My dear Admiral,

I was told that the Allies are going to employ some people in Germany and Austria. But I do not know and can not find out which office and authority was charged with the duty and power to collect the candidates. So I do not know to whom to address requests like the enclosed one.

My I ask you for advice and help in this respect?

I am so sorry to trouble you again and at the same time profoundly thankful.

Very sincerely and respectfully

Sir,

The time when Venezia Giulia with the town and harbour Trieste, Austrian territory and other Middle European countries will be liberated, is coming nearer and nearer.

Some of my friends, Slovenians by nationality, living now in Rome, who escaped from our homeland during the occupation and cannot return because of the present internal political situation there, would like to be employed anywhere in the Middle European countries in any kind of work which they could perform according to their abilities.

Mr. Ivan AVSENIK,

born on the 28th April 1889 in the village Vrhnje, district Radovljica - at that time the Austrian province Krain; later the Yugoslav province Dravska banovina. He finished his studies in the High school for Commerce, "Export Akademie in Vienne", travelled throughout Europe and was employed in different branches of commerce and trade in Russia and Yugoslavia. In Yugoslavia he was the owner of the oil-industry-plant Zabret & Co in Britof-Kranj, he was the vice-president of the Board of Oil-production Company in Yugoslavia, chairman of the committee of the Slovenian Provincial Bank in Ljubljana, member of the boards of the "Coal-mine Society, Trbovlje"; "Chemical industry, Ruše"; "Chemical industry, Ljubljana", member of the committees of the National Bank of Yugoslavia in Belgrade, Pensions Institution for Employees in Ljubljana and Central labour assurance institution in Zagreb. He was Delegate of Yugoslavia for economical missions at different international meetings, especially in Moscow and Geneva. He is well acquainted with the Middle European economical, trade, traffic and industrial problems. He speaks and writes: Slovenian, Croatian, Serbian, Russian, German, French, English and Italian. During the Italian occupation he lived in Ljubljana. After the collapse of Italy, he escaped to Rome, because of his well known anti-German and pro-Allied activities. His present address: Rome, Via del Olmata 9.

Mr. Kreto KAZAFURA, was born on December 7th, 1899 in Rovinj (Rovigno), Province of Istria. After his studies in Trieste, Gorica, Graz, he studied commercial science and chemistry at the University in Rome, where he took his Doctor's degree in 1921. He speaks and writes Slovenian, Italian, German and speaks fluently English and Croatian.

His father, Herny Cassafura, was judge at Komen, Rovinj, Trieste and Gorice, and finally President of the Court of Appeal in Trieste till 1926. He was the highest court-authority of the Adriatic Coast-land (afterwards Venezia Giulia), well known and highly appreciated ~~in~~ in both Slovenian and Italian society in Trieste.

Mr. Krsto Kazafura was compelled to leave Trieste on account of the persecutions against Slovenians and other anti-Fascist elements shortly after the burning down of the "Narodni dom", the cultural and welfare centre of the Slovenians in Trieste in 1921. He found refuge in Yugoslavia, established himself at Maribor and worked in leading positions in industry. After the occupation of Maribor, he escaped to Ljubljana. The Germans asked the Italian Authorities for his extradition. The Italians did not respond, but imprisoned him for two months. When Italy collapsed, he was compelled to leave Ljubljana and went to Rome, where he has been living since. He is familiar with the political, commercial and cultural conditions of Trieste. His present address: Rome, Via del Olmeta 9.

Mr. Fran F. ERJAVEC, was born 10th of February 1893 in the village Vižmarje, Ljubljana district, of what was at that time the Austrian Province Krain, later the Yugoslav Province Dravske banovine. Finished the Middle school for teachers of the elementary schools in Ljubljana. Was employed as elementary school teacher in Mistleče, district Sežana (Venezia Giulia) for four years, later on as organizer and administrator of Yugoslav Labour-Exchange-State organization for four years, and still later as district inspector of the elementary schools and clerk of the Ministry of Education in Belgrade. He is a well known writer of school-books, novels for youth, books of national history (about 35 works); was also editor and redacteur of reviews and newspapers, and member of committees of different cultural and welfare institutions and organizations. Speaks and writes: Slovenian, Serbian, Croatian, German, Italian and understands elementary English. The Fascist Authorities interned him in the now liberated part of Italy as a known Slovenian nationalistic writer. He is acquainted with publicity-work, propaganda, administrative work, especially in social welfare administration. His present address: Rome, Via del Olmeta 9.

Dr. Dorže S A R D O Č , born in Trieste, 1893. Medical doctor and dentist; worked in his profession in Trieste. Was imprisoned for 8 years by the Fascist Authorities, sentenced to death because of his national Slovenian and anti-Fascist activities, and liberated by the Allied Authorities from the prison on Lipari island. Speaks and writes: Slovenian, Italian and German. His present address in Rome: Via Annia Faustina 9/4 born on April 8th, 1914, in Maribor, Yugoslavia. Took his doctor's degree in law in Ljubljana, and specialized himself in economical science at the Universities in Paris and Milan. He was an employee of the National Yugoslav Bank, and assistant teacher of economy in the University at Ljubljana. Speaks and writes: Slovenian, Croatian, Serbian, English, French, Italian and German. His present address: Roma, Via del Olmata 9.

