SUBJECT : Spy and Sabotage Cases.

TO : The Chief Legal Officer

The following is a report of the Review Board on 29 spy cases involving 39 spies, 3 sabotage cases involving 5 saboteurs, and 2 cases where accused were both convicted of doing an act in aid of the enemy. Although most of the accused are spies, all are guilty of espionage or war treason offences. In the sabotage cases, the accused were caught before they had completed their missions. There is no question about their intent to commit acts of sabotage. They had the necessary explosives etc; in their possession. The sabotage cases are very similar to the spy cases where the spy was caught as he or she was entering our lines and before any work had been accomplished. The offences these accused committed, or attempted to commit, are considered as war crimes, in that the acts were acts of war against our armed forces, and the normal punishment for these offences is death. The Review Board is of the opinion that these cases are so similar they should be treated the same. (See Manual of Military Law, 1929 Amendments (No 12) (British) The Laws and Usages of War on Land, (iii) The Punishment of War Crimes Par. 441 and 445).

With reference to the spy cases, your attention is called to the fact that international law recognizes the well-established right of belligerents to employ spies and other secret agents for obtaining information of the enemy. Resort to the practice involves no offence against international law. Spies are punished, not as violators of the laws of war, but to render that method of obtaining information as difficult, and ineffective, as possible for the enemy. According to international law, the spy is punished with death whether or not he succeeds in obtaining the information or in conveying it to the enemy. (See F.M. 27-10, War Department, Basic Field Manual, Rules of Land Warfare Par. 202, 203, and 204).

All spies were not sentenced to death by the courts. Some were given prison sentences. In this connection it is interesting to note that under International Law, a spy is punishable by death. (See F.M. 27-10, Par.209, "Rules of Land Warfare" - U.S.; see also, Article 62, Articles of War, "Manual of Courts Martial, U.S. Army, 1928", wherein death is the punishment for a spy.) The framers of the Proclamations assumed that a sentence less than death might lawfully be imposed upon a spy. In deference to such legal authority Allied Military Courts have imposed terms of imprisonment for some persons convicted of being spies. It is with this situation that we are now confronted.

The following table lists all known accused to whom, because of their age, sex, or some other reason, the courts or the reviewing authority gave a sentence less than death :

In all other cases reviewed, the Board of Review were in a position to adjust the sentences, because the offences were penal in character. Where a deterrent sentence was given, the deterrent factor was removed and a reasonable sentence was recommended as if the offence were committed in time of peace. However, in these war offences, the Review Board cannot logically adjust a sentence which is not penal in nature. It is the opinion of the Review board that the above accused were properly tried and convicted of war offences. All the above accused could have been put to death had the courts and reviewing officer desired the death sentence to be imposed. However, these sentences are purely deterrent and do not involve anything of a penal nature.

AS pardon is not a function of the Review Board, and as the removal of the deterrent factor becomes in effect full pardon, it is recommended that these cases be referred to competent authority for action.

JAMES J. CARNES
Colonel, Infantry,
Chief of Review Board.

2. Sentences imposed by Allied Military Government Courts have been reviewed for the purpose of fixing the maximum term to be served by prisoners convicted by such courts.

3. If a prisoner escapes, upon re-capture he should serve out the unserved portion of his sentence as modified on review.

4. In this connection, in the review of cases, it has been found that prisoners have been released thru illegal means. Nevertheless, and knowing of such fact, the sentences are being reviewed and in many cases reduced. If and when these prisoners are returned, they should be caused to serve out the portion of the sentence remaining as reflected by the review.

5. Nothing said herein should be taken as an excuse for not returning such prisoners to jail. A prisoner should serve out his sentence, even when he has been released in good faith. Where he has been released thru fraud, he should be prosecuted for his offence against the dignity of the Italian State as well. Unfortunately there are several instances where such releases have been obtained thru fraud, and the prisoners have not been returned to jail nor prosecuted for their fraud. It is our opinion that such cases should be pressed for action, as the prestige of law may suffer.

6. The construction here given is to be applied as a matter of policy in cases similar to the POSTHUMOUS DOMINICAN CASE.

TO : Chief Liaison Officer, Lombardia.

1. Various difficulties regarding Prison Sentences and AMG Legal procedure have been brought to the notice of this division. As these matters are for the most part queries that are likely to occur in all Provinces, it is felt that they should be cleared up through Italian/Allied Commission channels before the Liaison Group closes down.
2. The following are examples of some of the difficulties encountered:
 - (a) BAIL - Prisoners released on bail in 1945 and tried by Italian Courts in 1946, have failed to have their bail refunded in cases of acquittal, through Italian Channels. See also appendix B to which no reply has as yet been received.
 - (b) APPEALS - Persons appealing against AMG Court Sentences through Italian Channels have received no reply and have applied to this office for information.
 - (c) ITALIAN RECORDS/PROCURATORE GENERALE's RECORDS - Cases have come to light where records do not agree in the cases of persons arrested for crimes against Allied Proclamations in 1945 or for crimes against Allied Forces in 1946 and handed over to Italian Judicial Authorities for trial. See Appendix A. The Procuratore Generale Milan after making enquiries into this case on receipt of our letter, released Sacchini as there were no charges against him either at Monza or Milan.
 - (d) USE OF TERM "COMANDO ALLEATO" - A man has recently been acquitted by Italian Authorities of the charge of stealing a bicycle. This office has however been instructed that the man has now passed to the disposition of the "Comando Alleato" because he escaped from a concentration camp at Potenza. Neither the PSS of HQ Allied Commission Security Division have this man on their records although both are making enquiries. In the meantime the man remains in prison because we are unaware of the identity of this mystery "Comando Alleato".
 - (e) Two provinces have asked for copies of decisions arrived at by Allied Military Courts in order that the records of the prisoner may be kept up to date.
 - (f) Several cases of POWs being in Civilian Prisons have been discovered and remedied by PSS who are continuing this search but it is considered that some precise instructions on this question should be given to the Italian Judicial Authorities as this office can only investigate cases that come

I am under the impression that the Instruction merely states that in certain cases Surrendered Enemy Personnel may be tried by A.M.G. Courts if the approval of Headquarters, Allied Commission is first obtained; my letter of 29 May was intended to furnish sufficient information upon which the Chief Legal Adviser could decide whether in the circumstances under consideration approval for trial by A.M.G. 2. The telegram from HQ 1 AGRA furnished very slight information about the personnel concerned and I think it advisable to mention certain points to which I should have deemed it necessary to draw your attention had the application been submitted through this HQ.

A) The personnel in question probably formed part of the large body of German troops not actually captured in battle who laid down their arms at the time of the surrender in Italy, and, pending disposal by the Allied Command, were for numerous reasons designated "surrendered enemy personnel".

B) Since the date of the surrender however they have come and now are under the direct custody and control of the Allied Forces and have been formed into a Unit known as the 777 German 'B' Vehicles Driving Team. They are confined in a camp and are subject to military discipline. It would appear therefore that - however they may be designated to you on 15 May 1946 requesting you to authorize trial of the above personnel by AMG courts and your reply giving the authority requested. No direct authority from you to this HQ has been received.

2. The telegram from HQ 1 AGRA furnished very slight information about the personnel concerned and I think it advisable to mention certain points to which I should have deemed it necessary to draw your attention had the application been submitted through this HQ.

A) The personnel in question probably formed part of the large body of German troops not actually captured in battle who laid down their arms at the time of the surrender in Italy, and, pending disposal by the Allied Command, were for numerous reasons designated "surrendered enemy personnel".

B) Since the date of the surrender however they have come and now are under the direct custody and control of the Allied Forces and have been formed into a Unit known as the 777 German 'B' Vehicles Driving Team. They are confined in a camp and are subject to military discipline. It would appear therefore that - however they may be designated for administrative purposes - they are at the present time prisoners of war or persons having the rights of prisoners of war under the Geneva Convention.

C) The Convention provides that sentence may be pronounced against a prisoner of war only in the same Courts and according to the same procedure as in the case of persons belonging to the armed forces of the detaining Power. Under the Proclamation of the Allied Military Government which constitutes them, Allied Military Courts have no jurisdiction over Allied Military personnel and, it follows, no jurisdiction over prisoners of war.

