b. All vehicles entering or leaving the Villa Maria will do so slowly and cautiously, obeying the signals of the Italian police. It should be noted that the Italian police have no power to stop other vehicles in Via Posillipo; their function is, therefore, to signal to vehicles entering or leaving the Villa Maria whether or not it is safe for them to proceed.

c. No vehicle larger than 15 cwt (British) or 3/4 ton (American) will enter the Villa Maria grounds. Larger vehicles will be parked outside on the pavement under the charge of the Italian sentry.

d. All vehicles entering the Villa Maria will observe the one-way right-hand circuit. Vehicles will be parked off the drive ways and not so as to obstruct the passage of other vehicles.

e. Disciplinary action will be taken against offenders.

This is the day for which the freedom-loving nations of the world have been fighting for almost 6 years. It is the day that spells the doom of totalitarian governments and their policies of aggression, hatred and persecution.

Each of you - whatever service or your nationality - has played a vital role in our struggle for this great victory. You brought the Nazis and their satellites to their knees, while your brothers-in-arms were administering the final blows to the Japanese on the other side of the globe.

Today I know you will join me in extending the warmest congratulations of this theater to the men who have inflicted overwhelming defeat on Japan. They have fought long, hard and well. They have won a truly magnificent victory.

Naturally, all of us hope that the events of today will hasten your return to your families and to normal peacetime pursuits. You may be certain that your commanders in the Mediterranean Theater will do everything in their power to get you home and back to the normal pursuits of peace with all possible speed. For the task of us here - redeployment and occupation - we shall attempt to cut our forces to an essential minimum.

5. MESSAGE BY GENERAL MACNARNEY.

The following quoted message was received from General Joseph T. McNarney, Commanding General, Mediterranean Theater of Operations, United States Army, and is repeated for the information of all concerned:

"The complete defeat of Japan by the United Nations is cause for rejoicing by all the free peoples of the world. To American soldiers, sailors and airmen and their Allies in the Mediterranean Theater, the Japanese capitulation has a special significanse: many of you who had participated in the hard campaigns that defeated the Fascists and Nazis were preparing to join the battle in the Pacific. Service troops here have been intensely active, preparing the supplies and weapons and tools for redeployment against the Japanese.

Now that picture has changed. The fight has now been won - completely. For you there remains the task of completing our task of occupation and redeployment and of preserving the discipline which carried you successfully through so many difficult campaigns. Patience will be required while the huge machine geared to redeployment is switched to the urgent need for getting you home to your families and to your normal way of living.

To the troops who surmonted every obstacle to supply and move the fighting units, there remains one more task - to ship the supplies and the troops back home as efficiently and as rapidly as possible.

This is a time for thanksgiving, for gratitude to God that we have crushed the aggresser and saved our heritage of Freedom. But we must not forget the cost of this war. You who won the beaches of AFRICA, SICILY, ITALY and FRANCE, and who battled through the mountains of central and northern ITALY, know how many of your comrades made the supreme sacrifice for that successful effort. Never forget them nor what they died for.
