3 of the 6 who left for the airport this morning were turned off the plane because their passengers had higher priority arrived. They are sitting on the tarmac until 15.30 hrs just in case there is any hope of getting on the afternoon's plane (ATC say they won't get on it anyway).

I have spoken to ATC. Bookings & priorities cannot get anything out of them.

2 I am left with 9 bodies to get to Paris tomorrow at the latest - & I see no hope unless a plane can be found on a special plane.
or 1 The Chief of Staff will raise the priorities to 2.

Do you think we should have any success with other alternatives? Would you mind having me a note the above giving your views & advice.

Failing other alternatives I am afraid we will have to say sorry to Paris!

1. Reference is made to your letter of 23 July, subject as above, no reference.

2. With particular reference to par 2 of your letter, the following information has been furnished by Economic Section:

"2. The investigations requested in para 2 (a), (b), and (c) of the basic communication are as follows:

- (a) Para 5, Special Order 95, this Headquarters, dated 5 April 45, was requested by Major Robert E. Doe. The three civilians mentioned therein went to Naples with Lt. Frank J. Amoroso who was on official business in connection with G-4 activities. They returned with the same transportation. No special transport was requested.
- (b) Para 46, Special Order 96, this Headquarters, dated 6 April 45, was requested by Mr. Stewart Brown and Mr. Leland Allbaugh. This travel was performed by Army Tactical Aircraft by Miss Wolff's friend. They returned with the same aircraft. No transportation or billeting arrangements were requested in this case.
- (c) Para 3, Special Order 1942, this Headquarters, dated 22 May 45, was requested by Capt. Jack Williams. The two civilians mentioned therein went to Venice with Lt. Cmdr. Bruno C. F. Mulieri who was on official business. Mr. Antolini was in Venice at that time and it is assumed that billeting arrangements were taken care of by him. Miss Assante returned in a special plane with Mr. Antolini's party and Miss Shepherd made her own arrangements.
