Subject: Materials salvaged in Northern Italy

1. Referring to the contents of NSC/4552 of 5th February 1946 we communicate what we have investigated regarding the materials headed a, b, c, in the letter mentioned above :

a) - W/T Telefunken equipment No.130; is a TTM/1000/1940 built by OLAP. It was recovered from the Molo Vecchio in Genoa with other machinery destined for the aircraft carrier "Aquila"; this type of equipment and the manufacturing firm show that this is naval material.

b) - 3 electric generators of 50 kw., 60 v., 500 A., 1500 cycles. These generators are the property of the S.Giorgio Company of Genoa, and were taken over by the British Command at the Motomeccanica of Milan, as explained in a letter of 26th November last from the S.Giorgio Co. to the N.O.I.C. - Navy House - Genoa.

c) - 2 Gardner engine cylinders: these form part of a 4 cylinder engine recovered at the MAP Company of Genoa and admitted by the company to be property of the Italian Navy.

2. We await the decision of the N.S.C. on the materials in question.

Subject: Submarines at the Badoni Works, Lecco, Como..

(a) There are two submarines at this place, one the type shown in the photographs in your possession, and the other an improved and larger type involving several of the features of the first type.

(b) The first type has been dismantled as it was not a success, the only really interesting feature being the exhaust pipe from the engine, which is leading out through the keel forward of the propellor; the inventor claims that the induction of the exhaust gases by the propellor increases the revolutions.

(c) The second type is 45 feet in length, 3 feet in diameter, and its diving depth is 90 feet. The conning tower is similar in design to the U.S. submarine, and vision for the driver is obtained by windows, there is not a periscope. There is however a vertical pipe from the conning tower whose sole purpose is to supply air to the motor up to depths of 3 feet, after which it is closed and air is supplied to the engine from air bottles in the boat.

(d) The propulsion is by a 700 h.p. Isotta engine, and a speed of 30 Kilometres on the surface and 50 Kms. submerged is claimed, the duration of run is 300 to 400 Kilometres.

(e) There is no claim by the inventor to make this submarine airborne. He has stated, however, that with the type of hydroplanes fitted the craft "glides" on the water when surfaced. At the moment there are the hydroplanes, and conning tower to be fitted, this is apparently the reason for the statement in the signal, that two months are required for completion.

(f) Signore Veseena, Via Cavour, 19, Lecco, Como, is the inventor of the original submarine, and a Sig. Grassi of the Badoni Works has used some of Veseena's ideas on the second boat. Grassi states that the plans of both types were removed by "S" Force two months ago and the building containing the submarines locked.

(g) The crew of the second type consist of two men, who do not wear any type of breathing apparatus, and in the circumstances, particularly the engine drawing air in the boat when submerged, it seems impossible that they could survive for very long; however the inventor is available at Lecco at any time, having been released from the "Gleleanzani" Jail, and would answer any further questions.

1. The Ditta Redoni of Lecco has made an application to this office to release for their use a large enclosed room which had been ordered closed by "S" Force in the early days. Locked within this room is a submarine, about 12 metors long, which was under construction by the Redoni firm for the Italian Republican Navy.

2. Inasmuch as you already had given me orders to release all "S" Force closings, I feel that the Allied Military might view this situation from a different aspect.

1. The Ditta Badoni of Lecco has made an application to this office to release for their use a large enclosed room which had been ordered closed by "S" Force in the early days. Locked within this room is a submarine, about 12 meters long, which was under construction by the Badoni firm for the Italian Republican Navy.

2. Inasmuch as you already had given me orders to release all "S" Force closings, I feel that the Allied Military might view this situation from a different aspect.

3. Please enquire as to whether or not the Allied Authorities are interested in keeping these premises closed and if anything can be done to release the premises to the Badoni firm for its own affairs.
