REGIONAL ORDER)

NUMBER 19)

3 March 1944

In virtue of powers conferred on me, I, CHARLES POLETTI, Lt Colonel,
Regional Commissioner, Region 3.

ORDER

1. A civilian must not obtain a permit from an officer of the Allied Military Government to travel on foot, vehicle or train from or to any point within the provinces of Benevento, Avellino and Salerno, south of the rear boundaries of the Allied Armies.

2. A civilian desiring to travel for the purchase of foodstuffs or other goods which are not subject to mass control need no longer obtain a permit from an officer of Allied Military Government provided the movement is restricted to the area described in paragraph 1.

3. If the movement is for the purchase of such foodstuffs or goods in places outside such area, application for permit must be made as follows:

Within province of Naples at the Ufficio Centrale di Controllo dell'Alimentazione, Palazzo della Borsa, Naples.

Within the province of Benevento and Avellino at the offices of the Provincial Commissioner of Allied Military Government.

4. Each civilian, however, must obey all restrictions imposed by the Allied Armies or Allied Military Government as to travel on a particular road or railroad or the crossing of a river or the hours of such travel.

5. Each civilian leaving Naples City or any commune where typhus control has been imposed must first obtain the appropriate certificate indicating that he has been properly tested.

6. Violations of this order will be punished in the courts of Allied Military Government.

This order becomes effective on March 10, 1944.
