1. Herewith please find copies of the "Emergency Industrial Programme for the Rehabilitation of Italian Industry - Jan. 1 - Dec. 31, 1945" prepared by Industry Sub-Commission, A.C.

2. This study is intended as a guide in the preparation of a detailed program of emergency first-aid to essential Italian industries. It is not itself a programme which it is suggested be implemented in this form. Such a programme is being prepared by the Italian Government with the assistance of the Allied Commission, and will of course be considered a basis for supply action only after it is formally presented to the Allied Commission by the Italian Government.

1. Forwarded attached is the original plus three copies of an English translation, together with three sets of blueprints, of the report on the above subject that Major Hinkel asked you to have translated. It was understood that he desired three copies.

2. I suppose that Lt. Cashman will be the one to use it now. Point out to him that some of the technical phrases may not have been absolutely accurately translated. We had no adequate technical dictionary and Mrs. Caputi stated that in some cases she was not entirely certain of the words. Under the circumstances, however, I think it is quite a job.
