SUBJECT: Report dated 6 January.

TO : Major J. McSweeney, Liaison Officer.

1. Received and noted with interest.
2. I should have liked to have received early notice, by telephone if necessary, of the meeting re the "Tamburro" affair.
3. The question of the title of officials appointed by AMG is a high level one and as liaison officer, it would be well not to express an opinion, but to forward such a question to the HQ for ruling.

7. 2nd Lt. Ziegler could not possibly know anything about Interior and the Royal Italian Government. He was assigned to an entirely different sphere.

8. I had no idea until your letter of 3rd January that you had contact at Brindisi with Lt. Col. POLLETTI and that he had given you orders. Such a meeting and the purport of such orders should certainly have been conveyed to me.
