On the 1st of February 1944, the distribution of all petroleum products to civilians in Region I will be controlled, not by A.C.C., but by the Petroleum Section of A.I.C.C., a new organization called C.I.I., at the distributing agency. Under C.I.I. will be in charge of C.I.I., for Region I and he will utilize most of the regular personnel and all of the plant and property formerly used by A.C.C.I.

2. From the above date A.C.C., will take no further part in the distribution of petroleum products. C.A.C.'s will cooperate with C.I.I., whenever necessary, but their duties in connection with P.O.I., after 1st February will be purely advisory, and after a short period even this should no longer be necessary.

3. All petroleum stocks will be turned over to C.I.I., on the 1st of February, or soon after as possible. This includes stocks now held by A.C.C.I., and any stocks in any way under the control of A.C.C., except for such small quantities as may be required to be left in hand at A.C.C., garages, or for current operations of C.A.C.'s vehicles. Inventories in duplicate will be made and forwarded as soon as possible to Economics and Supply Division at Regional Headquarters showing:

a. P.O.I., turnover to C.I.I., to be receipted for by C.I.I. P.'s local representative.

b. P.O.I., retained, signed for by the appropriate A.C.C. officer.

c. Pending the receipt of specific instructions from A.C.C., P.O.I., for A.C.C., (military and civilian) vehicles will be obtained from the nearest C.I.I., depot by Provincial Supply Officers, for their headquarters only, and by C.A.C.'s for their own needs, in both cases upon signature of a requisition in duplicate.

ACCOUNTING FOR A.M.G. FUNDS

1. It is the duty of all officers who have been supplied with A.M.G. Funds to account therefor to the Chief Accountant, in accordance with instructions laid down in the AMGOL Accounting Manual, and General Administrative Instruction No. 12.
2. A number of officers have failed to comply with these instructions and have not yet submitted accounts in respect of cash issued to them during the early days of the occupation. Some of these officers are still in possession of cash balances although they are no longer functioning as Sub-Accountants. Repeated requests have been sent out, either directly by letter to named officers, or indirectly by circular letter through F.O.'s and J.C.A.O.'s.
3. Accounts will now be submitted up to December 31, 1943, by all officers concerned, who have hitherto failed to do so, within fifteen days of the issue of this Memorandum - and the cash balances held by officers who are not functioning as Sub-Accountants or Imprest Holders will be handed in to the nearest F.O. On the expiry of the fifteen days' interval a list of outstanding balances, with the names of the officers responsible, will be called for from the Chief Accountant, Sicily Region, and this Headquarters will take steps towards disciplinary action.
4. S.C.A.O.'s will see that this Memorandum reaches all officers under their Command, and that no officer leaves their provinces without complying therewith.

VIOLATIONS OF PROVISIONS OF MEMORANDA NO. 47

1. Attention has been drawn to this office by Agenti Marittimi that provisions of Numbered Memoranda No. 47 dated 16 December 1943 are being totally disregarded by certain S.C.A.O.'s and C.A.O.'s on the island of Sicily.
2. The above memorandum deals with establishment of freight rates for the hauling of cargoes from Sicilian ports and a plan for operation of auxiliary motor schooners in Sicilian waters.
3. The importance of having uniform freight rates in effect throughout this island cannot be too strongly stressed and it is ordered that all non-compliance of Memoranda No. 47 cease immediately.

1. Within the past few weeks, some measure of direct contact has been established between what may be described as the "Italian Government" on the mainland of Italy and Italian Government officials in Sicily. It is known that Special Decrees, Gazzette Ufficiale, and Departmental Circulars have been distributed.
2. It must be clearly understood by all concerned, and impressed upon all Italian State, Provincial and Communal officials in Sicily region that Governmental Control is vested in A.M.G., and that any orders or publications from other sources are merely informative and will not be put into force without prior ratification by A.M.G.
3. It is also timely to advise all concerned that no variation in the terms and processes of Italian law, as it existed before the occupation of Sicily, is permissible except on specific orders from Regional Headquarters, or as provided by Proclamations, General Orders and Instruction issued by Headquarters A.M.G.O.I., or Headquarters A.M.G.
4. The attention of Prefects, Intendente di Finanza and other State, Provincial and Communal officials is to be directed to par. 3 hereof, as instances have come to light wherein certain officials have exceeded their powers in this respect.