D) The Geneva Convention further provides that Orders, Proclamations, etc., must be communicated to prisoners of war in a language which they understand. No proclamations or orders have been published in German in this Province and it seems clear therefore that prisoners of war cannot be tried for offences against the Proclamations.

E) The prisoners it is desired to try have not forfeited their military status.

F) No question of war crime is involved.

For the above reasons it seems to me that in the existing circumstances the prisoners in question cannot be brought within the jurisdiction of the AMG Court for trial on charges of stealing W.D. property. A request has already been received from O.C. 1 AGRA for ~~the~~ trial by an AMG Court and I shall therefore be glad if this letter may be treated as of immediate urgency and a decision given at the earliest possible moment.

SUBJECT : Sentences of Allied Military Courts.
TO : The Minister of Pardon and Justice.

In connection with the eventual restoration of the Military Government territory to the Italian Government this Sub-Commission wishes to point out that all sentences rendered or to be rendered by Allied Military Courts in Italy will remain within the exclusive control of Allied authorities as provided by Art. 3 of R.M. 11 February 1944 No. 31 and Art. 2 of R.M. 20 July 1944 No. 162. It is not proposed to modify the present procedure for revision of such sentences or for adjudication of petitions for pardon and conditional liberty in respect of such sentences agreed with your Ministry in Salerno (vide circular of Dir. SUBJECT : Release of prisoners.
TO : The Minister of Pardon and Justice.

1. Two cases have recently been brought to the notice of this Commission of attempts made in Italian Government territory to secure the release of prisoners held in goals by the use of forged release orders purporting to be signed by Allied Officers, these forgeries were so expert that they were detected only by accident.

2. In order to prevent unauthorized persons from effecting releases from Italian prisons of prisoners who are at the disposition of the Allies it is requested that you inform the Directors of all prisons and jails and others responsible for custody of prisoners in territory that has been turned back to the Italian Government that no prisoner who is at the disposition of the Allies will be released before the expiration of his sentence except upon orders from the office of the Minister of Grace and Justice, upon receipt of communication from this Sub-Commission stating its decision or action in such case.

3. This practice will apply only to the territory that has been turned back to the Italian Government.

4. It will be the policy of the Legal Sub-Commission to communicate to the Minister of Grace and Justice the action of the Sub-Commission in altering the sentence of any prisoner held at the disposition of the Allies in territory that has been returned to the Italian Government, or in denying the petition of any such prisoner.

1. Attention is drawn to the necessity of making endorsements on records when fines are paid, as directed by Consolidated Instructions, Article 29. See also Article 26 (2) c and the notes thereto. Similarly if a fine is not paid by the due date an appropriate endorsement should be made.

2. This is particularly important when a term of imprisonment is imposed in addition to a fine, for which a period of time has been allowed for payment. In such cases, in addition to endorsing the record, the prison authority where the accused is detained should be notified of the payment or fact of non-payment, as the case may be.

3. Failure to make an appropriate endorsement on the record entails that if this Sub-Commission is asked by the Italian authorities, perhaps 12-18 months later, to state whether payment has been made it is unable to do so, and as no absolute proof of non-payment can be obtained from the Finance Sub-Commission the default sentence has to be waived.

SUBJECT : Venezia Giulia - Jurisdiction of A.M. Courts.
TO : Regional Commissioner (Attn: Regional Legal Officer),
VENETIAN Region.

1. I have discussed with the Executive Commissioner the question of the wording of Proc. 1, Art. X (1) (a). He agrees that it is essential that persons who are not under the command of the S.A.C. must be subject to the jurisdiction of A.M. Courts.

2. At the same time he feels that it is undesirable to give undue publicity to the fact that we intend to try them. As a matter of law it has been ruled on similar occasions in the past that members of Allied Forces who were not under the operational command of the S.A.C. were subject to the jurisdiction of A.M. Courts and this ruling still holds. There is accordingly no need to amend the Proclamation.

3. It is however desirable that a clear and definite understanding should be reached between the Commanders concerned and Brig. IUSA stressed that the Yugoslav Commander should be specifically informed by the Commander 13 Corps that

(a) So far as concerned Yugoslav troops who were properly in Venezia Giulia and were under the command of S.A.C., these troops would be tried by Court Martial for any offence committed;

(b) So far as concerned all other Yugoslav personnel including persons who are or claim to be members of the Yugoslav Armed Forces these persons would be subject to the jurisdiction of the Allied Military Courts.

4. Brig. IUSA is notifying HQ 8 Army AGC to this effect, but no doubt you will ensure that any necessary action is in fact taken.

SUBJECT : Naples Commune.

TO : Regional Commissioner, SOUTHERN Region.

1. On the withdrawal of officers from SOUTHERN Region, APO will, as you are of course aware, continue in Naples Commune. For this purpose a staff of three legal officers is assigned to the Provincial team.
2. Some question has been raised as to the extent of the duties of these legal officers. For the purpose of clarification therefore, it is stated that they will perform the normal functions of provincial legal officers in an APO Province.
3. The Senior legal officer, Major F. L. Vecchiola, will be responsible, with the assistance of his associates, for rendering to the RC any legal advice which the RC may require.
4. APO courts will continue to be held in the Commune for the trial of such offenses committed within the Commune as the RC considers desirable to refer to them. All cases so tried will be referred to legal sub-commission for review.
5. Contact with the Italian courts within the Commune will be maintained in the same way as in any normal APO Province.
6. It is no part of the functions of the legal Division to endeavor to maintain contact with Italian courts situated outside the Commune of Naples. Indeed it would be contrary to the terms of the New Deal for them to do so.
7. It is to be expected that complaints will continue to be received from military authorities over the workings of these outside courts. These complaints will be referred to the legal sub-commission.

SUBJECT : ~~Informal~~ Petitions.

TO : H.M., Minister of Pardon and Justice.

1. This sub-Commission understands from Your Excellency's ministry that persons in prison under a sentence of an Italian Court who may fall sick are dealt with in accordance with Article 137 of the Royal Decree of the 13th June 1931 No. 737 as explained by various circulars. k1

2. It is the policy of this Commission that persons who are still in prison in Italian Government Territory under an order of an Allied Military Court and who may fall sick should be dealt with in the same way.

3. It is therefore requested that Your Excellency will issue an instruction to all prison directors concerned and to the appropriate members of Your Excellency's Ministry informing them of that policy and instructing them to take action in such cases in all respects as if the sentence had been imposed by an Italian Court.

4. It has been the practice for persons convicted by Allied Military Courts to present petitions asking for release from prison on grounds of ill health. In the past, such petitions were presented and disposed of through Allied Commission channels, but with the withdrawal of Allied Commission personnel, it is thought that petitions will be presented either by post or through the channels of Your Excellency's Ministry.

5. With a view to establishing an orderly system of dealing with such petitions, the following suggestion is made:-

- (a) Any petition based solely on the grounds of ill health and addressed to Your Excellency's Ministry or to any other Italian authority (wherever presented) to be disposed of by Your Excellency in all respects as if the sentence had been imposed by an Italian Court. 93

See also files 266A

(b) All such petitions addressed to this Commission or to any allied officer or authority to be disposed of by this Commission. As it is not the practice of this Commission to reduce a sentence on the grounds of ill health, ~~and~~ in normal cases this will involve no action provided that this Commission has Your Excellency's assurance that instructions have been issued in accordance with paras 2 and 3 above.

6. Your Excellency will appreciate that the above remarks apply only to petitions based solely on grounds of ill health. Any other petitions in regard to sentences of Allied Military Courts must be scrutinised at this HQ.

3 April 1945

SUBJECT : Confiscation of Goods by AMG Courts.

TO : Regional Commissioner, (Attn: Regional Legal Officer), Umbria-Marche Region.

1. In reply to your R5/511/14/ANG of 30 March 1945. It is to be noted that this HQ letter to which you refer does not apply to confiscation in all "black market" cases: but only to confiscation of vehicles. The statement that confiscation of a vehicle should only be ordered in "very exceptional cases" is intended to discourage the making of such confiscation orders except in those rare cases when the judge considers that justice cannot otherwise be achieved.

