Subject : Asti - Electoral Operations - Inspective Service

- 1) The Prefect of Asti, while confirming that the trend of the electoral operations in the single Communes of the province is quite satisfactory, has pointed out the impossibility of arranging inspections owing to the fact that the two motorcars assigned to the Electoral Office, are without tyres.
- 2) Taking into account the progressive rhythm of the works and, therefore, of the necessity it should be closely followed in relation to the approaching convocation of the administrative electoral meeting, you are kindly requested to please examine the above mentioned difficulty for a possible assignment of the required tyres.

REPORT NO. 196

SUBJECT: Interview with Major George R. Kozman, PO of Asti
Major R. Derian, Provincial Legal Officer
Avv. Luigi CORONA, Italian assistant to legal officer
Dott. Saverio DE LUCA, VFI and in charge of electoral lists and an official from the Electoral Office

TO : Director, Local Government Sub Commission

FROM : Captain W. I. Cunningham

1. I was not able to see the Prefect who had gone to a Regional Conference but I had a long and interesting discussion with the various officers and officials set out above. Avv. CORONA has been assisting Major Derian and keeping a special eye on election lists. Major Derian is legal officer for Alessandria also and CORONA takes care of the Asti office in his absence. The PO has a high opinion of CORONA who has been a good legal adviser and recommends him highly as assistant and interpreter to any officer who may be left in the North to supervise the preparation of the lists. (See recommendation by PO on Asti file, page 22). CORONA speaks English well and acted as interpreter during my interview. He also appears to have the details of the electoral procedure at his finger tips.

2. The PO has a high opinion of the Prefect, Ing. Enzo CIOCHERO, who is one of the finest men in Italy. He is a good administrator and gets things done. He was a Partisan leader and organizer and is the choice of the Provincial CLN for Prefect. He is only 35 years old but the PO says he is definitely the proper man for Asti and should be kept on by the Italian Government when AM goes. The Prefect speaks and writes English well. He is a member of the Demo-Christian Party (which is the strongest party in Asti) with decidedly liberal views.

3. Avv. Stefano LORREMI is a career official. The PO says he is a good administrator and one of the few strong career officials. He has been very useful in establishing the administration.

4. Dott. Saverio DE LUCA is also a career official. He is a good official and knows his job but has no push or initiative and just does what he is told to do. I saw the VFI and think he is above the average for Italian officials. He appears to have the production of the electoral lists well in hand.

5. Other officials. There is only one career Consigliere. The Prefect had written to Rome about two months ago for another but had not got any reply. Another Consigliere is essential and if possible one who has had experience as a Capo Gabinetto would be preferred. I promised to pass this on to the Ministry of Interior and try to get some action.

6. Deputazione Provinciale was established on 5th June and was meeting regularly. There are 6 members and 2 supplenti.

7. GPA. The four citizen members of the GPA were appointed on 8th June, and it was meeting as and when required.

8. There is a Giunta Comunale and a Sindaco in each of the 105 Comuni in the Province. They appear to be functioning well.

but I had a long and interesting discussion with the various officials set out above. VV. CORONA has been assisting Major Dorian and keeping a special eye on election lists. Major Dorian is legal officer for Alessandra also and CORONA takes care of the Asti office in his absence. The RO has a high opinion of CORONA who has been a good legal adviser and recommends him highly as assistant and interpreter to any officer who may be left in the north to supervise the preparation of the lists. (See recommendation by RO on Asti file, page 22). CORONA speaks English well and acted as interpreter during my interview. 2. The RO has a high opinion of the Prefect, Ing. Enzo GIACCHERO, who is one of the finest men in Italy. He is a good administrator and gets things done. He was a Partisan leader and organizer and is the choice of the Provincial CDM for Prefect. He is only 35 years old but the RO says he is definitely the proper man for Asti and should be kept on by the Italian Government when AMG goes. The Prefect speaks and writes English well. He is a member of the Demo-Christian Party (which is the strongest party in Asti) with decidedly liberal views.

3. YV. avv. Stefano LONCHI is a career official. The RO says he is a good administrator and one of the few strong career officials. He has been very useful in establishing the administration.

4. VFI. Dott. Evario DI LUCA is also a career official. He is a good official and knows his job but has no push or initiative and just does what he is told to do. I saw the VFI and think he is above the average for Italian officials. He appears to have the production of the electoral lists well in hand.

5. Other officials. There is only one career Comaglieiro. The Prefect had written to Rome about two months ago for another but had not got any reply. Another Comaglieiro is essential and if possible one who has had experience as a Capo Gabinetto would be preferred. I promised to pass this on to the Ministry of Interior and try to get some action.

6. Deputazione Provinciale was established on 5th June and was meeting regularly. There are 6 members and 2 supplenti.

7. CDM. The four citizen members of the CDM were appointed on 8th June, and it was meeting as and when required.

8. There is a Giunte Comunale and a Sindaco in each of the 105 Comuni in the Province. They appear to be functioning well. 2323

9. Segretari Comunali. There are 62 career segretari and 28 non-career segretari and all Comunes are looked after properly. Some are too small to warrant a full-time segretario and are being taken care of by segretari from neighboring Comunes.

