Monsieur Bengütaş, Conseiller de l'Ambassade de Turquie a rendu visite aujourd'hui à Monsieur Schott de la Commission Alliée et lui a fait verbalement en résumé l'exposé ci-dessous:

Par suite de la non utilisation des codes l'Ambassade de Turquie ne se trouve pas en état d'exercer ses fonctions normalement .

L'Ambassade de Turquie est pleinement consciente des nécessités militaires actuelles et, de ce fait, elle ne se propose aucunement d'obtenir et de rapporter à son Gouvernement des informations relatives à l'activité militaire en Italie, assurée qu'elle est de ce que les représentants des Alliés à Ankara mettront son Gouvernement au courant de ces questions s'ils le jugent utile.

Le désir de l'Ambassade consiste à pouvoir éclairer son Gouvernement sur la politique intérieure et la situation économique et financière de l'Italie .

Certaines Missions appartenant aux Nations Unies à Rome ont la faculté de correspondre par chiffre avec leurs Gouvernements respectifs.

La Turquie se trouve en rupture de relations diplomatiques et économiques avec l'Allemagne aussi bien qu'avec le Japon et partant elle ne peut être considérée comme une Puissance neutre dans la conflagration actuelle; au contraire, par l'attitude qu'elle a prise depuis le commencement de la guerre elle s'est associée intimement aux buts poursuivis par les Nations Unies pour la libération et l'indépendance des peuples.

En outre, depuis novembre 1939 la Turquie et la Grande Bretagne sont liées par un Traité d'alliance .

Vu ce qui précède l'Ambassade de Turquie aime à espérer que l'on voudra bien lui réserver un traitement égal à celui dont jouissent certaines Missions des Nations Unies à Rome en lui laissant la faculté de correspondre par code avec son Gouvernement et, de la sorte, rendre possible l'exercice normal de ses fonctions . L.A.