2. Article 27 of Consolidated Instructions provides that normally confiscation will not be ordered unless the wrongful use or possession of an article is the substance of, as opposed to incidental to, the charge. Such an order would therefore be "exceptional". In cases where the value of the article concerned is entirely disproportionate to any thing else in the case, including the jurisdiction of the court, such an order should be "very exceptional".

3. In cases where a person is charged with travelling without a permit, or buying or exporting goods without a permit, the use of the vehicle is incidental to the charge, since in most cases the actual offence would not be committed without the use of the vehicle. As a general rule, moreover, it is perfectly ample to impose an adequate punishment by fine or imprisonment or both without the necessity for the additional punishment of confiscation with all the disadvantages previously explained.

4. Cases do occur, however, where the normal punishment would not achieve the results desired by the court. Examples, which are not intended to be exhaustive, are:-

- the repeated use of a vehicle for purposes of this nature;
- the impracticability of sending the accused to prison;
- the particular gravity of an individual offence;
- the necessity for punishing the owner (as opposed to the driver) of the vehicle.

5. It should perhaps be added that a local shortage of transport is not a "very exceptional case" either for this, or any other purpose.

6. The last part of your letter, I think, must be based on a misreading of our letter: it does not prohibit confiscation by a summary court: on the contrary it states expressly:

"It is permissible for such an officer" (i.e. a non-legal summary court officer: and a fortiori, the same must apply to a legal officer) "to award a sentence within the jurisdiction of a summary court and to make an order of confiscation."

The above quoted passage is in accordance with Consolidated Instructions Article 27 (4) which provides that the power of forfeiture is additional to other powers but that officers sitting in Summary Courts will not make use of the power merely to impose a penalty which will, in fact, exceed 50,000 lire.

The two cases dealt with in this HQ letter of 13 March were both heard before a Summary Court in one case the court consisted of a legal officer and in the other of a non-legal officer. It is thought that both these courts used their power to order forfeiture in such a way as to impose a financial penalty which they could not, and probably would not, do by fine.

Nothing in that letter is intended to depart from the principle laid down in Consolidated Instructions Article 27: but cases where an article worth many millions of lire may be confiscated should be heard by a Superior Court.

SUBJECT : Informal Petitions.

TO : H.E. The Minister of Grace and Justice.

1. As your Excellency is, no doubt, aware a person convicted by an Allied Military Court has the right to present a petition for review within 30 days of conviction. At the expiration of this period every case, with any petition presented, is reviewed by the competent authority. No right exists to present any further petition.

2. In practice it has been found that persons convicted present innumerable petitions, the vast majority of which have no merit whatever.

3. In the past, these petitions were either disposed of at Regional HQ or forwarded by Regional HQ to this Sub-Commission.

4. It is anticipated that, with the withdrawal of the Allied Commission personnel from Italian Government territory, these petitions will be sent direct by the convicted person or by his family to this Sub-Commission - indeed, a few have already been received.

5. In future such petitions will be perused by this Sub-Commission. If no action is called for, no answer will be sent to the petitioner. If, however, in any particular case this Sub-Commission decides that some action is called for, it will be necessary for this Sub-Commission to request your Excellency to communicate the decision to the petitioner or the authority concerned through the channels of the Ministry, no other channels being available.

6. It is not thought that this will impose any substantial burden on your Excellency's Ministry as the number of cases of the latter class is very small.

1. In a recent spy trial evidence was given of confessions made by the accused during his investigations. The accused protested that the confessions had been forced out of him and were in several respects untrue. The court disbelieved, or attached no importance to these protestations which were, of course, denied by the officers who conducted the interrogations, convicted the accused and sentenced him to death.

2. After sentence he was again interviewed by CSDIC. CSDIC have forwarded to this sub-commission a full report on this interview. The following is a verbatim extract from part of this report: "Subject's earlier statements now shown to be fabrications produced as the result of harsh treatment. His present story which is accepted as truthful in all essentials, confirms a large amount of previous information...."

3. It is essential that courts should realize the extreme danger of convicting accused persons upon confessions which have been obtained, or which they have reason to believe have been obtained by force.

SUBJECT : Allied Military Courts; suspension of sentences for enlistment in Italian Army.

TO : Regional Commissioner (Attn: Regional Legal Officer), TOSCANA Region.

1. Reference you RVIII/19/3006 of the 1st March 1945.

2. I was approached by the Procuratore Generale Militare with a request that I should suspend sentences imposed by Allied Military Courts on condition that the persons involved should join the Italian Army.

3. I refused to grant any general suspension, but stated that in suitable cases I would be prepared to consider individual applications.

4. Of the petitions actually forwarded with your letter the majority appear to be serious cases in which it would be obviously improper to suspend any part of the sentence. In some other cases, the accused appear to be required by the Italian authorities to answer charges under Italian law. It would appear, therefore, that any suspension of sentences in these cases would be useless as the Italian authorities would require the immediate arrest and trial of the person released.

5. In some cases the sentence has already expired and there is nothing left to suspend. There does appear, however, to be at least one case which might be suitable for suspension - MORDINI Franco who received a three months' sentence which expires on the 30th of April. I have naturally not got the record in this case and I do not know whether you are prepared to suspend the balance of the sentence on the terms suggested. If, however, you are prepared to do so, you are authorized to take this course.

6. In the future, with any applications of this kind, will you please take the following action:-

a. If the case is one in which you consider that no possibility of suspension exists, either by reason of the seriousness of the charge or for some other reason, you may ignore the application.

SUBJECT : Allied Military Courts : punishment of minors.

TO : Regional Commissioners (Attn: R.J.O.) Sicily, Southern, Sardinia, Lazio-Umbria, Abruzzi-Marche, Toscana, Emilia,
Liguria, Piemonte, Lombardia, Venezia and Venezia Giulia
Regions,
SCAGOs 5th and 8th Armies.

1. From cases reviewed at this HQ, it is thought that Legal Officers are uncertain as to the sentence which should be imposed on minors convicted by Allied Military Courts, having regard to the practical difficulties which now obtain.

2. In theory, every prison should have a wing for minors: and throughout the country there should be a series of "reformatore giudiziari" each serving a district. In practice, prisons are so congested that the wing for minors does not always exist: and for a variety of reasons some reformatories are not functioning.

3. The reformatories are intended as places where minors may be sent in lieu of, or in lieu of, prison (see Penal Code Arts. 223, 224 and 225) to discipline and instruction in some craft. Owing to the lack of materials, it is not possible in reformatories to give this instruction: and a term in a reformatory is in practice not very different from a term in prison.

4. Every FIC should acquaint himself with the facilities for the detention of minors that exist in his province: this can best be done by asking the "Giudice di Sorveglianza". The Courts must then take a practical and realistic view and in each case must impose a sentence which is reasonable and practicable having regard to local conditions.

5. The following principles should be borne in mind:

a. In appropriate cases, a minor may be given a suspended sentence and put under the care of the parents. 05

b. In cases too serious for the above, a minor may be given a term of detention to be served in a reformatory: but in this case the term should be considered not as a period for reform and education but as a substitute term in a special place of detention for minors: 05

2. In theory, every prison should have a wing for minors: and throughout the country there should be a series of "Riformatori giudiziari" each serving a district. In practice, prisons are so congested that the wing for minors does not always exist: and for a variety of reasons some reformatories are not functioning.

3. The reformatories are intended as places where minors may be sent in lieu of, or in lieu of, prison (see Penal Code Arts. 223, 224 and 225) to discipline and instruction in some craft. Today, owing to the lack of materials, it is not possible in a reformatory to give this instruction: and a term in a reformatory is in practice not very different from a term in prison.

4. Every FIO should acquaint himself with the facilities for the detention of minors that exist in his province: this can best be done by asking the "Giudice di Sorveglianza". The Courts must then take a practical and realistic view and in each case must impose a sentence which is reasonable and practicable having regard to local conditions.

5. The following principles should be borne in mind:

a. In appropriate cases, a minor may be given a suspended sentence and put under the care of the parents.

b. In cases too serious for the above, a minor may be given a term of detention to be served in a reformatory: but in this case the term should be considered not as a period for reform and education but as a punitive term in a special place of detention for minors: it should be made correspondingly brief.

c. In yet more serious cases, a term of imprisonment must be imposed: but legal officers should ask Public Safety officers to ensure that such minors are segregated from other inmates.

