REPORT NO. 195

SUBJECT: Interview with Major Gardiner, Acting IC, Cuneo Province

Capt. J. More, Provincial Legal Officer

Avv. Guido VERRONE, Prefetto Reggente

Conte Dott. Guido CIBRARIO, Vice Prefect Vicario

Secretary to the Prefect and an official of the Electoral Office.

1. Cuneo is the largest and probably the most difficult Province to administer in Italy. It has 206 Communes and the roads run out like spokes of a wheel from Cuneo in the centre. There are no cross roads as it is impossible to make a reasonable tour of the Communes. There are only three Provincial Officers and it is very difficult for them to get around. Major Gardiner had just taken over as Acting IC the day before my visit.

2. Prefect. Avv. Guido VERRONE is the nominee of the CLM and was appointed on 1st June 1945 by ALG as Prefetto Reggente. He belongs to the Liberal Party. I was not impressed by the Prefect who appears to me to be a rather ineffective little man. He has little drive and seems to rely a lot on the VPV. On the other hand, the IC says he is honest and that there has been no trouble with the CLM while he has been in office.

3. VPV. Dott. Guido CIBRARIO is a career official. He seems a good official and appears to be the Prefect's right hand man.

4. VFI. Ernesto MONTENAPOLI is a Ragioniere Capo acting as VFI.

5. Other officials. The position is as set out in Form "A". The Prefect is quite definite that he does not require any senior officials. He can fill any other vacancies locally.

6. Deputazione Provinciale. The members have not been nominated yet in spite of pressure from the IC. The Prefect promised to let the IC have the names today and said that the first meeting would take place in 10 or 12 days. I stressed the importance of this and pointed out that the CPA could not be appointed until the Deputazione met. The Prefect agreed that the appointment of the CPA would be decided at the first meeting.

7. Giunta Comunale were established in every Comune. They had been nominated by the CLM and approved or disapproved by the Prefect as necessary.

8. Sindaci were in all Communes. They had been nominated by local CLMs and, if approved, appointed by the Prefect's decree. A few had resigned recently and were being replaced.

3. VFF. Dott. Guido GIBRARIO is a career official. He seems a good official and appears to be the Prefect's right hand man.

4. VFI. Ernesto MONTAMURRI is a Ragionero Capo acting as VFI.

5. Other officials. The position is as set out in Form "A". The Prefect is quite definite that he does not require any senior officials. He can fill any other vacancies locally.

6. Deputazione Provinciale. The members have not been nominated yet in spite of pressure from the PC. The Prefect promised to let the PC have the names today and said that the first meeting would take place in 10 or 12 days. I stressed the importance of this and pointed out that the CPA could not be appointed until the Deputazione met. The Prefect agreed that the appointment of the CPA would be decided at the first meeting.

7. Giunte Comunali were established in every Comune. They had been nominated by the CIN and approved or disapproved by the Prefect as necessary.

8. Sindaci were in all Communes. They had been nominated by local CINs and, if approved, appointed by the Prefect's decree. A few had resigned recently and were being replaced.

9. Sécretari Comunali. Every Comune was being looked after by a Segretario Comunale. There were 102 career Segretari and 23 non-career ones who were all trained in law. The small Communes had one Segretario looking after two Communes.

10. Preparation of Electoral Lists. The first lot of forms had arrived and been distributed in good time and the work had commenced on the 15th July. The PC had supplied the transportation necessary for the distribution. The second lot of forms for the preparation of the sectional lists had just arrived. The PC asked the Prefect to let him know how much transport would be required, and when, and he would provide it. Most Communes had already sent their lists to the Casellari Giudiziali.

11. Extensions of time. About 48 Communes had asked for extensions. We had a long discussion about this. About 20 Communes had their records destroyed and three were occupied by the French until 10th July. The others wanted extensions on account of the "work involved" or the "local situation". I stated that I did not think these latter reasons would be sufficient to obtain a grant. The extensions asked for, however, were surprisingly short--10 to 15 days.

12. Casellari Giudiziali. There are two--one at Cuneo and one at Alba--both are in good order and the records are intact. The Prefect, however, seemed to anticipate delay here as he said they had not sufficient officials and the salaries offered were not such as to attract suitable persons. The PO said that he and the PIO had had an interview with the Procuratore del Regno and they did not think there would be any delay. Incidentally, I have found that most officials in connection with the preparation of the electoral lists are much more inclined to concentrate on possible causes of delay outside their control than to strive to stick to the portions of the time-table which are solely their responsibility.

13. The Prefect has adopted a similar expedient to that described by the Deputy Director in Brescia Province. The Province has been divided into 29 Zones and a special Inspector--one of the career Segretari Comunal--has been appointed for each Zone to keep an eye on the preparation of the lists and to report to the VPI when he comes round. I told the Prefect I considered this an excellent idea, especially in such a large Province as Cuneo.

14. The Provincial Deputation Commission is functioning. The Prefect said there were too few members to deal with the cases on hand. The PO asked for the names of further members and he and the Legal Officer are looking into the conditions of their appointment.

15. With the exception of the appointment of the Deputazione Provinciale and the GPA, local government appears to be functioning well in the province of Cuneo. The preparation of the electoral lists appears to be well in hand and I do not think there will be any delay in that connection. I told the PO these opinions and stressed the importance of the Deputazione and the GPA.
