A.P.O. 394.

1. The U.A.O. of CITTA DI CASTELLO reports that in the town is an Italian officer named General CORSI.
2. It is understood that General CORSI was formerly employed by the War Office in ROME in a responsible position, but was afterwards relegated to a less important position on account of his Anti-Fascist tendencies.
3. If this person is of any interest to A.C.C., will you please notify this H.Q. and arrangements will be made for him to report as you may direct.
