H.Q. "S" FORCE.
c/o 15 ARMY GROUP.
A.P.O. 777
U.S. ARMY.

21 December 1943.

Dear General Taylor.

I am writing to let you know what is happening with regard to Advanced G-2 Section, as I was called away at short notice and was not able to tell you before I left.

I expect you will have seen the various A.F.H.Q. directives on the subject of Intelligence available in RCME, but in case they have not yet reached the Commission I feel I ought to explain the situation briefly.

The idea is that a special Intelligence Force called "S" Force is being formed to exploit any immediate Intelligence available when we get to RCME. Advanced G-2 Section have been told to provide the S-2 for the Force and I am therefore at H.Q. 15 Army Group making the necessary arrangements.

When "S" Force is disbanded on the situation returning to normal the idea at the moment is that the S-2 of the Force should then re-assume its normal role and carry out Advanced G-2 Section work and take over any uncompleted work from "S" Force.

Meanwhile the bulk of Advanced G-2 Section will, I hope be moving over to the NAPLES area and I hope to have the H.Q. with Major Phillips alongside the Commission so that we may continue to keep the closest liaison with the Commission if that is agreeable to you.

I hope that I shall be able to come down and see you personally before you go over to the other side, but in case the Commission does move before I have the chance I felt I ought to write and explain the situation.

May I offer you my best wishes for Christmas and the New Year.

Yours sincerely,

R.J.C.Cave

POLITICAL NEWS

Occupied Italy.

1. According to Radio Brazzaville the trial against Carlo Scorza, accused of treason because he had not mobdlized the CC.NN. on the fall of Mussolini, will take place next Saturday.

2. The following information has been learned concerning the trial against the nineteen members of the FASCIST Grand Council accused of high treason:

On the 8th, 9th, and 10th of January the trial of the nineteen members of the FASCIST Grand Council took place at VERONA, before a special extraordinary court. The Special Court was presided over by His Excellency, the Lawyer ALDO VECCHINI, and was composed of the following judges: Celso Riva, Renzo Montagna, Domenico Canna, Giovanni Riggi, Vito Casanova, Enrico Vittadini and Otello Gaba. The prosecuting attorney was ANDREA FORTUNATO.

The trial took place on the morning of the eighth, at 9 o'clock in the Palazzo Castel Vecchio in VERONA. After the reading of the names of the accused, Marshal DE BONO was the first to be questioned. The accused stated that he never took any part in politics, and he had not acquiesced with the order of the day set up by Grandi, with regard to the military power in the hands of the King. He denied having anything to do with the Royal House.

The next to be questioned was PARESCHI, who declared that he only became aware of events during the time of the meeting of the Grand Council.

CIANETTI denied every accusation and declared that he had always been FASCIST. He continually made reference to the FASCIST activities and also to his report on the treachery of the Army, which he had made when he was fighting in ALBANIA. GOTTARDI stated that he had the impression that the discussion also in the Grand Council, were aimed at strengthening their efforts for the continuation of the war.

Marinelli declared that he had voted favorably in the full conviction that FASCISM could receive no harm from it.

CIANO declared, "I confess to have made a mistake, but this is not high treason!" He stated that he had asked for a passport for himself and his family. He made reference to a meeting which was held in the House of Bottai.

The memoirs of Marshal UGO CAVALLERO was read out on the ninth of January. These memoirs stated that since November, 1942, they had always been considering the possibilities of replacing MUSSOLINI. Several meetings were held by the high military heads, and it appeared the most suitable person to succeed him was Marshal BADOGLIO. "When I resigned from the position of Head of the General Staff in December," said Marshal CAVALLERO in his memoirs, "I never ceased to concern myself with it."

On the fall of SICILY, the plans of CAVALLERO, which wanted the military power to return to the Sovereign, and to the new Government, which was to be under Marshal BADOGLIO assumed a more concrete form.

In his memoirs Marshal CAVALLERO added, that in the meantime he had made active propaganda with several persons of the magistracy and the senate, and also with the great industrialist Luigi Burgo, who declared himself ready to place a thousand millions at their disposal to help them.

Marshal CAVALLERO also had a conversation with General AMBROSIO, during which it was decided that in order to give their plans a more constitutional character, it was necessary to do it through the Grand Council.

Then the prosecutor spoke. He stated, among other things, that the greatest crime was the continual sabotaging by the Italian Staff. He said that the CAVALLERO plan was a great and incontestable proof of the guilt of the Royal House and the Army. He then stated that he was compelled to consider the nineteen accused to be fully responsible for these crimes. The council ended, but turning to the accused he said: "In this way I have sacrificed your lives for the sake of ITALY.--Would that my life, too, were sacrificed for the future of ITALY!"

c. A strict watch is being kept in the suburbs of ROME on all road traffic to prevent people entering the city. (vide Bulletin No. 56, of 26 December, last)
d. At ROME the water and electricity supply is satisfactory, but the supply of gas has been reduced.

3. At MILAN the situation was normal. The workers in war industries were subjected to a strict surveillance.

POLITICAL SITUATION.

OCCUPIED ITALY

According to news from neutral sources MUSSOLINI is suffering from cancer of the stomach, and his condition is considered grave.

From information received from SWITZERLAND, it is learned that strikes are spreading in NORTH ITALY, and that work has stopped at LA SPEZIA. There were encounters between patriots and GERMAN troops at PRATO.

The following information has been extracted from C.S.D.I.C. (East) Report No. SIM/25, dated 7 January, 1944.

POLITICAL, SOCIAL, ECONOMIC.

a) Republican Government The head of TERAMO province is the prefect IPPOLITI. Reprisals and threats are very severe against:- Workers who leave their work; conscripts of 1924/1925 classes who fail to report; officers who disregard proclamations and fail to report to the district of TERAMO; families of the above who are threatened with arrest until the husband reports.

b) Fascist Republican Party The federal secretary of TERAMO is Prof MORRICONE of the local High school. The Fascist authorities actively cooperate with the Germans; in some places however there are serious difficulties about constituting Fasci and the selection of leaders, because most of the inhabitants stay away from the Party, showing contempt and hostility towards it. There are however here and there elements with Fascist sympathies, who furnish the Germans and 'M' bns. with information for rounding up officers, patriots, parachutists, escapees and anti-Fascists, ensuring their arrest.

