My dear Colleague,

I enclose herewith a letter from my good friend Robert D. Murphy, accompanied by a copy of one he wrote the United States Consul General in Naples concerning facilities granted the Brazilian Consul and Vice-Consuls in that City.

Could I venture to hope the same facilities may be granted me and my collaborateurs in Rome?

Thanking you in advance for your kind attention in this matter,

I am, dear colleague,

Yours sincerely

My dear Colleague:

I was distressed to receive your letter of September 14 advising me of the treatment received by your Secretaries in the Grand Hotel. I was unable personally to rectify this matter on the evening on which I received your letter but next morning I immediately communicated its contents to the Headquarters Commandant, Allied Control Commission, the officer in charge of billeting and similar activities, with the request that he make a full investigation and provide proper facilities for the two gentlemen in question.

The reply of the Headquarters Commandant just now has been received by me and I hasten to transmit it to you with the hope that in some way it will modify your feelings in the matter which I thoroughly appreciate.

With renewed expressions of regret that this incident should have occurred, and assuring you of my constant desire to be of any service possible to you and to the gentlemen of your staff, I remain,

Yours sincerely,

William W. Schott
Vice President
Allied Control Commission

Dear Colleague,

This is to protest against the outrageous fashion in which my secretaries have been treated today by the authorities in charge of the Grand Hotel, where they are temporarily lodged, until they can find themselves a suitable apartment in town. Mr. Valente occupied room no. 231 and Mr. Lima, room no. 273. Upon returning from luncheon, this afternoon, they found their respective rooms occupied by other people, and, what is worse, their personal belongings thrown together in a room that, by the way, has no bathroom.

2. You are surely of my opinion that this is no manner of treating foreign diplomats, whatever their nationality may be, and much less the manner of treating the agents of an allied nation.

3. I need hardly say that I expect urgent measures will be taken by the ACC, to whom we are officially accredited, in order that my secretaries shall be conveniently lodged and apologized to, and that assurances are given that such facts, without precedent to my knowledge, shall not occur again.

I am, yours sincerely,

Dear Bill:

I am sorry that you have not received formal notification from AFHQ with regard to the appointment of M. da Cunha as Brazilian Consul General in Rome with the rank of Minister. Bob Murphy, before his departure, told us that he was writing you a personal letter which could be considered as your notification of da Cunha's appointment.

Incidentally da Cunha is a nice fellow, and I am sure that you will like him as much as he will like you.

Good luck to you,

Sincerely yours,

C. Offie
