Asst. Acs.
Chief Clerk

1. A special drive is being instituted on a co-ordinated program against absentees and deserters, both British and American. All commanding officers running messes are urged to make a thorough check during meal hours on 20 September 1944, for personnel who may filter into their mess lines for food.

2. Any personnel not belonging to the organization that are found in the mess lines will be checked for identification and passes or travel orders. Any one found without proper papers or papers that look doubtful will be held by the unit and the nearest American or British Provost Marshal in that area notified. These men will be picked up by the Military Police as soon as notification is sent. (AG 250.1 BPSPM)