The following are examples of what such people are responsible for:-

- Murder of Dr. Mario CAPUANI, who was working with patriots in the MARTESA wood.
- The rounding up and murder of various patriots in the MARTESA wood.
- The arrest of Commendatore BRILLI of COLONNELLA, an old friend of BADOGLIO.
- The arrest of three British escapees hiding in S. OMERO area.

1010

Declassified E.O. 12356 Section 3.3/NND No. 785015

- The arrest of 4 British escapees in TORTORETO LIDO (given away by Vincenzo IANACONE, photographer of the village, who is believed to be in the employ of prefect IPPOLITI.)- The denunciation to the Germans at S. BENEDETTO DEL TRONTO of preparations made by Sources to leave MARTIN SICURO in a motor fishing boat.

c) Police and security organisations In the various localities CC.RR and R.G.F. (customs guards) continue as before, performing police duties under the Germans. However it was made obvious by conversations and many signs, that some of these soldiers are putting up with things with bad grace, chiefly because of the fear of reprisals against their families, and doing their best to oblige patriots, escapees and the civilian population.

d) Economic The agricultural situation in the area is considered good. Work goes on regularly, thanks to the presence of many sd - diers who have left the army. Naturally work falls off when the area is being searched, because everybody goes away. There is little or NO industrial activity in the area because the machinery has been rendered useless, to prevent the Germans from removing it.

Intelligence Report EW Br 5.

Source: An Italian Major of the Alpine Corps who served on the Russian front from 1941 to 1943. (Rating B-3)

Source was in the Donetz basin, with the Alpine corps, from the winter of 1941 to the early summer of 1943. He gave the following information on German-occupied Russia:

1. Food Production:

The Germans did everything possible to develop food-production in the Ukraine. Vast wheatfields were under cultivation in the Donetz basin. Wheat production was also heavy west to the Dniester. Diary products left the area in considerable quantities. The Army itself lived largely off the land for such staples as oil, wine sugar and farinaceous pastes. Potatoes were grown throughout the area and production was said to have been good.

2. Industrial Production:

In the vicinity of Rikovo there was one metallurgical plant and one sugar refinery. Source was unable to give any figures on the production of these plants. In general he believed industrial production to be at a virtual standstill owing to the Russian scorched-earth policy. Reconstruction was negligible owing to the lack of parts and equipment.

Source could give no figures, but he believed heavy shipments of coal from the Donetz were going to Germany. The Germans paid particular attention to getting the coal mines into working condition.

3. Railways:

Source travelled through Moldavia, which he described as poor and unproductive, and continued north to Brest-Litovsk. From that city he went by rail to Minsk, Smolensk, south to Brianek, Orel, Kursk, Kharkov, and east to Kupiansk, Linganak and Rossosh.

He was of the opinion that there was no double-tracking beyond Minsk. The other railways, while single-tracked, were very well maintained to accomodate the heavy traffic. All lines had been converted to standard gauge.

No Russian locomotives or rolling stock in useable condition was captured. All locomotives were steam-powered.

One of the greatest efforts made by the Germans was that of standardizing and reconstructing Russian railroads.

In the northern sector there were continuous guerrilla attacks on transport in spite of all efforts to suppress these bands.

4. Labor:

The Germans maintained an army of workers behind the fighting forces to maintain and develop transportation and to carry on food production. The labor battalions, source stated, were not well organized. The Germans seemed unable to pick skilled workers from the mass of the prisoners and the population remaining in the occupied areas. There had been no very great difficulty, however, in controlling these people. Source commented that there was no such a thing as morale in our sense of the word among the Russian labor groups. There was only the Slav -- phlegmatic, stolid and incomprehensible.

5. Condition of Cities:

Stalino was one of the most important Axis bases in Russia, with the largest airport in Axis-occupied Slav territory. Except for the destroyed factories, Stalino was practically undamaged.

In general the large cities were not badly damaged at the time of the German entry. Kiev and Dniepropetrovsk were in relatively good condition. Kharkov had sustained the heaviest damage. In addition to the destruction of factories, sections of the center of the city were badly scarred by artillery fire and Russian bombings.

6. Comments on the Civilian Population:

In speaking of the Russian people, source said that in contrast to the Army, the civilian population appeared to have been poorly fed and clothed for several years. Hunger and starvation has plagued all the occupied territory since the winter of 1941.

The Italians, he said, shared their meager rations with the people and in return received many small favors. There were no apparent hard feelings between the Italian soldiers and the Russian folk. Such manifestations as the Russians devout adherence to the Church in spite of many years of anti-clerical legislation, made a lasting impression. Holy ikons were in every home.

Source knew of one Italian officer, captured by the Russians, who had been released with his arms when the retreat from the Don began. In contrast with this state of affairs, the Russians bitterly hate the Germans.

4. The embassies accredited to the REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT are at VENICE.

5. The GERMANS are now paying compensation to those whose property has been damaged by GERMAN troops.

6. The food situation in NORTH ITALY is good, but at ROME there is a scarcity owing to the deficiency of transport which is necessary to bring provisions from the centres of production.

Communications.

The electric line up to RIMINI on the ADRIATIC railroad is functioning , and as far as ROME on the BOLOGNA-ROME line. The latter, however, in consequence of the damage caused by Allied bombing, has a steam service for a distance of 4 Km. near CHIUSI.

Internal Situation.

(a) Political Situation:

A senior officer who has escaped from occupied territory about the middle of December states :

1. Towards the end of September in all the provinces controlled by the REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT, FEDERAL POLICE units were formed with the object of removing all anti-fascist elements and suppressing the black market. The members of the FEDERAL POLICE wear a kind of overall for a uniform and are armed with Tommy guns, hand grenades, and MAUSER pistols. In the execution of their duties the FEDERAL POLICE have been guilty of illegal arrests and indiscriminate requisitioning.

2. Those whose responsibilities are the provision of rations for the populace and the call-up of young men for the services, try with every means within their power to eschew their duty, and are being replaced by commissioners chosen from the FASCISTS.

3. The clergy are secretly waging a clever and patriot propagandist campaign, especially amongst the country people.

4. In all the provinces, by the order of the Chief of Police, TULLIO TAMBURINI, relations and people in the public eye have been arrested as hostages, to be used as possible reprisals for the measures taken by the ANGLO-AMERICAN forces against friends and families of FASCISTS in Allied territory.

5. The ITALIAN population in occupied territory is overwhelmingly patriotic, and favour the monarchy. They deplore the action of certain political groups which place their personal interests before the prime duty of all ITALIANS - which is to contribute to the expulsion of the GERMANS from ITALY.

