HEADQUARTERS
ALLIED CONTROL COMMISSION
INTERIOR SUB COMMISSION
APO 394

14 July 1944

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Signor M. MARCHESIello, Salvatore has been employed by the Allied Control Commission and with the Interior Sub-Commission, of which I am Director.

During the months of employment, Signor MARCHESIello has shown sobriety, swiftness to handle intricacies of filing and carding, and a willingness to work.

During this time he has demonstrated a dependable, industrious, cheerful, and friendly nature.

However much I would have liked Signor MARCHESIello to accompany this Sub-Commission to its new Headquarters, this was not possible to him because moving would have interfered with his studies at the R. Università di Napoli.

I would unhesitatingly recommend Signor MARCHESIello for position in any Allied office.

GREEN THOUGHTS
by John Collier

The orchid had been sent among the effects of his friend, who had come by a lonely and mysterious death on the expedition. Or he had bought it among a miscellaneous lot of "unclassified", at the close of the auction. I forget which, but one or the other it certainly was; moreover, even in its dry, brown, dormant root state, this orchid had a certain sinister quality. It looked, with its bunched and ragged projections, like a huge dead insect, or a rigid yet a gripping hand, hideously gnarled, or a gratesquely whiskered, threatening face. Would you not have known what sort of an orchid it was?

Mr. Mannering did not know. He read nothing but catalogues and books on fertilizers. He unpecked the new acquisitions with a solicitude absurd enough in any case towards any orchid, or primrose either, in the twentieth century, but idiotic, fool-hardy, doom-eager, when extended to an orchid thus come by, in appearance thus. And in his traditional obtuseness he at once placed it in what he called "the Observation Ward", facetious fellow, a hof-house built against the south wall of his dumpy red dwelling. Here he set always the most interesting additions to his collections

① Says he can translate documents. WTF

② Types at the hunt and peer system - slowly - but carefully.

3335

③ Speaks English fairly intelligibly -
WTF, of course, with grammatical correctness.
