23 Dec. 44.	Director. In view of the tendency of the replies to Folio I. I am of the opinion that there does not now seem to be a patriot problem worth while worrying about except up in Army areas. It is my studied opinion that the Patriot Representatives in the Provinces for the most part are just wasting their time. It might of course be worth while asking Provincial Commissioners to give us some idea of numbers of unemployed Patriots within their provinces so that if on reception, of their replies there did appear to be a particular problem we could then arrange to give special attention to that problem. I think however that we will find that no such problem exists.	1.

In view of replies received in answer to 10/1/PAT of 14 Nov. it would be appreciated if we could be given the appropriate number of unemployed patriots in each Province or Comune so as to enable this Branch to get a clear cut picture of the situation in each particular area.