(b) Economic Situation:

An officer who escaped from occupied territory has given the following description of the economic situation in the province of ASCOLI PICENO up to 20th December 1943.

1. Owing to the fact that the province is mainly agricultural, the food situation is good. A stock of 300,000 cwt. of wheat still remains in spite of the fact that several hundreds of cwts of corn were distributed to the people in lieu of coupons for the period up to the month of February 1944.

The sowing of corn is going on well, and the winter crop is favourable.

Declassified E.O. 12356 Section 3.3/NND No. 765015

2. Owing to the lack of transport to send out the vegetables, such products exist in large quantities on the market and prices are exceedingly cheap.

3. The scarcity of salt, sugar, tobacco, and matches, is causing deep resentment.

4. Paper money has greatly increased and the peasants (contadini) have frequent recourse to barter.

5. The banks are doing less business, and one is only allowed to draw a limited amount.

6. Recently a commission authorised by the Chief of Police has taken measures for the requisitioning of gold (240 lire a gram) in the hands of all the goldsmiths and jewellers in the province. In the city of ASCOLI PICENO 10 Kg. of gold were taken.

Similar measures were taken in the provinces of AQUILA, CHIETI, PESCARA and TERAMO.

7. Trade is paralysed by the lack of transport. The railway ASCOLI - PICENO - PORTO D'ASCOLI - SAN BENEDETTO of the TRONTO is unusable because the GERMANS have taken away all the rolling stock.

8. The fishing industry is at a complete standstill owing to the lack of motor fishing boats, which have taken refuge for the most part in the ports of PUGLIA.

Method Used by GERMAN Troops for the exploitation and destruction of forward areas.

In the operational zone, the GERMANS are proceeding, as is known, with the integral exploitation of all resources and with the destruction of everything which, when they withdraw, might be of use to the Allies or to the resumption of life in the liberated territory.

The methods adopted by the GERMANS in order to reach their aim, present well-defined and persistent characteristics, which show that a plan is being carried out generally on the following lines.

In the areas in question, all railways and roads, telephonic, telegraphic and postal communications are either interrupted or their use is prohibited to the civil population, who are therefore completely isolated and unaware of what is taking place even at short distances from them.

On a certain day several cars or lorries arrive and stop in a town or village. The cars contain officers who commence to study the lay-out of the village and the topography of the area; the lorries have NCO's and men who commence to fire bursts from automatic rifles into the air. The flow of vehicles increases and a systematic robbery commences in the township and along the roads and in the surrounding country.

A Headquarters is set up in the town where they pretend not to know what is going on, or at the most, in the event of complaint by some courageous person or of some particularly serious act, they limit themselves to blaming a section belonging to some other command.

Then come those charged with the requisition of cattle, who order the mayor to deliver a certain number of cattle, sheep, pigs, horses, mules and donkeys, threatening fierce reprisals on the town if the order is not fulfilled. While the delivery of the number of animals required, is being carried out in order to avoid worse misfortunes, troops go around the district in lorries and make a clean sweep, not only of all animals, but of wheat, flour, oil, and objects of value.

The robbery is generally accompanied by the firing of bullets in order to intimidate the peasants, who are trying as far as possible to hide their possessions.

The robbery is generally accompanied by the firing of bullets in order to intimidate the peasants, who are trying as far as possible to hide their possessions.

When the population is in stark terror owing to the continuous violences, the hunt for men commences. The township is surrounded by special troops, often S.S. men, and continually firing, they search the houses one by one and capture all men irrespective of their ages.

The families then, being without the support of their menfolk, are unable to prevent their dwelling places from being systematically ransacked, and anything of value or which catches the eye of the searcher is taken away.

At last, when Allied pressure becomes more threatening, the wrecking engineers arrive and order the evacuation of the people and destroy the township with mines and fire.

1. The majority of the people are hostile to the FASCISTS.

2. The FASCIST FEDERATION in MILAN has formed an action group with the job of taking reprisals against anti-fascists.

3. The GERMAN troops are maintaining a correct attitude towards the population.

4. The railways are working,and the number of passenger trains have been greatly reduced.

5. The electric railway is working as before as far as RIMINI. SOUTH of this city, steam is used instead.

6.. The peasants, through fear of the GERMAN powers of requisitioning, have tilled the land and sown seed. For this work they had plenty of help, owing to the labour furnished by the demobilized.

7. The distribution of rationed foods is going on alright, except for sugar, which has not been distributed for two months. The rationing of salt (½ kg. per person per month) and of tobacco (40 gr. a week for men over 18 years of age) began on December 1st.

In order not to aggravate the food situation in ROME the Ministry of the Interior (Ministero dell 'Interno), acting in conjunction with the GERMAN command in ITALY, has forbidden anyone to go to ROME unless they have the special authorization of the GERMAN military command.

The prefect, who is the consul of the TOLLIC FASCISTI militia, is discharging the duties of the head of police.

The National Commissioner of Labour has ordered a census taking of the whole population in the communes of the REPUBLICA SOCIALE ITALIANA, with a view to finding out all men from 16 -70 years of age capable either of intellectual or manual work who, if unemployed, could be forced to work. Food coupons will not be given to those who are not included in the census and will be taken away from those who refuse to obey the call up for conscripted labour. Those who favour the delinquents will be treated in the same way. (Radio News)

The above repressive and intimidating measures are evident proofs of the efforts the GERMANS are making to increase the call up for labour and military service.

ITALY - INTERNAL SITUATION.

The Minister of National Education in the FASCIST REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT - BIGGINI, has ordered the directors of the institutions of learning to immediately make a list of the names of every scholar attending school, with a view to finding out the names of those belonging to the 1923, 1924 and 1925 classes.

The Minister has ordered that these young men should give up their course of study and immediately report to their respective military districts. (Fascist radio news.)

These actions go to confirm the poor results obtained in the call up of the young classes (vide Bulletin No.52, 22nd December, 1943).

(Source: S.I.M.Bulletin No.54 dated 24th December 1943.)

A University student who escaped from CREMONA on the 24th November, 1943, has given the following details about the city.

The cabinet of the Presidency of the Council of the FASCIST REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT, the Ministry for ITALIAN AFRICA, and part of the Ministry for Agriculture and Forestry resided there.

The FASCIST REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT was very active, intimidating the people, especially the families of those who did not obey the call-up. Reprisal measures were taken against dissentients.

The police authorities, particularly thr CARIBINIERI, in general showed themselves favourable to the patriots (in the Questura, however, there were many FASCIST elements).