6. With effect from receipt hereof, the practice of ordering minors to a reformatory for an indefinite term will cease. If a Court wishes to impose a term of detention on a minor it will specify:

- a) whether the term is to be served in a reformatory or in a prison: and
- b) the length of the term.

1. Para. 22 (3) (c) of the Consolidated Instructions, lays down that an accused may not be convicted on the evidence of an accomplice unless there is ample corroboration. From cases reviewed at this Hq it is clear that some officers are not clear what constitutes corroboration.

2. Corroboration consists of evidence, direct or circumstantial, which in some material respect confirms the evidence of the accomplice not only that the offence was committed but also that the accused committed it.

3. Attention is particularly drawn to the concluding words of the last paragraph. It is not sufficient that the independent evidence should go to show that the accused had the opportunity or a motive to commit the offence; it must confirm that the accused took part in the commission of the offence. The reason for this is obvious; any person wishing falsely to accuse an innocent person would naturally accuse somebody with such opportunity or motive; hence the necessity for independent evidence confirming that the accused committed the offence.

4. In connection with corroboration, attention is also drawn to the two following points:

a. The evidence of one accomplice cannot be corroborated by the evidence of another; and

b. Where two persons are being tried together, corroboration implicating one only is not corroboration as to the other.

1. The attention of this HQ has been drawn to the fact that there is a conflict between Rule of Procedure 15 (which provides that an Allied Military Court may admit such evidence, including hearsay, as in its opinion is relevant and material) and Consolidated Instructions art. 22 I (a) (which provides that an Allied Military Court shall admit such evidence).

2. The intention is accurately stated in the Rule of Procedure. The decision whether or not to admit as evidence any particular statement etc which would not be admissible under the law of Great Britain or the United States is one which must be left to the decision of the court in each particular case. As you know, your region is to be bereft of all legal officers in the near future - I except, of course, Naples Commune. This raises the question of the disposal of Allied Military Court records other than those of Naples Commune. No decision on this point has yet been taken but it seems that they will have to come to ROME there to be disposed of as may be decided.

As soon as a decision is made you will be informed: but please take this as a "warning order" so that on receipt of final instructions you can arrange for their speedy dispatch.

SUBJECT : Penalties - Italian Law Violations.

(Attn : Regional Legal Officer)

1. Reference RVIII/19/2000 of 5 February 45.

2. This Sub-Commission agrees with paras 1 (a) and (b). It does NOT agree with 1 (c). It is true that failure to comply with olive oil amassing laws constitutes an offence under Proc. 1 (14). But RM, CC, and CO, FF. in default of express authority, have no right of search for the purpose of enforcing the Allied Proclamations and Orders. The difficulty can be overcome because it would be legal and proper for the Allied Military Government to order or authorize laws enforcing agencies to search premises in which there is reasonable ground for belief that an offence against the olive oil amassing law is being committed. It is considered that any such order should take the form of a written instruction to the head of the RM, CC, or CO, FF. : and there would be no legal objection to such order being given on a provincial basis. However, before any directive to the above effect is issued by R.I.O. to RLO's it should be confirmed that Regional HQ do not desire that such orders, if any, be issued on a regional level.

3. Charges under Proc. 1 (14) are not strictly charges under Italian law : the charge is under the Proclamation and the particulars show what Proc. Order or law is alleged to have been broken. It is, however, essential that charges which are in substance based on Italian law be kept to the minimum : officers in the field have not the experience or the works of reference to enable them properly to handle such cases. As to review of such cases see AC/4002/L dated 7 Dec 44.

Such authorization should only be asked for and will only be granted in exceptional cases.

(ii) Prostitution. Such cases are normally more easily handled by the Italian Courts, and should be referred to the Italian Courts for trial, except where there is some special reason for trial by an AMG Court. Where such special reason exists, the charge should be laid under Proclamation No. 1, paragraph 45 (acts to the prejudice of good order), and since the charge is brought under the Proclamation, no special authorization to try the case is required.

(iii) Black Market, Rationing, etc. Proclamation No. 1, paragraph 44 makes it an AMG offense to violate the Italian laws relating to rationing, black market, prices, etc. Since these are made offenses against our proclamation, no special authority is required to try these cases in AMG Courts. All such cases will, however, be handed over to the PLO, who will personally supervise the drafting of the charges and will either try them himself or give directions for their trial. The foregoing does not refer to violations of AMG price orders, which will be tried in the usual manner under Proclamation No. 1, paragraph 42 (disobedience of an AMG order).

(iv) "Failure to have proper means of identification." (Proclamation No. 1, Paragraph 41). While no special authorization is required to try violations of this section since the

(iv) Failure to have proper means of identification. (Proclamation No. 1, Paragraph 41). While no special authorization is required to try violations of this section since the charge is brought under the proclamation, it is important to bear in mind that Italian law does not require every civilian to possess an identity card. The Italian law requires that an "identity card" or "equivalent documents of identification" must be produced to the police on demand. "Equivalent documents" are defined as including any document carrying a photograph of the holder and issued by a State administration, e.g., driving license, arms license, railway booklet of state employee, passport or any other document in which the holder's identity is certified in writing by a department of the state administration.

(e) Jurisdiction over Persons. AMG Courts have jurisdiction to try all persons found within occupied territory, except:

(i) Prisoners of War.

(ii) Members of the Allied Forces. The expression "Members of the Allied Forces" includes members of all organized contingents of the United Nations under the command of the C. in C., Italy. It does NOT include members of the Italian Forces, who may accordingly be tried in AMG Courts. All cases of charges against members of the Italian Forces (including Carabinieri) will, however, be referred first to the Provincial Legal Officer.

2. Juvenile Offenders.

(a) Trial. Juveniles (persons under 18 years of age) will be tried in an appropriate court (General, Superior or Summary) but the proceedings should be informal with the public excluded, except for members of the family of the accused; otherwise follow the normal procedure.

(b) Sentence. Juveniles should normally be sent to reformatories, if available; otherwise, a sentence of imprisonment will have to be imposed. In assessing the sentence the youth of the accused must be considered, and full use should be made of the power to suspend all or part of the sentence. If the accused appears to be a hardened criminal, he may be given a substantial term of imprisonment.

3. Commencement of Proceedings. Proceedings are commenced either by arrest when Arrest Report will be used, or by summons Form No. 2/4 (App. "A"). When an arrest is made the C.C.R.R. or the police must complete the Arrest Report in duplicate and sign it before leaving the place, where the accused is detained. One copy is left at the jail; the other copy forwarded to the prosecutor. In order to avoid overcrowding jails, it is desirable where the accused has a fixed local abode and the charge is not of a serious nature to utilize the Summons rather than the procedure of arrest for ensuring the attendance of accused persons; however, persons arrested for any form of security offense including check-line violations will normally be kept in jail pending trial. An accused who fails to appear in answer to the summons can always be subsequently apprehended and may in proper cases be charged with contempt of court and dealt with summarily (Paragraph 12, Rules of Procedure for AMG Courts). Where it appears desirable, the accused can be required to deposit an adequate sum by way of bail conditional upon his appearance at the time and place of trial. Release on bail can, however, only be granted on order of the court.

Where it appears desirable, the accused can be required to deposit an adequate sum by way of bail conditional upon his appearance at the time and place of trial. Release on bail can, however, only be granted on order of the court.

4. Charges.

(a) Serious Charges.

(i) If the offense with which the accused is charged is of a serious nature and appears to call for a sentence beyond the power of a Summary Court to impose, the CAO will not try the case, or if he has already commenced the trial he will not pronounce a finding or sentence, but will immediately commit the case to a higher court and forward the record to the Provincial Legal Officer. It is extremely important that the above procedure be followed because once a CAO has pronounced a finding and sentence in a case, no further action by the CAO or higher authority which could result in the imposition of a higher sentence is permitted. If there is any reasonable risk of witnesses ceasing to become available for the subsequent trial, the CAO (sitting as a Summary Court) shall record all available evidence before committing the case.

(11) Offenses or attempts to commit offenses having a possible implication of sabotage will not be tried by CAOS without first referring the matter to the PLO, who will determine the appropriate court to try the case. Such offenses include:

- Wire Cutting
- Interference with means of communication
- Interfering with petrol pipe line
- Interfering with means of transportation -- such as railway and railway operating equipment, etc.

