TO : Regional Civil Affairs Officer, Region II

1. Reference previous correspondence and to your RCLC's letter of the 11th January (Ref. 2201/18/122).
2. The English translation of the General Order has been considered and revised. The order in its revised (English) form has been approved by the Chief Legal Officer and is returned herewith.
3. It will be observed that the names of official bodies appear in Italian. It is felt that the regular use of the proper name will contribute to the desired uniformity and prevent any possibility of the confusion which experience suggests can arise when endeavours are made to give an English equivalent when this may or may not connote some slight difference of meaning.
4. It will be seen also that the text of the order proper reads in the future tense. As we are aware, the present tense is customarily used in Italian statutes and appears in the Italian version of the order. The change has been made in our translation to effect the known equivalent in English form.
5. In a recent interview with ECAO, Foggia Province, he asked for some definition of "office in the Fascist Party" appearing in the last line of para 7 of the order. This subject is dealt with exhaustively in the Directive issued by Operations and Security Intelligence of the 4th December, Ref; "Screening of Italian Officials."
6. It is requested that arrangements shall now be made for the order to be put into effect throughout the Region as soon as possible.

HEADQUARTERS
INTERIOR SUB-COMMISSION

20 January 1944

SUBJECT: Regional Order.

TO : Vice President, Economic Administrative Section.

1. Attached order, together with explanatory Administrative Instructions, for issuance to SCAsOs, Region II, was approved by the DCCAO on 5 January 1944, and forwarded to RCO O, Region II.

2. RCO Region II has issued the Administrative Instructions but RCIO Region II has requested Legal Sub-Commission for a clarification of the text of the order. This request has been transmitted to this Sub-Commission for comment.

3. The text of the order, both in English and Italian, was drafted by Region I, HQ, and was issued in that Region as Official Order No. 25, 11/11/43. On the basis of this order, local government reorganization in Sicily has been carried through to completion in the 9 provinces comprising Region I.

4. To secure the desired uniformity of local government reorganization in Region II with that already effected in Region I, the text of the order sent to Region II is identical with that previously issued in Region I.

5. Following explanatory comments are submitted:

(a) Structure and functions of local government are covered by a basic Italian law, the so-called Unified Text of 1915. The order is to be read and construed in conjunction with this basic law.

(b) Italian text of the order was designed to effect the desired reorganization with a minimum of change in, or addition to, the basic Unified Text of 1915. It has proved to be workable and clearly understandable to Italian local government officials in Region I.

(c) English text of the order is a translation from the Italian. It is awkwardly worded and could be restated in clearer language. A proposed restatement, to meet the objections raised by RCLC Region II, is appended hereto (Appendix A-Revised). If this restatement is approved, it is recommended that it be forwarded to RCIO Region II in substitution for the English text of the original order.

(d) In Italian statutes, the present tense is customarily used instead of the future or the imperative to effect an instruction or command. Thus, the Italian draft states, for example: "The Mayor is appointed by the Prefect . . ." instead of "The Mayor shall be appointed by the Prefect . . ." In lieu of a literal translation, the restatement substitutes the more customary English equivalent for the Italian present tense. This should meet RCLC's objection that the original draft was not "in the form of an Order".

To :- Chief Legal Officer, Legal Sub-Com. AMG Naples.

1. The attached draft RO has been received by the R.C.A.G. Region 2 with instructions for its provisions to be put into effect. The copy in English was received as typed. It would appear to be an attempt at a translation from the copy in Italian, but upon examination is found to be inaccurate as such. It is not altogether even in the form of an Order, and more particularly, it is submitted with respect, that the language is in part unintelligible.

2. It would be appreciated if the order may be revised, since it is felt it could not be issued in its present form.

Let's let Coffro be asked to have our 45/8 draft aff'd ~~aff'd.~~ for issue to (24 January)

2. Col. Spicer: Regn II. wishes to go back to his office, beginning
I. II for info. Mostato Foglia ^{1/10/12}
1. I have read the draft prepared by RCO Regn II and compared it with the revised draft prepared in our office and approved by legal but - can't.

2. The two drafts are almost identical, except that our draft contains certain minor points that were included as a result of careful re-reading of the original Italian text (e.g. for example, the phrase "the political conscience of the people" in the 2nd para of the Preamble. This phrase was somehow omitted from the original English translation).

3. Instead of attempting to translate the names of official bodies like the Junta, the Councils, and the Deputies, into English, we have preserved their Italian names in the translated text in order (1) to avoid any possible confusion as to which body is referred to and (2) to accustom SCAD's to seeing the Italian designations referring to these bodies.

4. Since our draft has already been approved by legal,
I suggested that it be adopted and issued to Regn II, as well as other Regns, including Regn I.

5. Regn II's suggested short form version of the Preamble does not contain sufficient explanatory material to clarify 685, the text of the order itself. It is recommended that it be not accepted.

HQ'S QUARTERS

45/7
(D) 20 January 1944

SUBJECT: Regional Order.

TO : Vice President, Economic Administrative Section.

1. Attached order, together with explanatory Administrative Instructions, for issuance to SCNOs, Region II, was approved by the DCCAO on 5 January 1944, and forwarded to RGA O, Region II.

2. RGAO Region II has issued the Administrative Instructions but RGAO Region II has requested Legal Sub-Commission for a clarification of the text of the order. This request has been transmitted to this Sub-Commission for comment.

3. The text of the order, both in English and Italian, was drafted by Region I, HQ, and was issued in that Region as Official Order No. 25, 11/11/43. On the basis of this order, local government reorganization in Sicily has been carried through to completion in the 9 provinces comprising Region I.

4. To secure the desired uniformity of local government reorganization in Region II with that already effected in Region I, the text of the order sent to Region II is identical with that previously issued in Region I.

5. Following explanatory comments are submitted:

(a) Structure and functions of local government are covered by a basic Italian law, the so-called Unified Text of 1915. The order is to be read and construed in conjunction with this basic law.

(b) Italian text of the order was designed to effect the desired reorganization with a minimum of change in, or addition to, the basic Unified Text of 1915. It has proved to be workable and clearly understandable to Italian local government officials in Region I.

(c) English text of the order is a translation from the Italian. It is awkwardly worded and could be restated in clearer language. A proposed restatement, to meet the objections raised by RCLC Region II, is appended hereto (Appendix A-Revised). If this restatement is approved, it is recommended that it be forwarded to RCLC Region II in substitution for the English text of the original order.