In the country-side the system of barter was being employed.

Rationing of food was working regularly, but the quantity distributed was small. The banks were paying out in paper money,

The Minister has ordered that these young men should give up their course of study and immediately report to their respective military districts. (Fascist radio news.)

These actions go to confirm the poor results obtained in the call up of the young classes (vide Bulletin No.52, 22nd December, 1943).

A University student who escaped from CREMONA on the 24th November, 1943, has given the following details about the city.

The cabinet of the Presidency of the Council of the FASCIST REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT, the Ministry for ITALIAN AFRICA, and part of the Ministry for Agriculture and Forestry resided there.

The FASCIST REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT was very active, intimidating the people, especially the families of those who did not obey the call-up. Reprisal measures were taken against dissentients.

The police authorities, particularly thr CARIBINIERI, in general showed themselves favourable to the patriots (in the Questura, however, there were many FASCIST elements).

In the country-side the system of barter was being employed.

Rationing of food was working regularly, but the quantity distributed was small. The banks were paying out in paper money, and often with cheques.

INTERNAL SITUATION:

A senior officer of C.C.R.R. (BLACKSHIRTS) was in LE MARCITE up to 15th December, and states that :

The call-up of the 1923, 1924, 1925 classes was entirely unsuccessful. Hardly anybody turned up. The GERMANS have taken reprisals and have thrown numerous heads of families in the SERVIGLIANO (NORTH ASCOLI PICENO) concentration camp where there are also several JEWS and political prisoners.

At ASCOLI PICENO a federal police squad composed of extremists has been formed. They are armed with tommy-guns and are searching out patriots and Allied P.W.

In the SILOS there is still a notable reserve of corn (about 300,000 hundred-weight).

MISCELLANEOUS.

Officers escaping from CENTRAL ITALY state that in the middle of December the GERMANS took away the machinery of the S.I.C.E. (SOCIETA ITALIANA CARBONI ELETTRICI) in ASCOLI PICENO: the local establishment for the production of carbide is working instead for the GERMAN command.

The GERMANS have dismantled the plants of the electric depot of the barracks, and of the mills in the Province of ASCOLI PICENO in case of a retreat.

There is news of further action on the part of the GERMANS in NORTH ITALY against the increasing activity of ITALIAN patriots.

ALDO RESEGA, Federal Commissioner, was assassinated at MILAN. Acts of sabotage have been carried out at GENOA, CUNEO, BRESCIA, PARMA, and BOLOGNA. Military tribunals have issued the death sentence for such acts.

The GERMAN authorities have imposed severe restrictive measures to ensure public order and in some localities have imposed collective fines on the civilian population.

Gen. ZIMMERMAN, commanding the GERMAN S.S. in NORTH ITALY, has been commissioned to examine the ITALIAN labour question, in particular, the industries in TORINO and MILAN. He has met the workers and has promised to revise, in their favor, the previous wage agreements.

Gen. ZIMMERMAN has also promised them GERMAN help in the fight against the black market.

INTELLIGENCE REPORT NO.201.

Observations on the German Army Medical Services during operations on LEROS and whilst on the German hospital ship "GRADISCA", prepared by F.MURRAY SLOAN Capt.A.M.S.U.S., M.F.U. 1st Bn The King's Own Royal Regiment.

1) After hostilities ceased the Senior German Medical Officer (Lieut. TISCHLER) came to the Naval Hospital, PORTOLAGO, and after a short talk with the Italians, decided that the German wounded would be looked after by the Italian medical staff as one of these was a Professor. I had to restrain the above mentioned Italian professor previously from operating on British wounded without anaesthetics. The Germans, however, accepted his apparently without investigating his ability as a surgeon. Later, Lieut. TISCHLER, himself developed a septic hand (a simple enough condition that could have been cured in two or three days by incision and the use of sulfa drugs), but the Italian merely splinted and bandaged it, and three days later, when the condition had naturally become much worse, he was evacuated by plane, as sick, to ATHENS.

2) The Germans appeared to make no use of sulphonamide powder in the first aid treatment of wounds, nor of sulphonamide by mouth in prevention of wound sepsis. On board the hospital ship, the only two drugs of this type I saw in the dispensary were "PRONTOSIL RUBRUM" and "SULFAPYRIDINE". The makers name was SCHERING and there appeared to be only a small quantity of these available.

3) I saw a German Nurse dress one of wounded on board ship with the pape pulp dressing they employ. The technique was as follows:- a large piece of this material, quite unsterile, was smeared with vaseline from a tube and applied, in this case, to a below-the-knee amputation stump. When I

I had to restrain the above mentioned Italian professor previously from operating on British wounded without anaesthetics. On board the hospital ship,the only two drugs of this type I saw in the dispensary were "PROTOSIL PUDER" and "SULFATHIAZOL". The makers name was SCHERING and there appeared to be only a small quantity of these available.

3) I saw a German Nurse dress one of wounded on board ship with the paper pulp dressing they employ. The technique was as follows:- a large piece of this material,quite unsterile,was smeared with vaseline from a tube and applied,in this case,to a below-the-knee amputation stump. When I redressed the limb two days later the dressing was like rock,as a result of hardening of the discharge on this material. The stump was also raw red and suppurating freely,although it had been previously healthy. This paper pulp dressing was used quite freely and the sterile swabs used in the operating theatre consisted of a core of this material surrounded by a single layer of gauze.

4) After the battle on LEROS,I was approached by a youthful battalion M.O. who asked me if I could supply him with First Field Dressings as he had none for his men and they were leaving the island the following day.

5) After the battle I visited one of the M.A.P. sites in a small two roomed house to acquire,if possible,some personal kit I had left there. The house had,however,by this time been taken over by the Germans as an M.I.Room and a single,rather elderly,German private appeared to be the sole medical person in charge. I talked with him for some time and he showed me over the house. The ground floor was the M.I.Room proper and the upstairs room was comfortably furnished as his bedroom. Part of the fittings was a large double bed which he shared,he informed me,with a Greek girl who was hanging around in the background. He had a cupboard stocked full of British "compo" rations. He told me he came from GUS and had not seen the German M.O. since he had arrived. There appeared to be little discipline or organisation in the running of the establishment, at least from the medical point of view.

