I do not myself feel that a formation such as AC affords the necessary basis for an association such as appears to be envisaged.

③

I hate discussing things "in vacuo". If the "sponsors" of the proposed Association indicated what the purposes they had in mind were, I'd be able to comment. In America, you know, practically every body belongs to some organization. From Societies for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals to Birth Control leagues (some people think there two are the same). It is the easiest thing in the world to supply the basis of any group - just look at the Betty Grable Club, and as long as more than 2 people agree on it you've got an organization. "Esprit de Corps"? Hope! Charity? Vain? - all elements. But here I go, Colonel, writing a discourse on some thing or about which I seek further information. Happy New Year!
