AG/9/4/TC

Vol: 47(39)

SUBJECT: Translation of Italian mail.

5 September 1945

TO : AMG Venezia Giulia.

1. The undermentioned 2 letters, addressed to the Prefect of Trieste, have been forwarded to this Sub Commission by the Ministry of the Interior for onward translation:

No. 32265/3511 Gabinetto, dated 28 August (and enclosure)
No. 5000-1 Dir. Gen. Personale, dated 30 August (and enclosure)

They are enclosed herewith for transmission to the Prefect, if you see no objection to that being done.

2. The first mentioned letter merely forwards a copy (apparently in response to a telegram from the Prefect requesting it) of DL. 27 July 1944, No. 159, which is the basic Decree in the Italian law to sanctions against Fascism. This HQ has no objection to the Prefect's having a copy of this Decree for his information: but it seems advisable to emphasise to him that this and the subsequent Italian Decrees on "defascistization" are NOT law in this province.

3. The second letter merely requests a return of the official personnel on the strength of the Trieste Prefecture, including those on military service. It would seem useful to allow the Italian Government to have this information as it would help them to make use of the personnel elsewhere, some of whom (it is understood) cannot be usefully employed in Trieste in present circumstances.

4. As the 2 letters are matters that are routine, it has not been thought necessary to trouble you with translations.

SUBJECT: Municipal Secretary - CAPECCHI Dino-
Order of disqualification from holding the office owing to epuration - Claim.-

Capecchi Dino pointed out that he was disqualificated from holding the office of Municipal Secretary of Massa e Cozzile , Buggiano Communes and he applied for countermanding the order for the following reasons:

He was member of Fascist Party since 1932, when all the public official were compelled to enter the Fascism.

He was also a member of Republic Fascist Party as the German troops and the Fascists compelled him in a threatening manners, but he enclosed a statement issued by the Commissario Prefettizio of Buggiano Commune, in which it is stated that Capecchi Dino was compelled to have his name recorded in the Fascist Party. Notwithstanding he helped the Comitato di Liberazione Nazionale, taking away armies, munitions, victuals from a barrack of Fascist Army. And he always showed his hostile feelings for the Germans who were located in the Municipal premises of Buggiano. He was told by the Authority that they have not detailed informations or heavy evidence against him.

He asked for an inquiry into the matter in order to obtain the countermamding of the order

Declassified E.O. 12356 Section 3.3/NND No. 785021

Poggio Sanniter, 1/8/1945

The writer is Palomba Ottavio -

He states that on the 18th-12-1943 he was appointed Guardia Municipale in his Commune by the Allied Commander of the zone of Agnone.

The Mayor on ex fascist high officer, has suddenly and without reason dismissed him.

Said mayor has been eanght in fault several himes and the Prefect ordered him to leave the office service but he never did; he organized demostration with other fascist elemts, to reconfirm his appointment.

The writer applies to the A.C. for help in getting a job.

0845

Declassified E.O. 12356 Section 3.3/NND No. 785021

The writer states he has been useful to the Allied Forces whan they landed in Calabria. His father was killed beh the fascists, the whole family being anti-fascist. He has been looking for a job, but never applied to the Allies. He made application to the ministry for employment but had no reply. He asks to be helped in being employed.

He doesn't know English,