6) On board ship one of our men who had a cranial injury was treated by the German surgeon (a naval officer with the rank of major). The patient had been unconscious for several hours and his pupils were progressively dilating,indicating increasing intracranial tension, probably due to haemorrhage. This German surgeon proceeded to inject intravenously 5cc.c. of hypertonic saline pointing out that his senior physician had advised him to do so. This is,however,quite contrary to accepted teaching and the patient died two hours later. The same surgeon had never heard of a Thomas splint and asked what it was when he saw it being used. He also talked of pinning compound fractures of the femur, even in the presence of sepsis,and said that at a recent meeting of surgeons in Berlin this proceeding had been praised.

7) In the ward I arranged for my wounded in Portolago Hospital,DODECANESE, after the battle,fourteen German wounded were deposited one night. They had already been treated by the Italian surgeons,but on inspection I found several wounds that had been overlooked,in particular a compound fracture of the humerus. They had already been treated by the Italian surgeons, but on inspection I found several wounds that had been overlooked, in particular a compound fracture of the humerus. No German medical personnel appeared to take any further interest in these men until they were removed 36 hours later. They lay on matresses on the floor in a filthy condition and depended for attention on ourselves and some Sisters of Mercy.

8) Several of the German wounded expressed horror on being informed that they were going to be treated and "cared for" by Italian surgeons.

It may also be of interest to note that the Italian Naval Hospital at PORTOLAGO in LEROS was repeatedly dive-bombed by Stukas in daylight despite the lavish display of Red Crosses in the Latin style.

All over the German medical staff appeared to be inadequate in numbers and ability to deal personally with the wounded they had sustained during this action, nor did they appear to have the medical supplies necessary.

NOTE. A specimen sample of the pulp dressing (mentioned in para 3 of Capt. MURRAY's report) was obtained from the GRADISCA and has been passed to A.F.H.Q.. The pulp dressing consists of about half a dozen sheets of thin, tissue inch wood pulp paper rather like the face tissues our ladies used to use before the war. The dressing pads were similar with the exception of a single sheet of gauze on the top of the dressing.

Today an ex-ITALIAN ship, now being used by the GERMANS as a Hospital Ship, was intercepted by Allied Naval Ships in the ADRIATIC and brought to BRINDISI, anchoring off-shore.

There were GERMAN, BRITISH and ITALIAN wounded, mostly from LEROS.

All BRITISH and ITALIAN wounded were transferred to lighters and brought ashore. There were 129 British, 825 Italian wounded, who state that their treatment by the German medical personnel could not have been better.

The international Geneva Red Cross incident angle will no doubt be played up by the GERMANS.

We Artillerymen of the 1924 class, recruits of two months, are still with Italian officers who still take the part of Fascism. We Artillerymen want to go home to work, and not stay here to die of hunger and cold.
We therefore beg the High Command to put this law in force. Each one of us loves America and we want to be free to return to our families. Provide immediately otherwise we shall all go and it will be worse, but we hope that America will arrange everything.

INTELLIGENCE REPORT No.157.

In conversations with S.I.M. representatives, the following points came to light regarding the present trend of the FASCIST Republican Government and Army.

General.

The liberal and almost anti-Fascist policy which is being adopted is probably due to the combined efforts of BUFARINI-GUIDI and the Army: it is not known whether MAZZOLINI is co-operating whole-heartedly with the policy or whether his hand is being forced. S.I.M. view the liberal manifestation with a certain concern, as being a very clever political move designed to appeal to the masses, and to encourage recruitment in the Republican Army.

Military.

In the military programme they trace the hand of GAMBARA (very well known to some members), who has been advocating such reforms for many years, and whose independence of mind has in the past retarded his advancement.

Personality. (Note: Details of the personalities of Fascist Republican Army leaders will be forwarded shortly.)

GAMBARA evokes distinct admiration. He is considered as a very capable, liberal minded and progressive General. Though to a certain extent tied up with the Fascist party, he has always been extremely strongly anti-German (expressing his sentiments openly), and his present action is considered to be fundamentally nationalistic rather than a collaboration with the Germans. It is thought that it was brought about by the fact that, a few days after the Armistice, his only son, to whom he is devoted, was arrested by the Germans, and that he hoped to be able to assist him by acting in this manner.

INTELLIGENCE REPORT NO.104.

ITALIAN INTERNAL SITUATION.

Source: S.I.S.Bulletin No.20 dated 20th November 1943.

Reliable refugees from the North give the following picture.

In October and November the internal situation of the areas not near the front had nearly returned to normal.

The public services were functioning more or less regularly.

In general; control and press-ganging of civilians were limited to those registered in the 1918-1925 classes.

Considerable police activity is evident against those more suspect, and those particularly in the public eye. However, the regular police forces (Carabinieri in North Italy; African Police Force (P.A.I.), Customs Guards, civil police, etc.) assist escapees, evasion of control, and passive resistance to the Germans. In this scope, the railwaymen merit particular mention.

Almost the entire population is anti-German and anti-Fascist; it is calculated that not more than 10% of officers and officials collaborate spontaneously with the Germans: their activities are limited to spying and denunciation. Others co-operate only for material necessities and out of fear of severe sanctions.

The politico-police activities are carried out by the Germans and by the Militia (Fascists).

Orders have been published to hand in all wireless sets, guns and sporting cartridges, which previously had remained in their owners' hands.

In October and November the internal situation of the areas not near the front had nearly returned to normal.

The public services were functioning more or less regularly.

In general, control and press-ganging of civilians were limited to those registered in the 1919-1925 classes.

Considerable police activity is evident against those more suspect, and those particularly in the public eye. Following the dismissal of ministers, many officials have taken to the hills.

Ministries have taken up new locations as follows:

Ministry of Marine ..... BELLUNO.
Air Ministry ..... VERONA.

Italian political interests main objective is to expel the GERMANS from the country. To this end they are willing to devote their whole energy, putting aside political and party issues.

On the following issues public opinion is unanimous:-

The B.B.C. announcements regarding the recent political crisis in liberated Italy have had a tremendous effect on public and party opinion:

All very harshly criticize the behaviour of those most prominent politicians in Free Italy who, caring not at all for the voice of the Italian people which cannot make itself heard, abandon themselves in so delicate a moment to debates, posturing and probing, which materially and morally harm the national unity, and even harm the prosecution of the war.

Also, public opinion in Italy still under German control is aware that the entry of Italian forces from free Italy into the line against the Germans could be an active contribution to the moral and material cause. Also, in fact, that it could produce a breaking up of the already feeble republican military organisation which co-operates with the Germans in the rear areas, and not only that, but also that it would render less likely the active intervention in the fighting line of those forces.