10. CMH. There has been no trouble from the Provincial CDM. Their advice had been sought and acted upon and they had representation on the Deputazione. They were cooperative and the President had himself gone out to a few Comunes where the local CDM was causing trouble and brought them into line.

11. Preparation of the electoral lists. The first lot of forms had all been received and distributed to the Communes in good time and the work had started on the appointed day. The second lot of forms had now been received and would be divided up and distributed as soon as the decisions have been taken as to the number of "Sezioni Elettorali" in each Commune. The IC will assist with transport if necessary.
 12. Many of the Communes had completed the "Elenco" and forwarded the extracts to the various Casellari Giudiziali. They anticipated some delay in getting replies from the Casellari in other provinces. There is only one Casellario in Asti Province and it is in perfect order.
 13. Extensions of time. Only 4 Communes have asked for an extension of time. In each case the Central records have been destroyed and an extension of 30 days has been granted. The Electoral officers are satisfied that the work is going on well and that there will be no delays. The VPI was having some difficulty about finding transportation to get round the Communes largely because he was content to wait until a car was put at his disposal. The VPI should have a car always at his disposal, especially at present. The IC said he would get the Prefect to take the necessary action.
 14. Electoral Commissions. Nominations had been received in most cases and all the names would be in in about a week's time. The matter is well in hand and the Commission would be set up well before 20th August.
 15. Nomination. The Provincial Commission was established and functioning.
 16. From the point of view of local government and the preparation of electoral lists, the situation in Asti Province seems to be very good. All the proper agencies have been established correctly and are functioning properly. The only requirement is one Consigliere and this is being taken up with the Ministry of Interior urgently.

1. Reference is made to your letter of 31 July 1945, File PR/ESG/014.2 with enclosure. In cases where the boundaries of the judicial "mandamenti" do not coincide with the administrative jurisdiction of the Province, the Prefect is authorized by para 3, Article 11, of Ministerial Decree of 24 October 1944, to make the necessary modifications, fixing by his own Decree the jurisdiction of the Electoral Commission.

2. The Ministry of the Interior states that cases of the type which the Prefect of Asti mentions are not unusual and that the Ministry invariably advises the Prefect to make the necessary modifications, pursuant to the authority given them by the afore-mentioned article. In other words, the Prefect may himself determine what Communes within his Province may fall within the jurisdiction of the various Electoral Commissions that are set up.

Translation - MEMORANDUM

Provincial Electoral Office.

14 July 45.

Subject: Composition of mandamental electoral Commission

To the PROVINCIAL COMMISSIONER of the A.M.G.
ASTI

As per art. 11 of D.M. 24 October 1944 the Electoral Commissions are competent on all mandamental Communes on which they are appointed, except the power given to the Prefect from the last but one paragraph of same art. 11 to determine the competence of each Commission not according to the judiciary jurisdiction, only when the difficulty of location and of communications were making it advisable.

No power, on the contrary, is attributed by the law to the Prefects to modify the mandamental judiciary jurisdictions in those cases on which, as it happens for the Province of Asti, such jurisdictions do not coincide with the administrative one.

In fact:

The judiciary mandament of Moncalvo is formed from the following communes: Moncalvo, Cunico, Grazzano Badoglio, Montiglio, Penango, Scandeluzza e Tonco, which belong to the Administrative Jurisdiction of Asti Province and of the Communes such as: Alfiano Natta, Castelletto Merli, Cereseto, Cerrina, Mombello Monferrato, Murisengo, Oddalengo Grande, Oddalengo Piccolo, Ottilio, Ponzano Monferrato, Sala Monferrato, Serralunga di Crea, Villadeati, which belong to the Administrative Jurisdiction of Alessandria Province.

The judiciary Mandament of Nizza Monferrato includes the Commune of Bergamasco which belong to the Administrative Jurisdiction of Alessandria Province.

The judiciary Mandament of Asti Province, on the contrary, does not include the Communes of Albugnano d'Asti, Buttigliera, Castelnovo Don Bosco e Moncucco Torinese which, though situated in Asti Province, depend judicially from the Praetura of Chieri (Turin).

As things stand, the Prov. Deputation of Asti, for the appointments of members of Electoral Commissions for the Mandaments of Nizza and Moncalvo, could not evidently choose representative elements of those Communes of the two Mandaments which belong to Alessandria; and so: the Prov. Deputation of Turin could not for the Chieri Mandament appoint representative elements taken from the Communes which belong to Asti.

Owing, however, the difference of the two jurisdictions and of the difficulty which practically would come up, would be necessary that the above mentioned three mandamental jurisdictions could be modified (only as far as the composition of the Electoral Commissions are concerned) so as to make them coincide with the provincial administrative jurisdiction, and that could take place easily if the Allied Military Government has no objection to it, the Prefects of the three interested Provinces would take the necessary steps to agreements on the matter.
