the receiving of bids (as specified in the Invitation) for acceptance of its bid by the Government.
3. TERMS OF BID: Unless otherwise specified, bids must be submitted on the basis of the unit specified for the item in the Schedule, and bids may be submitted on any or all items. In case of error in extension of prices in the bid, the unit price will govern. Each sheet of the bid should show the name of bidder.
4. INSPECTION: Bidders are invited and urged to inspect the property to be sold prior to submitting bids. Property will be available for inspection at the time specified in the Invitation. No labor will be furnished for such purpose. In no case will failure to inspect be considered ground for a claim.
5. SALE OF PROPERTY "AS IS": Unless otherwise specified, all property is sold "as is". The Government makes no guaranty, warranty or representation, express or implied as to the kind, size, weight, quality, description or condition of any of the property, or its fitness for any use or purpose; this is not a sale by sample.
6. SALE OF PROPERTY "WHERE IS" - DELIVERY: Unless otherwise specified, the property is sold "where is", delivery shall be at the present location of the property, and removal shall be accomplished by the purchaser at its expense; unless the Purchaser removes the property from such location within 10 days (or such other time as may be specified herein) after the date of the Government acceptance, the Government shall have the right to dispose of the property and hold the Purchaser responsible for any loss incurred by the Government as a result of the failure to pay for or remove the property; the time of removal, and such other details of removal as may not be provided herein, shall be arranged with the Salvage Sales Officer. Unless otherwise specified herein, payment in full must be made prior to removal of any property or immediately subsequent to weighing if weighing is necessary pursuant to General Provisions.
7. ADJUSTMENT FOR VARIATION IN QUANTITY: Unless otherwise specified, the quantities of the various items listed in the Schedule of the property to be sold are approximate only. Any variation between the quantity stated for any item and the quantity of such item actually delivered to the Purchaser will be adjusted on the basis of the unit price quoted for such item prior to final payment.
8. WEIGHING: When weighing is necessary to determine price hereunder, such weighing will take place under the supervision of the Salvage Sales Officer, or by a responsible person designated by him. The weights thus determined shall govern payment.
9. RESPONSIBILITY FOR PROPERTY SOLD: The Purchaser assumes all responsibility and liability for the property after the date of the Government's Acceptance. The Government will exercise its usual care for protection of the property up to the time limit of removal, but will not be responsible for any loss or damage from any cause whatsoever.
10. TITLE: Title to the items of property sold hereunder shall vest in the Purchaser as and when full payment is made therefor.
11. PAYMENT: All payment will be made in (LINE) (XXXXXXXXXXXX). Payment in full for accepted items will be made within seven (7) days from date of award. Date of award will be the date on which signed acceptance is shown.
12. CUSTOMS, DUTIES & TAXES: Any customs, duties, taxes, excise and/or import duties or any other similar charges levied upon the Salvage purchased under this Contract will be paid by the purchaser.
13. SCRAP WARRANTY: With respect to all scrap covered by this contract, the Purchaser

- implied as to the kind, size, weight, quality, description or condition of any of the property, or its fitness for any use or purpose; this is not a sale by sample.
6. SALE OF PROPERTY "WHERE IS" - DELIVERY: Unless otherwise specified, the property is sold "where is", delivery shall be at the present location of the property, and removal shall be accomplished by the purchaser at its expense; unless the Purchaser removes the property from such location within 10 days (or such other time as may be specified herein) after the date of the Government acceptance, the Government shall have the right to dispose of the property and hold the Purchaser responsible for any loss incurred by the Government as a result of the failure to pay for or remove the property; the time of removal, and such other details of removal as may not be provided herein, shall be arranged with the Salvage Sales Officer. Unless otherwise specified herein, payment in full must be made prior to removal of any property or immediately subsequent to weighing if weighing is necessary pursuant to General Provisions.
7. ADJUSTMENT FOR VARIATION IN QUANTITY: Unless otherwise specified, the quantities of the various items listed in the Schedule of the property to be sold are approximate only. Any variation between the quantity stated for any item and the quantity of such item actually delivered to the Purchaser will be adjusted on the basis of the unit price quoted for such item prior to final payment.
8. WEIGHING: When weighing is necessary to determine price hereunder, such weighing will take place under the supervision of the Salvage Sales Officer, or by a responsible person designated by him. The weights thus determined shall govern payment.
9. RESPONSIBILITY FOR PROPERTY SOLD: The Purchaser assumes all responsibility and liability for the property after the date of the Government's Acceptance. The Government will exercise its usual care for protection of the property up to the time limit of removal, but will not be responsible for any loss or damage from any cause whatsoever.
10. TITLE: Title to the items of property sold hereunder shall vest in the Purchaser as and when full payment is made therefore.
11. PAYMENT: All payment will be made in (LIRE) (~~XXXXXXXXXXXX~~). Payment in full for accepted items will be made within seven (7) days from date of award. Date of award will be the date on which signed acceptance is shown.
12. CUSTOMS, DUTIES & TAXES: Any customs, duties, taxes, excise and/or import duties or any other similar charges levied upon the Salvage purchased under this Contract will be paid by the purchaser.
13. SCRAP WARRANTY: With respect to all scrap covered by this contract, the Purchaser represents and warrants to the United States that such property was offered as scrap, purchased by it as scrap, and that it will sell or ship or use it as scrap either in its existing condition or after further preparation.
14. DEFINITIONS: Except for the original signing of this contract, and except as otherwise states herein, the term "Salvage Sales Officer" as used herein shall include his duly appointed successor or his authorized representative.
15. DEPOSIT TO ACCOMPANY BID: Unless otherwise specified, bids must be accompanied by check (Payable to the Salvage Sales Officer, U.S. Army) in an amount equal to at least 20 percent of the total sum of the bid. If the bidder does not receive an award, or if a deposit check exceeds the total sum bid on the items accepted by the Government, such deposit or the excess thereof will be promptly returned to the bidder or purchaser. In other cases, the amount inclosed with the bid will be retained as a guaranty for the faithful performance of all the terms and conditions of the purchase. Checks will be made only on the BANK OF ITALY.