(a) Italian troops should be in the front line to destroy the impression that ITALY is now out of the war. This is necessary in order to sabotage GRAZIONI's call to arms, to give the guerillas the feeling that they are participating in an Italian war, and to discourage the industrialists from collaborating with the Germans.

(b) German industrialists are paying particular attention to the continued manufacture of products, "carbone", for gas mask filters, not only in the factories in LANARIW but also in small workshops at TIVOLI.

(c) The PADILA bridge North of ORVIETO has been repaired. The necessity of interrupting the line ORTE-FOLIGNO-TERONTOLA, is emphasised. The bridge over the TIBER, East of PERUGIA, is indicated.

To General Taylor 11.11.43

From Lt.Col.Roseberry

The text of the declaration of the Committee of liberation was brought out from Rome by one of our agents who had escorted Mrs.Lussu back to the capital from Naples.

He gave, on his return, a report of which the attached contains extracts which may be of interest to you.

His assessment of the predominance of the Partito d'Azione may be coloured by the fact that he, whilst in Rome, came under the spell of people like Lussu: but it may be correct, as the Partito was ordagnised before the fall of Mussilini and draws its support from moderate elements of several political colours.

CWR

EXTRACT FROM REPORT OF TRIP TO ROME.

It is to be stressed that the proclamation of the "COMITATO" has been written in full agreement with all the parties, even of the Monarchists of Conte CASATI. Sig.SFORZA to be told that even if political organisation is lacking in the south of Italy, things are different from ROME northwards. Strong political organisation, party newspapers, intercommunication, forgers' shops, sabotage parties(some have already been active for a time), arms. They have everything.

Respective strength of parties:

1. Absolute supremacy of PARTITO D'AZIONE.
2. PARTITO COMMUNISTA.
3. PATITO SOCIALISTA.

All others negligible in comparison with these.

The "Comitato di Liberazione" (meaning of course chiefly the Partito d'Azione) say that it is difficult ~~for them~~ to organise the armed men ~~in the prisons~~ because the present Italian Government has no prestige at all for the masses of the North.(20,000 of a possible 200,000 organised in LOMBARDIA).

The informant, on the other hand, says that the explanation is perhaps that a lot don't want to be organised by the PARTITO D'AZIONE as they know that the ideals of that party are directly against the King & Badoglio.

The day before the informant left Rome(Oct.27th.) a man from the SALERNO Partito d'Azione, sent by De Santis, arrived in ROME. The Signora's husband affirms that no-one in ROME knows who De Santis may be. The envoy has arrived with a W/T. set which can communicate with the Americans. He therefore tried to get military information from the Rome Partito. He said he was told "BETTER FALL INTO THE HANDS OF JERRY THAN LET THE BRITISH KNOW OF IT". The Signora's husband deems that it is his duty, however, to let us know.(Note: The informant can confirm this state of mind personally. When he first arrived at SALERNO he came into contact with a certain ROSSI of the Salerno Partito d'Azione. This man brought him to the Americans, telling him that the Americans had told ~~[illegible]~~ come to us for your liberation and not to the

1. German units and H.Q.'s, excluding the police, have orders to be out of ROME by January 15th. This move is apparently the result of a Vatican request, following the British threat to bomb the city if there were any German units inside the boundaries. Some H.Q.'s are going to FLORENCE.

2. The 10th Army has had to replace six Divisions owing to losses amounting in some units to 70%, especially in three Divisions in the Northern sector. The German territorial units at BOLZANO, UDINE, BELLUNO and TRIESTE have been sent to TUSCANY.

3. The CUNEO-BREIL line has been interrupted at FONTAN (ITALY 1:100,000 series, sheet 91, 838 115), the MODANE-TURIN at SAN ANTONINO and AVIGLIANA, the coastal line at VENTIMIGLIA and TAGGIA. The guerilla bands have no immediate opportunity to interrupt the GOTHARD and SIMPLON lines.

4. The Republican Government has formed twelve Engineer Battalions for defence workers. At the request of the Germans it is now planned to form eighteen more: eight in VENETO, six in EMILIA, two in PIEDMONT and TUSCANY, one in LOMBARDY.

5. The strength of the coastal defence on the Tyrrhenian coast is confirmed (see B.R. Report 39 of December 24th, para B.1, referring to TUSCANY). 72 batteries are emplaced. Note. Competent Italian authorities here consider that "Tyrrhenian" refers to the coast up to but excluding SPEZIA. "Batteries" according to the Italian interpretation of the word.

I should like to point out that the cause of patriotism would be served by the appointment of General BENCIVENGA as military chief in ROME. His political past makes him acceptable to the Parties and he seems disposed to accept the post and collaborate with the Comando Supremo and the Allies.

Note. The following is in reply to a message from BADOGLIO to ALPINO suggesting the appointment of SORICE as military representative of the Italian Government in the ROME area, and asking for alternative names if this appointment were considered unsuitable.

1. SORICE does not seem suitable. Being a Minister he could not be regarded as solely a military commander, and he has ties with the TOMMASSI Party which is regarded as reactionary.

2. ARMELLINI is available and appears suitable despite some critics and his defence of the Militia. CADORNA is a good soldier but of junior rank and somewhat compromised with the Partito d'Azione. I (ALPINO) have small means of judging BENCIVENGA and DALL'ORA, whom I would exclude as both are said to be Party candidates. SOGNO cannot be traced. CARACCIOLO is reported to have been arrested and AGO declines, owing to ill-health.

3. Please consider urgently.

Note. ARMELLINI is reported to be a capable soldier, a strict disciplinarian and a noted anti-Fascist. He commanded the 9th Army Corps until the fall of MUSSOLINI. He assumed command of the Militia on July 27th.

1. General CAMBARA's staff comprises the following officers: Colonels NURRA, SCALA, PACE and CACCIO, Lt. Colonels PEDERZOLI and MANISCO, Majors MAINELLA, CALAMINI, MORGANTINI and MORTARATTI, Majors of Militia (Seniori) ROSSETTI and IORI, Staff Captain CORSO.

2. CANEVARI, Assistant Chief of Staff and Liaison Officer with the Germans has been appointed General commanding Army Corps. Major FOSCHINI, Chief of the Information Services, has been given command of a division.

3. CANEVARI is attempting to form units for the Russian Front from Italians in GERMANY. CAMBARA is doing the same in ITALY. The Germans are obstructing both efforts.

