The Polish Consul General presents his compliments to the Allied Commission and has the honour to submit to them the following case.

The different questions concerning the care of the Polish refugees in Italy have been concentrated in the hands of Mr. W. ZACHARJASIEWICZ, delegate of the Polish Ministry of Social Welfare, /attached to this Consulate General/ and on the general supervision of the Polish Consul General.

A home for 9 boys, a school for 26 children /receiving one hot daily meal/ and a mess for the poorer refugees /about 200/ who are in need of some hot food have been organised with the help of the Polish Red Cross.

But - the difficulties are arising with the problem of communications which can not be solved by the Polish Red Cross.

In connection with the above, it would be extremely desirable that one of the requisitioned trucks could be put at the disposal of the Polish Consulate General for those purposes.

Dear Mr. [unclear] Allied School [unclear]

Dear [unclear]

I went to see Mr. Thomas this afternoon, as directed, about the "Pangea" ship which appointment was mentioned in Marshal Tiedor's interview with Hunter (Mr. Spragg). I told him you were disturbed at hearing of it from an extraneous source since it was a matter in which the Commission in general and the Political Section in particular, was fundamentally interested.

He expressed regret and said that himself had only just heard of it. That he had applied to have his office moved to the same building as the head of the Government and that he would supply the information by [unclear] the same [unclear].

He went into the same [unclear] of ZAMKONI as the most likely [unclear].

This man is an anti-Farist who spent much time on Lepore [unclear] for having an unsuccessful shot at him [unclear]. But Mr. Thomas describes him as by no means an extremist and rather moderate in outlook. He thought the appointment of [unclear] can only have been the decision of a Cabinet meeting of 20th instant for the discussion is included for continuation in the Agenda of the Cabinet meeting of 24th instant.

He repeated his regret that he should be so out of touch with the [unclear] day to day appointments as to have been unable to keep you informed. He is [unclear] this if and when his office were moved.

I am very sincerely

Yours [unclear]

TS

1. The Greek Delegation to the Advisory Council for Italy has approached the Political Section on behalf of Mrs. Zervas, the wife of a prominent Greek general who has rendered good service to the Allied cause in Greece.

2. This lady is at present in Rome and is employed by the Greek Delegation in a confidential capacity. She lives at the Grand Hotel and takes her meals in the civilian restaurant. She is, however, finding the high cost of food there more than her limited salary (a small allowance from the Greek Government) can afford. The Greek Delegation has, therefore, inquired whether she could be allowed to take her meals in the A.C. Club in the same way as the diplomatic staff of the Delegation are authorized to do.