(111) Charges against partisans of an involved nature or which may have law breaking consequences, e.g., unauthorized collection of funds, etc. will be tried by CAOS. Simple trial, will be referred to the PLO before trial by CAOS. Simple retention of arms may be dealt with in Summary Court without such reference, see Paragraph 2 (a) (1), supra, is not applicable.

(b) Drafting of Charges:

(1) Drafting of Charges. Care must be taken to ensure that charges are properly drawn. Every accused is entitled to know with certainty the offense against which he must defend himself. In particular, the charge must correctly state the Proclamation, Article and Section violated and the place, date, and particulars of violation. When preparing charges reference should be made to specimen charges (Appendix "B") attached hereto.

(11) Charges "to the prejudice of good order". Charges in respect of alleged acts "to the prejudice of good order" Proclamation No. 1, Article V, Section (45) should be put forward only in exceptional cases, and then only when it is quite impossible to frame a charge under any other section of the Proclamation.

(111) Charge Sheet (Form 2/4). Charges will be prepared on Form No. 2/4 in triplicate. One copy will be handed to the accused a reasonable time before the trial both in the case when it is being used as a summons and also when the accused is under arrest. The remaining copies will be before the Judge at the trial who will complete the record of the trial on the back of the form in duplicate, using carbon paper.

The remaining copies will be before the Judge at the trial who will complete the record of the trial on the back of the form in duplicate, using carbon paper.

5. Disqualification for Sitting as Summary Court Judge.

A CAO who has taken part in the investigation of a case or who may be prejudiced by personal knowledge of the facts of the case is disqualified from sitting as Judge in any such case. In cases involving minor offenses and where the facts are undisputed, it is occasionally both necessary and desirable for CAOs to sit as Judges even though they have prior knowledge of the case. But such practice must never be adopted where the charge is serious or the facts are disputed.

6. The Trial.

(a) General. Wherever possible, trials should be held in a suitable room, preferably the local court-room, if one is available. CAOs should never forget that a Summary Court trial is a judicial proceeding and they should conduct their courts with as much formality as the situation permits. It is important not only that justice be done in each case, but that the proceedings be so conducted that it is manifestly apparent that justice is being done. Special care should always be taken to see that the rights of the accused, as detailed on Form 2/4, are respected, and that the accused is aware of these rights.

(b) The Proceedings.

(i) Swear the Interpreter. Swear the interpreter. The following form of oath is to be used: "Do you solemnly swear by Almighty God that you will to the best of your ability truly interpret and translate as you shall be required to do?"

(ii) Arraign the Accused. Read each charge to the accused and explain it to him if necessary and ask him if he pleads "guilty" or "not guilty" to each charge. Enter the plea on the record. The Court must never influence an accused to plead "guilty". Italians are unfamiliar with our procedure of "arraignment" and "plea", and it is often difficult to get them to say whether they are "guilty" or "not guilty". In such cases ask the accused whether he admits the facts alleged in the charge or whether he denies them. If he admits the facts enter a plea of "guilty"; if he denies them enter a plea of "not guilty".

(iii) On Plea of "Guilty". If the accused pleads "Guilty" make sure that he realizes the effect of such a plea. If there is a prosecutor he will briefly give the facts of the case or the Arrest Report may be placed before the Court. The accused will be given an opportunity of stating his version of the facts and any mitigating circumstances.

(iv) On Plea of "Not Guilty". If the accused pleads "Not Guilty" then oral evidence will be given under oath in proof of the charge. Witnesses will take the following oath:

"Being conscious of the responsibility which this oath imposes on you before God and man, do you swear to speak the whole truth and nothing but the truth?"

"Consapevole della responsabilita' che col giuramento assumete davanti a Dio e agli uomini giurate di dire tutta la verita' e null'altro che la verita'?"

on the record. The Court must never influence an accused to plead "guilty". If there is a prosecutor he will briefly give the facts of the case or the Arrest Report may be placed before the Court. The accused will be given an opportunity of stating his version of the facts and any mitigating circumstances.

"Being conscious of the responsibility which this oath imposes on you before God and Man, do you swear to speak the whole truth and nothing but the truth?"

"Consapevole della responsabilità che col giuramento assumete davanti a Dio e agli uomini giurate di dire tutta la verità e null'altro che la verità?"

The accused will be given an opportunity to cross-examine each witness for the prosecution. Witnesses should normally be required to personally appear before the court. The Arrest Report or a written statement of a witness will only be admitted in evidence when the person making the report or the statement is prevented from attending at the trial by death, sickness, or unavoidable necessity. When such is the case, the contents of the Arrest Report or statement may be accepted as prima facie evidence for the prosecution - sufficient to impose on the accused the necessity of making his explanation of the allegation made. If there is a serious dispute on the facts, an accused who has pleaded "not guilty" should not be convicted solely on the contents of an Arrest Report or written statement, unless there is some corroborative evidence from elsewhere.

On the close of the case for the prosecution the accused will be given the opportunity of giving evidence and of calling such witnesses as he desires. The accused must be made to understand that he is not obliged to give evidence if he does not wish, but that if he does, it must be on oath and he will be liable to cross-examination.

If the accused is represented by an advocate, he should be given the opportunity of addressing the court at the conclusion of the taking of the evidence.

7. Findings.

Findings of guilt will only be made when the Judge is convinced beyond a reasonable doubt that the accused is guilty on the evidence presented in the court. A finding of guilt or not guilty will be made on the charge. If the facts proved in evidence do not establish the offense charged, but do constitute some other offense, the charge may be amended and the accused convicted of the alternative offense. In such case the Record must contain a note of the amended charge and finding.

8. Sentences.

(a) Authorized punishments. Only authorized punishments may be imposed. The following are the only punishments authorized for a Summary Court:

- (i) Imprisonment up to 1 year.
- (ii) Fines up to $5,000 fine, always accompanied by an alternative jail sentence in default of payment.
- (iii) Term such imprisonment and fine.
- (iv) After conviction for wrongful use, sale, purchase or possession of property, in addition to any other punishment, the Court may order the property confiscated or forfeited. Such power will not be exercised where the wrongful use is merely incidental to the charge.

Examples: (a) Accused is convicted of possession of firearms without a permit, or wrongful possession of a licensed property. The property should be confiscated.

(b) Accused is convicted of being out after curfew without a permit. At the time of his arrest he was driving an automobile. The automobile should not be confiscated.

(a) Authorized Punishments. Only authorized punishments may be imposed. The following are the only punishments authorized for a Summary Court:

- (i) Imprisonment up to 1 year.
- (ii) Fine up to $5,000 fine, always accompanied by an alternative jail sentence in default of payment.
- (iii) Both such imprisonment and fine.
- (iv) After conviction for wrongful use, sale, purchase or possession of property, in addition to any other punishment, the Court may order the property confiscated or forfeited. Such power will not be exercised where the wrongful use is merely incidental to the charge.

Examples: (a) accused is convicted of possession of firearms without a permit, or wrongful possession of Allied Property. The property should be confiscated. 25

(b) Accused is convicted of being out after curfew without a permit. At the time of his arrest he was driving an automobile. The automobile should not be confiscated.

(v) Orders closing premises and orders as to residence.

(b) One Year Maximum. In applying the foregoing, the following will be adhered to:

- (i) In no case can a person convicted by a Summary Court be kept in jail in respect of that conviction for more than 1 year.
- (ii) While a separate sentence is to be imposed on each charge (see paragraph 8 (c)(i)), if more than one such of imprisonment is imposed and the total is more than 1 year, the separate terms must run concurrently (paragraph 8 (c)(iii)), so that the 1 year maximum is not violated.
- (iii) If a term of imprisonment and a fine with an alternative jail sentence in the event of default are imposed, the total of such terms shall not exceed 1 year.

(c) Requirements.

(1) Separate Sentences on Each Charge. A separate sentence will be recorded in respect of each charge of which the accused has been found guilty.

(ii) Fines. Where a fine is imposed, an alternative jail sentence must always be imposed, and the date by which the fine is to be paid must be announced and recorded. If the whole of the fine is not paid by the date fixed, the accused must serve the whole of the alternative jail sentence, in addition to any other term of imprisonment imposed. Where the fine is paid, the date of payment and receipt number will be entered on the record.