4. The Parties are beginning to recognise the necessity of their bands being organised under military leadership. They are therefore aiming at having a military leader in each district who will be supported by the Parties' Committee. The Partito d'Azione is attempting to impose military leaders who share its ideals, however the general jealous reaction of the other Parties is resulting in the excellent solution of officers not connected with politics being sought. The choice of these leaders is, however, a difficult problem as so few suitable officer are available.

5. I (ALPINO) consider that guerillas will be able to do little in ITALY, but it must be done in the name of the Italian High Command. The military leaders should therefore be appointed, or confirmed in their appointments, by the High Command. This will also give them the necessary standing to meet the overtures, to which I have already referred, of the Intelligence Services.

6. In ROME the Parties' Committee does not desire to have a general appointed over it but prefers me (ALPINO) to act as its liaison link with the High Command.

7. In PIEDMONT the question has been satisfactorily settled by General OPERTI, who holds the funds of the 4th Army. I suggest extending his command to LIGURI, and later to other districts. SORICE agrees and requests that the appointment be confirmed. May I have authority to ask OPERTI for such funds as he does not need, for use in neighbouring districts?

Begins: " Dissension appears to exist among the parties (in ROME) regarding the choice of a military leader to co-ordinate and discipline the activities of the various groups in the city. It seems that SORICE is not acceptable to all. 1. Emplacements for light weapons and mountain artillery are under construction on the heights dominating the road from RUBBIENA to the MANDRIOLI pass.

2. Railway traffic through PADUA between December 4th and 9th:

(a) For MESTRE: 450 trucks loaded with aircraft spare parts, troops, armoured cars, artillery, tanks and motor transport. The last bore the markings of a white cross on a red circle and a rectangle divided by a diagonal, the top half red, the bottom white.

(b) For VERONA and MILAN: 150 trucks loaded with motor transport, partly Italian.

3. The air raid on PADUA caused 500 deaths and destroyed the railway station which will interrupt communications for a considerable time.

4. A German Staff Officer has disclosed the Germans' intention to resist to the utmost on their present positions and then on the line of the PO. If resistance is maintained until the Spring a counter-offensive will be undertaken by twenty new Divisions and 300,000 men of the Fascist Republican Army.

1. Message Received: December 21st, 1943.

(a) The plans (see B.R. Report No.30 of December 9th, para B. sub-para 6) should reach the British Military Attache at BERNE. I fear the copy sent to me (ALPINO) will not now arrive.

(b) Reports from North ITALY state that the calling up of various classes has yielded 50,000 recruits, of which 30,000 are to become S.S. troops with Italian officers but under German command. 20,000 will be formed into battalions but only armed on reaching GERMANY.

(c) No Arsenals or military stores are in Italian hands.

(d) Rail and telegraphic communications were destroyed at MASSA, and on the same night possibly bridges on the PERUGIA-AREZZO line as well. Those on the GROSSETO line present greater difficulties. Note. ALPINO was especially requested to arrange for the interruption of communications at these points.

2. Message Received: December 20th, 1943.

(a) The expected Division (see B.R. Report No.30 of December 9th, para B. sub-para 2) has reached CIVITA CASTELLANA and GALLESE from the North. It is of poor quality. Full trains are arriving at GALLESE.

(b) The Central Committee of the Christian Democrats requests that the first meeting to be held at NAPLES be announced on the radio. It asks that in accordance with the will of the people constitutional issues should only be raised when the country has been completely liberated. Although it recognises the argument that the King has been equally responsible for the politics of the Fascist regime, an argument which inspired the request for his abdication, it reaffirms the immediate necessity for a solid backing of the Government, in order to intensify the war effort, set the country on the road to reconstruction and prepare the way for constitutional reforms and a new economic and social order.

(c) From Senator MOTTA to BADOGLIO. BARATONO confirms my report regarding the differences between the various military organisations and the guerilla bands working independently or under the leadership of the Parties. These differences are greatly aggravated by the inopportune intervention of SORICE, who does not enjoy the confidence of the parties or even of military circles. The position should be clarified and an officer of high rank appointed, who would be acceptable to at least the majority of the Parties, in order to co-ordinate the actions of all formations. Note. BARATONO is a former Minister and member of the Italian Parliament.

1) The opposition of the Vatican to the establishment in ROME of the King or Government, which it considers would violate the principles of an open city.

2) The anxiety of the Vatican regarding the opposition to the Monarchy in liberated territory, and its satisfaction that the Monarchists have refused even to consider negociations.

(e) Politics should be avoided. Even opposition to the Fascists should be left to the Parties, except where it is a question of self-defence.

(f) No attempt is to be made locally to judge followers of the Republican Government who wish to play a double game. Any aid they offer is to be accepted but no promises for the future are to be made, other than that their assistance will be acknowledged.

(k) In the meantime production of value to the Germans should be sabotaged, but the maximum number of workmen should remain employed.

(l) While awaiting other funds use those belonging to the Armed Forces and request aid from private sources. Do not, however, promise repayment, only that the names of subscribers will eventually be published.

2. It is difficult to check the exact number of Divisions in ITALY owing to withdrawals, reorganisation and amalgamation, the total, however, is thought now to be 20, 9 on the Southern Front, 5 in Central Italy and 6 in the North. On the Southern Front are the following: 2 Alpine Divisions (including the 3rd), 35th, 44th, 90th, 15th and probably also the GOERING, 65th Infantry and 3rd Grenadiers. The 16th, 26th, 29th and 1st Parachute have probably been absorbed.

1. The news of the proceedings against SORIA and ARISIO is being used, with some success, as Fascist propaganda upon officers who have remained loyal to the Government.

2. It would be helpful if the King made a proclamation to the guerilla bands of soldiers. Suggest a tricolor badge of ribbon be worn by latter on coat collar. If approved broadcast message frequently and register badge at GENEVA. It will not save soldiers from being shot but will help their morale.

3. With arrival of winter situation of the bands is becoming tragic. I have distributed a few hundred thousand lire but request your answer urgently regarding my obtaining funds. American and British agents are full of money.

Instrument of Surrender of Italy

Whereas the Italian Government and the Italian Supreme Command acknowledge that the Italian forces have been totally defeated and that Italy can no longer carry on the war against the United Nations and have accordingly unconditionally requested a suspension of hostilities.

And whereas the United States and United Kingdom Governments acting on behalf of the United Nations are willing to lay down the terms on which they are prepared to suspend hostilities against Italy so long as their military operations against Germany and her Allies are not obstructed, and that Italy does not assist these powers in any way and complies with requirements of these Governments.

