Council of Ministers

23 October 1944

Dear Admiral;

I forward here enclosed a Memorandum concerning the behaviour of Polish officers and soldiers in various localities of Central Italy towards the premises of the Italian Communist Party and towards its members.

You are certainly aware of the ties of culture, of friendship and of common political aspiration which have united, since centuries, and particularly since our Risorgiments, Poland and Italy. The recent contribution of blood offered, side by side with our soldiers, by the Polish troops for the liberation of Italian soil has rendered even more solid these ties and has given new proof of the valor of that noble Nation to whom goes the cordial gratitude of all the Italian people.

But there is no need for me to emphasize how such an interference of Polish soldiers - certainly contrary to the orders of the responsible Commands - in Italian internal questions is not only damaging to the prestige of the Royal Government but also liable to give rise to incidents of a certain gravity.

I would be therefore grateful should you kindly approach the Command of Polish Troops with a view to avoiding the repetition of such incidents.

Believe me,

Cordially yours

(Signed) Bonomi

On September 17th at 13,00 hours there was expected at the Government Palace in Macerata the Under-Secretary of State to Industry and Commerce, Guido Molinelli and on this occasion the Communist Party had called a meeting, with the authorization of the A.S.G. at the Theatre "Sforisterio" where Signor Molinelli should have delivered a conference.

At 14,15 hours while communist elements and citizens were assembling in the "Sforisterio" about fifty Polish soldiers appeared in the square with the evident intention of preventing the meeting. Some communists gave the Poles the communist salute and this caused a brawl between the two sides.

A group of Carabinieri intervened energetically firing some shots into the air with the result the communist retreated in the theatre, the crowd of citizens was dispersed and the Poles went away stopping not far from the theatre.

A few minutes later they came back and began throwing stones again while some of them attacked with their fists some communists who had remained outside the theatre.

The Poles tried also to enter into the theatre but were prevented from doing so by the Carabinieri.

The Poles then left on motor trucks but gave to understand that they would return armed and in greater numbers.

The Prefect asked the intervention of Allied Officers to avoid further incidents.

The Under Secretary Molinelli who had in the meantime arrived decided to postpone the conference so as to avoid the repetition of these incidents.

On September 19th an officer and two Polish soldiers forced their entrance into the premises of the Communist Party, Via Flaminia 495, Rome, tore away the flag cutting it subsequently into pieces and threatening the people who were present although these had not given any provocation.

On the same evening some Polish soldiers presented themselves at the premises of the Communist Party in Lungotevere <sup>2502</sup> and ordered the secretary of the section to strike the flag from the balcony failing which they would have destroyed the section.

On September 23rd at Antrodoco (Rieti) several Polish soldiers who were passing through that locality attacked the premises of the Communist Party breaking the windows and destroying all the propaganda material as well as the flag of the section.

On September 28th at 13,00 hours in the Piazza Vittorio Emanuele of Civitacastellana (Viterbo) some Polish soldiers who were passing through dragged down and destroyed the red flag hanging from the premises of the Communist Party.

Several communist elements who were present did not re-act.
