Alla Direzione Generale dell'Amministrazione Civile-S E D E

Oggetto: Rappresentanti militari Italiani per l'Assistenza ai Partigiani

Come alle SS. VV. è noto, ai compiti di assistenza in favore dei Partigiani sono preposti, nelle Province ancora sottoposte all'Amministrazione del Governo Militare Alleato, Rappresentanti Militari Italiani.

In previsione del prossimo passaggio di tali Province all'Amministrazione del Governo Italiano, e in attesa che il competente Ministero dell'Assistenza Post Bellica termini con precisione le attribuzioni ed i comiti demandati ai prefetti Ufficiali, si reputa necessario chiarire, per opportuna norma, i rapporti che le SS. VV. dovranno avere con essi.

1°) I Rappresentanti Militari Italiani incaricati in ogni Provincia dell'Assistenza in favore dei Partigiani dipendono gerarchicamente dal Ministero dell'Assistenza Post Bellica, di cui possono considerarsi organi periferici.

Per altro, nell'attività da essi svolta, spetta ai Prefetti di esercitare l'opportuna vigilanza, d'impartire le direttive che saranno ritenute del caso e di assicurare il necessario coordinamento;

2°) I Rappresentanti Militari Italiani possono risiedere, e normalmente risiederanno, presso le Prefetture, con le quali non sono in rapporto di subordinazione ma di reciproca collaborazione;

3°) Il Ministero dell'A.P. per comunicare con i Rappresentanti Militari Italiani, si servirà delle sigle telegrafiche e dei recapiti delle Prefetture;

4°) Per il funzionamento dei Rappresentanti Militari Italiani il Ministero dell'A.P. richiederà alla Ragioneria Centrale ordine di accreditamento a favore del prefetto competente. Questi, su richiesta del Rappresentante Militare Italiano, metterà di volta in volta a sua disposizione lo stesso.

SUBJECT: Inquiries.

Mrs. Bardi Maria reported to this Office and stated the following facts

- 1) Her husband Bardi Ferdinando, son of deceased Artidoro, born in 1902 was arrested on 17 April 1944 in Rome at the Quadraro and transferred to the camp of Fossoli. From news received by another prisoner who succeeded in returning to Rome it appears that Bardi should now be in a concentration or dispersal camp in Florence.
2. The brother of the same lady: Private GALLUCCI Vincenzo son of Agostino, born in 1915 of the Chemical Regiment of Rome on 3 December 1942 was interned at Mauthausen (Germany); from news received by a comrade of Gallucci it appears that he should now be in a concentration or dispersal camp in Florence.

This office kindly asks the C.L.H. in Ravenna to be urgently informed upon the patriotic activity carried out in that town during the months of September-October 1943 by the Colonel PIERO CAPPON.

From a short report received by this Office it appears that the Colonel CAPPON (at the date of the 3th September 1943 residing on sick leave in Ravenna, Via Rocca di Fossi 22) would have negotiated the assignment of arms to Messrs Guerrini & Biondi by the Allied Military Authorities.

This Office kindly asks the C.L.N. in Pisa to be urgently informed upon the patriotic activity carried out in Toscana by the Colonel PIERO CAPPON.

From a short report received by this Office it appears that during the month of October 1943 the Colonel CAPPON, arrived from Ravenna, would have created the C.L.N. in Pomerance, presiding over the organization of a Band of Partisans commanded by the Doctor ENZO MERLINI and remaining in touch with the said Band till the liberation of the territory.

My dearest Raffaello,

With grief I have heard of your father's death and I wish you would associate me in your consternation.

It seems that the illness was an incurable one, but in your huge loss, it will be a comfort for you to know, at least from what I heard from Biagio that death has been gentle, and that he passed away serenely.

I also hear that you have had the possibility of assisting him, which must have comforted spiritually poor Mr. Umberto to see his dear son near him although under circumstances which soon had to become sorrowful.

Again Raffaello, I wish to express to you my deepest sympathy together with such expressions as may comfort you and give you the courage to smooth your pains, and continue in your gallant future, knowing that besides your poor mother, in Heaven there is also your father, who will help you spiritually in the next life.

A very dear embrace from Enrico.

Subject: Sequestration of persons and seizure of household-goods.

In some liberated territories of Italy, more precisely in the area of Pistoia, units belonging to Groups of Partisans have arbitrarily seized persons suspected either of collaboration or informative activity with the enemy, removing them to unknown places after having carried away from their residence household-goods.

Events of such a nature, though of no great importance given the very small number of culprits, are however not only regrettable but also highly deprecable and therefore all the Representatives of this Office to the Provincial Commissioners (for Pistoia and all other Provinces) are ordered to start with a strong persuasive propaganda amongst Patriots in order to persuade them to abstain from taking any illegal action.