The following terms have been presented by.....duly authorized to that effect, and have been accepted by.....representing the Supreme Command of the Italian Land, Sea and Air Forces, and duly authorized to that effect by the Italian Government.

1. (A) The Italian Land, Sea and Air Forces wherever located, hereby surrender unconditionally.

(B) Italian participation in the war in all Theatres will cease immediately. There will be no opposition to landings, movements or other operations of the Land, Sea and Air Forces of the United Nations. Accordingly, the Italian Supreme Command will order the immediate cessation of hostilities of any kind against the Forces of the United Nations and will direct the Italian Navy, Military and Air Force authorities in all Theatres to issue forthwith the appropriate instructions to those under their Command.

(C) The Italian Supreme Command will further order all Italian Naval, Military and Air Forces or authorities and personnel to refrain immediately from destruction of or damage to any real or personal property, whether public or private.

2. The Italian Supreme Command will give full information concerning the disposition and condition of all Italian Land, Sea and Air Forces, wherever they are situated and of all such forces of Italy's Allies as are situated in Italian or Italian occupied territory.

3. The Italian Supreme Command will take the necessary measures to secure airfields, port facilities and all other installations against seizure or attack by any of Italy's Allies. The Italian Supreme Command will take the necessary measures to insure Law and Order, and to use its available armed forces to insure prompt and exact compliance with all the provisions of the present instrument. Subject to such use of Italian troops for the above purposes, as may be sanctioned by the Allied Commander-in-Chief, all other Italian Land, Sea and Air Forces will proceed to and remain in their barracks, camps or ships pending directions from the United Nations as to their future status and disposal. Exceptionally such Naval personnel shall proceed to shore establishments as the United Nations may direct.

4. Italian Land, Sea and Air Forces will within the periods to be laid down by the United Nations withdraw from all areas outside Italian territory notified to the Italian Government by the United Nations and proceed to areas to be specified by

1. General GAMBARA's staff comprises the following officers: Colonels NURRA, SCALA, PACE and CACCIO, Lt. Colonels PEDERZOLI and MANISCO, Majors MAINELLA, GALAMINI, MORGANTINI and MORTARATTI, Majors of Militia (Seniori) ROSSETTI and IORI, Staff Captain CORSO.

2. CANEVARI, Assistant Chief of Staff and Liaison Officer with the Germans has been appointed General commanding Army Corps. Major FOSCHINI, Chief of the Information Services, has been given command of a division.

3. CANEVARI is attempting to form units for the Russian front from Italians in GERMANY. GAMBARA is doing the same in ITALY. The Germans are obstructing both efforts.

4. The Parties are beginning to recognise the necessity of their bands being organised under military leadership. They are therefore aiming at having a military leader in each district who will be supported by the Parties' Committee. The Partito d'Azione is attempting to impose military leaders who share its ideals, however the general jealous reaction of the other Parties is resulting in the excellent solution of officers not connected with politics being sought. The choice of these leaders is, however, a difficult problem as so few suitable officers are available.

5. I (ALPINO) consider that guerillas will be able to do little in ITALY, but it must be done in the name of the Italian High Command. The military leaders should therefore be appointed, or confirmed in their appointments, by the High Command. This will also give them the necessary standing to meet the overtures, to which I have already referred, of the Intelligence Service.

6. In ROME the Parties' Committee does not desire to have a general appointed over it but prefers me (ALPINO) to act as its liaison link with the High Command.

7. In PIEDMONT the question has been satisfactorily settled by General OPERTI, who holds the funds of the 4th Army. I suggest extending his command to LIGURI, and later to other districts. SORICE agrees and requests that the appointment be confirmed. May I have authority to ask OPERTI for such funds as he does not need, for use in neighbouring districts?

A. The following is the reply to our request for indications of the most vulnerable points in the rail and road communications in the quadrilateral ESTONIO, PESCARA, GAETA, ROME.

1. The concrete viaduct with seven arches (muratura sette luci), between TORRICOLA and FORMIA, on the ROME-FORMIA line.

2. The two steel bridges over the river GARIGLIANO between SERVI and MINTURNI, on ROME-CASSINO line.

3. The steel bridge over the river LIRI between CERVARO and ISOLETTA, on the ROME-CASSINO line.

4. The viaduct with nine arches between CINETO and ROVIANO, on the ROME-SULMONA line.

5. The viaduct with fifteen arches between PRATOLA and CARPITO, on the ROME-SULMONA line.

6. The steel bridge over the river PESCARA between MANOPPELLO and ALANNO, on the PESCARA-SULMONA line.

7. The steel bridge over the river MORO between ORTONA and SAN VITO, on the PESCARA-TERMOLI line.

8. The flat metal bridge with five arches (travata metallica cinque campate) between ARPINO and ISOLA LIRI on the ROCCASECCA-AVEZZANO line.

9. The Viaduct over the river LIRI between SAN VINCENZO and CIVITADANTINO, on the ROCCASECCA-AVEZZANO line.

B. The air raid during the second week of November on the station at FONTASSIEVE caused only temporary interruption of railway communications. The important target is the bridge over the river ARNO near SANSEPOLCRO.

C. Italian industry is resisting German exploitation by reducing production to a minimum. To this end air raid warnings are useful; the bombardment of industry is, however, unnecessary, providing the interruption of railway traffic across the frontier is maintained. The destruction of factories is even harmful since it results in the workers dismissed allowing themselves, through lack of a livelihood, to be recruited by the Germans.

D. Certain industries could be paralysed if you would indicate to us some vital part (for example ball-bearings) of a weapon, vehicle, etc. We would then arrange for the production of this particular part to be sabotaged.

FROM M . THE PROPOSALS OF BONOMI OF THE 20th OCTOBER WERE A KOL VERY CLEAR COMPROMISE BETWEEN THE RIGHT AND THE LEFT. BOTH ARE DISCONTENTED AND ARE RENOUNCING IT. THE UNITY OF THE COMITTEE IS NOW IN DOUBT. THE SOCIALISTS TEND TO UNITE WITH THE RIGHT As for the OTHER PARTIES IN THE COURSE OF BEING FORMED AFFIRMING THAT NATIONAL UNITY CAN ONLY BE FOUND IN ORDER AND ISOLATING THE "PARITO D'AZIONE WHICH THOUGH STILL VERY ACTIVE IS COMPOSED OF GENERALS WITHOUT SOLDIERS...FOLLOWS.