The above-mentioned persons have suffered during the present war because of their national and pro-Allied attitude. Their property was confiscated and destroyed; their families are scattered. They themselves are living in Rome, in the most modest circumstances, without any help or support. Their means of living are limited. The present troublesome circumstances do not permit them to return to their homes, not even after the liberation, because they all are known as political workers for Democracy. They would like to earn the necessary means of life by doing good work in the Allied administration or military organization anywhere in Europe.

Please, excuse me for disturbing you with this letter.

Thankfully Yours

Rome, 30 December 1944

My dear Tony,

On the request of General MACARIO, General Staff of the R. Army, I communicate to you the case of Dr. Manlio SPIGNO, ex political refugee in France. In 1940, because of the German invasion of France, Dr. Spigno took refuge in Algiers where he is still (rue de Liège, 1).

He has a degree in commercial science, and has been a long time in London; he knows English, German, French and Spanish very well.

At present, he is a translator (for English and French) for the French Authorities in Algiers; but a long time ago, he sent a request to the Allied Authorities, in this town, to be taken as interpreter by the English or American Authorities, in Algiers or elsewhere.

Will you be kind enough to inquire about what became of Dr. Spigno's request, and do what you can to have it granted.

Waiting for your answer, I remain,

Truly yours,

Mio caro Zani, per corrispondere a vive premure rivoltemi dal Generale MACCARIO dello Stato Maggiore del R. Esercito, mi rivolgo alla di Lei cortesia per segnalare il caso del Dott. Manlio SPIGNO, già rifugiato politico in Francia. Nel 1940, per l'invasione tedesca della Francia, il Dr. Spigno si rifugiò ad Algeri ove attualmente si trova (rue de Liège 1).

Laureato in scienze commerciali, egli è stato vario tempo a Londra, conosce perfettamente l'inglese, il tedesco, il francese e lo spagnolo.

Presentemente è traduttore di inglese e di tedesco presso le Autorità francesi ad Algeri; ma da tempo ha presentato alle autorità militari Alleate in quella città, domanda per essere assunto come interprete dalle autorità inglesi o americane ad Algeri o dovunque.

La prego, caro Maggiore Quayle, di volere benevolmente interessarsi al corso avuto dalla domanda del Dr. SPIGNO e possibilmente per il favorevole accoglimento.

In attesa di quanto vorrà comunicarmi a suo tempo, La ringrazio fin d'ora del cortese suo interessamento e Le porgo i migliori miei saluti.

My dear Commodore,

During the last three weeks after our meeting in your office I was trying to arrange the lunch of which we spoke. But, unfortunately it has been without success. I understand you had been too busy these days and probably will be so in the next week.

As you remember my suggestion was that you should meet on that opportunity Madame Vera Jovanović and her husband. I told you that that Madame Jovanović was anxious to get a job in your office as she understood it was possible. I gave the following informations about her: She comes from a prominent family from Belgrad and is now 23 years old married to a yugoslav banker and living now with her husband in Rome. She has University education in England (University of Birmingham) and speaks very fluently English, French, Italian, German. I told you as a remarkable event for a foreign girl that she had the honour to be presented to Their Majesties the King and Queen of England. During the time of my office in Rome, she was the Liason-Officer of the Delegation and fullfilled successfully her duties. Even difficult and tricky ones she conducted skilfully and in a decent smooth way. Because of this satisfactory experience I am warmly recommending her. As far as I can feel it is on her part not a question of material help but the wish to be employed in a useful job helping the war effort. In case your meeting with her at my place was not possible, I think it would be more convenient if you could call her to your office and discuss the matter directly.

But it is understood I am looking very much forward for a time when you will be free and able to honour me with your visit at a lunch or dinner at my place. My wife and my 8 year old son, who have been living in America for the last two years, would be delighted to meet you.

Excuse me for disturbing you and I hope to see you soon.

Yours very sincerely

Chief of Staff Section:

1. In a recent conversation with the A/Chief Commissioner, Mr. Smiljanic, the Yugoslav Delegate to the Advisory Council, asked if employment within the ACC might be given to various Yugoslavs who might hold suitable qualifications. He pointed out that civilians of various nationalities were already employed and hoped that the same privilege might be extended to his own Nationals.
2. He has now submitted a list showing the qualifications of a dozen Yugoslavs, and the A/Chief Commissioner requests that you investigate the possibilities of their employment. In the light of your findings please prepare a suitable reply to Mr. Smiljanic for Commodore Stone's signature.