(iii) Imprisonment - Consecutive or Concurrent. Where an accused is sentenced to imprisonment on each of two or more separate charges, the court must announce and record whether such sentences to imprisonment are consecutive or concurrent. (This does not apply to an alternative jail sentence in default of payment of a fine, such sentence always being in addition to any other term of imprisonment imposed). Sentences are consecutive when they are to be served one after the other; they are concurrent when they are to be served at the same time.

Examples:

- (a) Consecutive: Charge I, 6 months; Charge II, 3 months. Total to be served, 9 months.
- (b) Concurrent: Charge I, 6 months; Charge II, 3 months. Total to be served, 6 months.

(iv) Orders as to Confiscation and Disposition of Property. Any order as to confiscation and disposition of property must be announced and entered in the record. Such order is always required where accused is found guilty of possession of firearms or theft or possession of Allied Property. Disposition of confiscated property is as follows:

- a. Allied Property: To nearest military depot dealing with that type of goods.
- b. Arms and Ammunition: To C.C.R.R.
- c. Money: To Provincial Finance Officer.
- d. Other Property: At disposition of Provincial Commissioner.

Receipts should be obtained against delivery of property.

(iv) Crimes to be Confiscated and Disposition of Property. Any order as to confiscation and disposition of property must be announced and entered in the record. Such order is always required where accused is found guilty of possession of firearms or theft or possession of Allied Property. Disposition of confiscated property is as follows:

- a. Allied Property: To nearest military depot dealing with that type of goods.

(d) Guide to Imposition of Sentences.

- (i) Purpose of AMG Courts. One of the purposes of AMG Courts is to impose sentences that will be a deterrent to others. CAOs should not be afraid to impose reasonably heavy sentences where the facts justify it. On the other hand, unreasonably heavy sentences should not be imposed in petty cases.
- (ii) Fines. Experience has shown that fines are not an effective deterrent and should not normally be imposed (unless coupled with a term of imprisonment) except in petty cases.
- (iii) Alternative Jail Sentences. The term of imprisonment imposed in default of payment of a fine (see paragraph 8 (b)(ii)) must be reasonable in relation to the size of the fine. A rough guide is 1 day imprisonment per 100 Lire fine.
- (iv) Suspended Sentences. The Court has the power to suspend all or part of a sentence of imprisonment, but NOT of a fine. Such power should be used sparingly and only for exceptional reasons, e.g., age or ill-health of accused, or some special extenuating circumstances. This may be done only at the time of passing sentence, and the reasons for the suspension should be stated in the record. It should be explained to the accused that in the event of his subsequent conviction for any offense by any AMG court the suspended sentence will have to be served in full.

(e) power to Vary a Sentence. Once a sentence has been imposed, the CAO has no power to vary it in any way. This means that after imposition of sentence, he may not suspend, increase or decrease the sentence; nor may he change a sentence of imprisonment to fine or vice versa, or change the sentence in any other way. Such power rests only in the reviewing authority. If the CAO feels an injustice has been done, he should advise the MG of the facts together with his recommendations.

9. Record of Proceedings at Trial.

(a) Form. The reverse side of Form 2/4 will be used to record the trial proceedings in each case.

(b) Summary of Evidence.

(i) Where accused pleads "Guilty", it is sufficient to attach the Arrest Report to the record (if it was considered by the Court), and to briefly record any mitigating circumstances presented by the accused.

(ii) Where the accused pleads "Not Guilty", it is required that a summary of the material evidence of each witness be recorded. The summary need not be lengthy, but must be sufficient to enable the reviewing authority to review the case. In simple curfew and circulation cases, it is sufficient to record "as charged" under "Prosecution" together with a brief summary of accused's defense under "Defense". The record should be tidy and legible, and the summary should be recorded in a consecutive story in the first person. The names and addresses of all witnesses should be recorded. The summary must be completed at the time of the trial. This is important as the reviewing officer requires a contemporary record of what was said at the trial.

The summary must be completed at the time of the trial. This is important as the reviewing officer requires a contemporary record of what was said at the trial.

If the Court imposes what appears to be an unduly severe or unduly light sentence, a brief statement of the Court's reason therefor should be recorded.

A specimen form of Record of Proceedings is set forth on the reverse side of Appendix "A".

(c) Sentence and Other Orders. It is essential that all spaces on the form are completed with the appropriate entries. (See reverse side of Appendix "A" for specimen form).

10. Committal to Jail. When the accused is sentenced to a term of imprisonment, or when the accused is ordered to pay a fine and in default of payment a term of imprisonment and the fine has not been paid on the day of the trial, the Judge will prepare a Warrant of Committal (Appendix "C"), which will be handed to the C.C.R.R. who will execute the same forthwith in the case of a term of imprisonment, and in the case of imprisonment in default of payment of a fine they will execute it immediately after the date the fine was ordered to be paid by.

When the accused is delivered to the jail the Warrant will be handed by the C.C.R.R. to the Chief Warden of the Jail.

11. Disposal of Record. Both copies of the Record (Form 2/4) with any additional sheets of evidence and exhibits will be forwarded to the PLO at the earliest moment after the trial. PLO will forward 1 copy thereof to the SLO for review and retain the other copy as his permanent record.

12. Petition for Review. Every person convicted by an AMG Court has a right to present a petition for Review. This Petition will be on the prescribed form, it must be presented within 30 days of sentence, and signed by the accused or his lawyer. The trial judge or receipt of a Petition will make his comments in the appropriate space and forward it to the PLO. Petitioners shall have the 30-day period will nevertheless be forwarded to the PLO, but advocates will not be informed of this.

*SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE (Plea of Not Guilty) or OUTLINE OF FACTS(Plea of Guilty)

PROSECUTION: No. 695431, 1/Cpl. Brown J.R., 4 Section, 115 Prov. Coy C.M.F. At 1700 hours, 13 November 1944, I was on duty at the Post Block North entrance into Riccione when I stopped a man carrying a sack on his back, whom I know identify as the accused. I asked him for his particulars and he stated that he had come from Fano. He had no circulation permit. I asked him to turn out the sack which contained six pairs of British battle dress trousers and ten pairs of British army boots which I now produce.

Cross-examination: The accused stated that two British soldiers gave him the articles in question for assisting them to repair a truck.

DEFENSE(Including any statement in mitigation): Accused: That on the 5 November 1944 I worked for half a day assisting two soldiers whose truck had broken down. The soldiers gave me the boots and trousers as wages. I did not know that a permit was required to travel to Riccione.

1. The military courts at Naples are now fully extended. It will be necessary to open new courts but this can only be done, if additional, non-legal, members be found to sit with trained, legal, presidents.

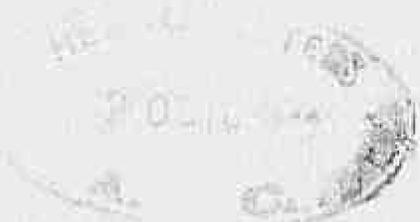

2. Some additional officers have already been found through the courtesy of the Royal Navy and Royal Air Force, more, however, are needed. It is not possible for me to spare any of the specialist officers on this H.Q. staff.

3. I have approached G.O.C. 3 District for the loan of officers from training centres. He tells me that he would be glad to help, but that these training centres are directly under AFHQ.

2. Many of the cases charged under Proc. 1 Art. May I take it that some discretion may be allowed to P.L.O. in deciding whether it is necessary to refer any particular case to this H.Q. ?

1. Reference your L-202 of 11 Dec 44 it is regretted that no mention was made in the original instructions of the position under the earlier proclamations.
2. Under the proclamations in force in AMG Territory, other than Naples, Proc. 1, Art. V, Sec 44 makes it an offense, punishable by fine or imprisonment or both if anyone "infringes any proclamation or order or any Italian law regulating or controlling the sale, purchase, distribution, allotment, rationing or transporting of any commodity or article."
3. This would correspond to an offense under Proc 8 of the old proclamations. You will recall that it has been ruled that offenses under Proc 8 can be punished "as the court may determine" and not necessarily in accordance with Italian penalties; apart from this, however, the principles of Italian law apply.

SUBJECT : Directives.

