ROME

1. Major GIULIO SALOM, Italian Royal Navy, of Marine H.Q., VENICE, has been in close liaison with this headquarters in the work of locating and collecting captured material of Italian Naval origin, and is well-known to both the guards and commanders of the C.E.M.Dumps in the District.
2. It is requested, therefore, that this officer may be allowed to continue in these activities until such time as the C.E.M.commitments are complete.
3. Furthermore, as many receipts for material collected are still outstanding, he will be most useful in obtaining those required by this headquarters.
4. It is further requested that application is made by you to the Ministry of Marine, ROME for retention of this officer in his present duties, as per para 2 above.
