MINUTE SHEET NO. 1

DATE	PAGE
Jan. 29	1 to 2.
C. A. Section 1. The papers in this file relate to certain correspondence (brought to notice by Civil Censorship) between FLORES, Chief of Cabinet to the Presidency of the Council of Ministers and GALATA, Prefect of Ricci. The papers disclose FLORES recommending one ANGELELLI, a thorough-going fascist, for the post of Commissioner of the Fondazione Sabine Rapolli. 2. This S/C is only concerned with the action of its Prefect, GALATA. He seems to have behaved quite correctly in drawing FLORES' attention to his protégé's fascist background & in rejecting the nomination accordingly. 3. FLORES is not within the province of this S/C. In any way with to note his part in the incident, as an instance of the value to be attached to any other recommendations he might make. 4. ANGELELLI appears to be a private individual with some agricultural interests. The appointment he did not get appears also to relate to some agricultural institution or firm. It might be desirable to let Agricultural S/C see the papers. Tel - 478190. Rel. [Signature] for Director, L. G. S/C

1. The allegations of fascist activities have been found to be correct in all details.

2. Flores acted in good faith and had no knowledge of ANGELELLI's past other than a very misleading report supplied by ANGELELLI himself (copy attached).

3. Flores made the request on the strength of a recommendation made by a Colonel BALSAMO, Via Tirso 101. This man was formerly personal private secretary to Badoglio.

Pro memoria written and signed by ANGELELLI and submitted to Mr. FLORES.

It is necessary to appoint a "Commisario to the Fondazione Sabina Papoli". The Commisario must not have any contact with state bodies or with the Ministry of Agriculture. The Commisario will increase the incomes of the firm by practical and economical means, employing only the necessary personnel, and giving a sure income every year. It is suggested to not appoint another official, already filling a post, in order not to do the same mistake of the Fascism when one person used to accumulate so many posts. For the appointment of the Commisario to "Fondazione Papoli" is suggested G.R. UFF. ANGELELLI Attilio, a Senior officer of the Army, who took active part, as a patriot, to the War of Liberation in the Lazio Region.