TO : Regional Commissioner, EMILIA Region.
(Attn: Regional Legal Officer)

With reference to your letter AC/1a/203/107 of 8 Dec 44 :

(1) There is no specific order forbidding AMG Courts to deal with prostitution cases and no directive has been issued on this point.

The present policy is that as prostitution cases generally are normally more easily handled by the Italian Courts, they should be left to the Italian Courts, except where there is some special reason for any particular case to be tried by AMG.

In regards your question of a woman infecting an Allied soldier, this might perhaps be considered as a special reason for the case to be heard before an AMG Court for, as you know, the offence of infecting another person with venereal disease is triable only on the "querela" of the person affected (Art. 54 C.P.), and it might perhaps be considered unadvisable for an Allied soldier to appear in an Italian Court in the capacity of such a complainant.

We note that you have Directive AC/4022/1 of 19 April 44. The Italian law on prostitution is contained in the Codice Penale Arts. 531 et seq, Legge di Pubblica Sicurezza Arts. 190 et seq and in the Regolamento della Legge di Pubblica Sicurezza Arts. 345 et seq. See also Decreto Legislativo Luogotenenziale No. 325 of 12 Oct 44 which increases the penalty for keeping in unlicensed brothel and makes it an offence for any person to solicit for or assist in any way, the prostitution of another.

(2) No Directive has been issued to the effect that the possession of Allied cigarettes is not to be regarded as an offence unless the cigarettes were obtained from a civilian. Cigarettes are as much Allied property as any other article. The action to be taken in such cases must depend on the particular circumstances of each case and no hard and fast rule can be laid down to say which cases should and which should not be prosecuted.

(3) We enclose herewith a copy of a memorandum prepared and issued in June 44 by the then U.S. 5th Army, which deals with the question of "Proper means of identification" that you raise in para 3 of your letter.

By command of Commander GEMEK :-

W. E. WIGGERS,

SUBJECT : Proclamation No. 1, Art. V, Sec. 41 -
 Means of Identification.

TO : All SCAGs and PCS Littoria, Rome Province, Viterbo
 (for Legal Officers).

1. Advice had been requested as to the effect of the above section of new Proclamation No. 1 which provides that any person commits an offence who "fails to have in his possession at all times a proper means of identification as required by existing law". It will be observed that the express reference to an "identity card" which appeared in old Proclamation No. 2, Art. II, Sec. 41 and old Proclamation No. 11 Art. III is now omitted and is replaced by the wider term "means of identification".
2. Existing Italian law does NOT require possession of a "Carta di identità", except in the case of dangerous or suspected persons, who may be compelled by the police to hold such means of identification, and of persons employed in a few specified trades. Other citizens over the age of 15 can obtain a "carta di identità" from the Podestà of their Comune on request but are under no legal obligation to do so.
3. Regolamento di sicurezza pubblica No. 310 provides that a "Carta di identità" or equivalent documents of identification must be produced to the police on demand. "Equivalent documents" are defined as including any document carrying a photograph of the holder and issued by a State administration e.g. "libretto ferroviario" which is furnished to all civil and military state employees, "tessera di riconoscimento", tessera della M.V.S.N.", driving licence, arms licence, passport or any other document in which the holder's identity is certified in writing by a department of the State administration.
4. It follows that no offence against Proc. No. 1 Art. II Sec. 41 is committed provided that the person concerned can produce some such "means of identification" as is indicated in the preceding paragraph. If it were desired to require all civilians times a proper means of identification as required by existing law". It will be observed that the express reference to an "identity card" which appeared in old Proclamation No. 2, Art. II, Sec. 41 and old Proclamation No. 11 Art. III is now omitted and is replaced by the wider term "means of identification".

2. Existing Italian law does NOT require possession of a "Carta di identità", except in the case of dangerous or suspected persons, who may be compelled by the police to hold such means of identification, and of persons employed in a few specified trades. Other citizens over the age of 15 can obtain a "carta di identità" from the Podesta of their Comune on request but are under no legal obligation to do so.

3. Regolamento di sicurezza pubblica No. 310 provides that a "Carta di identità" or equivalent documents of identification must be produced to the police on demand. "Equivalent documents" are defined as including any document carrying a photograph of the holder and issued by a State administration e.g. "libretto ferroviario" which is furnished to all civil and military state employees, "tessera di riconoscimento", tessera della M.V.S.N., driving licence, arms licence, passport or any other document in which the holder's identity is certified in writing by a department of the State administration.

4. It follows that no offence against Proc. No. 1 Art. II Sec. 41 is committed provided that the person concerned can produce some such "means of identification" as is indicated in the preceding paragraph. If it were desired to require all civilians to be in possession of a "carta di identità" as distinct from other documents of identity, a specific order to this effect would have to be issued either in respect of a whole area or of particular Communes, breach of which order would then constitute an offence under Proc. No. 1 Art. V Sec. 41 or 42. In this connection, however, the administrative difficulties involved in providing and issuing individual identity cards with or without photographs to large numbers of people should not be overlooked, especially in the Army area where the population is widely scattered and communal organisation has temporarily broken down.

5. Legal Officers will be guided by the foregoing considerations in dealing with any charge preferred in the Army area under Sec. 41.

SUBJECT : Establishment of Standing Court.

TO : AMG, 8th Army.

1. The SCAD when recently in Rome, spoke to me about the establishment of a standing court in 8th Army Area to dispose of espionage cases and I promised to consider the question of available officers at a conference of Regional Legal Officers arranged for 29 November.

2. I find that, if necessary, I can make available for such a court all or some of the following personnel and possibly one or two others,

- Col. M. G. Wilber*
- Lt Col Elder - subject to recall by PG, Liguria
- Lt Col Mercer - " " " " " Piemonte
- Maj Oates
- Maj Parlin
- Maj Clerum - relatively inexperienced in AMG
- Capt Peyton

3. Before taking any further steps, I would like to have it confirmed:

- a. That such a court is necessary, with available figures of the number of cases now pending and anticipated;
- b. What legal personnel you already have available for such a court;
- c. What extra personnel you will require;
- d. Where the court will be located. It should be established accessible to the prison in which the accused will be held.

4. It will be necessary to provide, for each case, a prosecuting officer, a defending officer, and three members of the court. The court should consist of at least two legal officers, but it is desirable from many points of view that the third member should be a lay member and preferably not an AMG officer.

5. If there are many cases to dispose of, it may be necessary to provide two prosecuting or defending officers; the court can then be in constant session and the prosecuting and defending officers can take alternate cases and when not engaged in court, can be preparing future cases. It is, therefore, imperative to make full use of any legal personnel you have available in your area.

6. A good interpreter will be essential. No doubt you will arrange for this?

Cases have come to notice in which officers prosecuting in AMG trials, and particularly in spy trials, have failed to bring before the Court all available evidence. The following instructions will therefore be brought to the notice of all officers who are called upon to prosecute in AMG Courts.

1. It is the duty of the prosecution to present to the Court all available relevant evidence whether such evidence is favourable or unfavourable to the accused.

- (a) that the accused was engaged in the clandestine collection of information; and

1. Immediately upon my return to Naples, I laid plans for the organization of civilian Port Courts at Piombino and Leghorn. Upon receipt of your previous communication, I had made plans to contact the legal officer in the Region concerned. However, my organization was relieved of responsibility of the two ports in question and I then wrote the Commanding Officer of the 10th Port sending him copies of the letter received from you. I had assumed that the 10th Port would continue the matter.

2. Upon receipt of your communication of the 5th of October, I endeavored to contact the Commanding Officer of the 10th Port but was unable to do so until today. He informs me that he thought his Judge Advocate had attended to the matter. I had given the name of the proper officer to contact.

3. I regret that I could not have continued the work in Piombino and Leghorn. I know you will find the 10th Port most cooperative in every way.

1. Art. 14, par. 3 of Consolidated Instructions for Allied Military Courts deals with trials in Allied Military Courts in which the charge is laid under Italian law and provides that in such cases the offence is punishable only as provided by Italian law."

2. In this connection your attention is drawn to the Penal Code, Art. 71 et seq and particularly to the following points:

a. Concurrent sentences do not exist under Italian law;

b. Where an accused is convicted of more than one offence and each of such offences carries a detentive punishment of the same kind, the Court must impose one term covering all charges on which he has been found guilty (see Art. 73);

c. Clearly, such term must be not less than the aggregate of the minimum penalties, and not greater than the aggregate of maximum penalties, provided for such offences; nor must it exceed the limits laid down in Art. 78;

d. Where an accused is similarly convicted, but the offences carry detentive punishments of a different kind (e.g., reclusioni, reclusioni militari, arresto and ergastolo), the Court must impose penalties of the different kinds separately and in full (see Art. 74).

SUBJECT : Applications for conditional liberty in AMG Court cases.
TO : Regional Level Officers (then Regional Commissioners) Regions I, IV, V, VI, VIII, IX, XI, XII; Southern, Piemonte and Liguria Regions.

1. Cases have occurred recently in which Italian judges have granted conditional liberty to persons convicted by AMG Courts. It is pointed out that during the continuance of the Allied Control Commission the Italian authorities have no jurisdiction to take such action. The position is clearly stated in the Ministerial Circular No. 26013 dated 24 April 1944 and addressed to all Procuratori Generali which provides that for the grant of pardon and conditional liberty

" Per i reati giudicati dai Tribunali Alleati, sia in territorio occupato che non occupato, la competenza spetta al Governo Alleato " .

(Offences tried by Allied Military Courts either in occupied or unoccupied territory will fall within the jurisdiction of the Allied Government).

2. This position is also clearly defined in para 2 of the Chief Legal Officer's Directive of 28 April 1944 reference as above.

3. Persons who have been convicted by AMG Courts but are serving their sentence in territory which either was at the time of conviction or later becomes Italian Government Territory do in fact submit petitions to the Minister of Grace and Justice. These cases are and, during the continuance of the Allied Control Commission, will continue to be referred by the Minister to the Legal Sub-Commission.

4. Executive Memorandum No. 72 para 2 (c) (i) and Consolidated Instructions Art. 26 (i) (c) provide that in the case of long sentences the Italian practice may operate and conditional liberty may be granted after a portion of the sentence has been served.

5. This is no departure from the principles expressed above and simply refers to the fact that after the Peace Treaty and/or the cessation of ACC the Minister of Justice will, in the absence of stipulation to the contrary, have full authority to deal with any application for pardon and conditional liberty in accordance with the normal Italian usage provided of course that he respects the integrity of the original sentence as if it had been imposed by an Italian Court. 41

MEMO TO: Colonel Cripps.

The question appears to have been raised as to whether AMG Courts should try partisans for murders of fascists such murders having been committed prior to occupation. While the occupying power may try in its courts crimes committed before occupation, because after occupation there is a dual court system, it has not been the practice since the early days of Sicily to try cases where crimes have been committed before occupation where civilians alone are involved. As a matter of fact, it has not generally been the practice in the many months for AMG Courts to try cases involving crime where the Allied interests, property or personnel, have not been affected irrespective of when the crime was committed. It seems, therefore, to me, that these cases must be left to the Italian Courts to deal with whether the crime was committed before or after occupation.

SUBJECT : AMG Courts - long term sentences.

TO : Regional Legal Officers (THRU Regional Commissioners), Regions I, Southern, IV, V, VI, VIII, IX and "Z".

1. a. In all General Military Court cases and in all Superior Court cases in which a total sentence in excess of 5 years is imposed, the Court will include as part of the record a statement of its findings on any material question of fact, particularly as to one which may be in dispute. It is not necessary that this statement be made to the public.

b. The object of this statement is to supply information to the reviewing authority. Frequently there is a serious conflict of evidence on some vital element in the case; e.g., in a case in which an Allied soldier is killed in a fight, the conduct of the soldier prior to the fight is most material; had he been behaving quietly or in a noisy or drunken way? had his manner been hostile or offensive? or had he actually threatened or used force against the accused or members of the accused's family? It is the duty of the Court, having heard the evidence and seen the witnesses, to decide such questions of fact. The statement is required to inform the reviewing authority of such decisions, it should be as short as possible provided that it fulfils the above requirements.

2. In any case in which a Court, for some special reason or on account of some special circumstances in that case, imposes a sentence either heavier or lighter than it would normally do in such a case, the Court will make a note on the record to that effect and will state the nature of such reason or circumstances.

3. The above instructions will be brought to the attention of all legal officers and copies for distribution are enclosed herewith.

SUBJECT : Powers of FLOs for release of prisoners pending review.
TO : Regional Legal Officers, Regions 3, 4, 5, 8, 9 & "Z".

1. At the conference of FLCs held at HQ ACC on 1 August 44 the point was raised that in cases where a short term of imprisonment is imposed, the term (or at least a substantial part of it) is frequently served before the Decision on Review can be communicated and thereby an injustice is caused if the reviewing authority considers the conviction wrong or the sentence excessive.

2. The point is one of substance, but it is not the policy to delegate the power of review below Regional H.Q. To meet the point Regional Legal Officers are authorised to instruct Provincial Legal Officers as follows :

3. (a) In any case in which a sentence of imprisonment of three months or less has been imposed by a Summary Military Court, a Provincial Legal Officer may order the release of the accused pending receipt of the Decision on Review if he is of opinion:-

- (i) that the accused has been wrongly convicted; or
- (ii) that the term of imprisonment will be reduced on Review to a period less than the time necessary to obtain a Decision on Review.

(b) Any such release will be on such terms and subject to such conditions as, in the opinion of the Provincial Legal Officer, are adequate to ensure the availability of the accused upon receipt of the Decision on Review.

(c) This power is discretionary; it will be used sparingly and only in cases where the opinion of the Provincial Legal Officer it is necessary to avoid a substantial injustice.

SUBJECT : Review of Sentences of A.M.Courts - Army Areas.

TO : C.S.O., Administrative Section.

1. In army areas so long as S.L.Os were present they performed review functions in connection with A.M.Court cases.

2. As the S.L.Os will be withdrawn as of August 1 it would seem natural that the reviews should henceforth be under the charge of the RLO of the particular region ^{introduce} ~~at~~ the particular army area ~~under which they will~~ fall. However, it appears that the two armies have put a strict embargo against the communications between specialists at Regional HQ and the specialists in army areas.

If this was strictly adhered to the review of Allied Military Court cases could not take place and it is necessary that the reviews be promptly made. I therefore suggest that at the meeting on Wednesday at HQ, AAI, you discuss this matter and request that legal officers in army areas be permitted to send to the RLOs of the particular regions into which the particular territory will fall cases for review as if, for this purpose only, the particular army area was already under Regional control.

PLO Tongia (TRLO: PO).

1. When persons are brought to trial on charges of some serious security offence such as espionage, sabotage or major subversive activities, it must be clearly understood by all concerned that all evidence required to support the prosecution's case must be given in court (a closed court may be ordered) and that full right of cross examination of witnesses on all relevant matters in the presence of the accused and their counsel must be permitted.
2. In the event that a substantial number of persons are involved in one particular offence and it does not appear that a reasonably strong case can be made against some of them or if they were found guilty sentences would likely be light, generally only the ring-leaders should be tried, the remainder being interned, if this is required by the security agencies, and not tried. The reason for this is that, where there are many accused each with his own counsel, the trial is unduly prolonged and complicated with no real substantial end accomplished as to the doubtful or minor offenders; with the limited personnel now available for Allied Military Courts it is obvious that long trials must be avoided whenever possible.
3. When such persons are brought to trial for such an offence, it is frequently necessary for reasons of security that such persons should be interned after the conclusion of the trial even in the event of their acquittal.
4. In such cases, the fact that the accused is not set at liberty when acquitted is liable to create an unfortunate impression. It is realized, however, that the requirements of security must override this consideration, and in order to dispell or forestall any misunderstanding or undue criticism, the following procedure should be followed.

5. When the Regional Security Agency which is responsible for bringing the case to trial considers that the accused should be interned even in the event of acquittal, this fact will be notified before the commencement of the trial to the President of the Court and to any other COS/AF officers who may be

2. In the event that a substantial number of persons are involved in one particular offense and it does not appear that a reasonably strong case can be made against some of them or if they were found guilty sentences would likely be light, generally only the ring-leaders should be tried, the remainder being interned, if this is required by the security agencies, and not tried. The reason for this is that, where there are many accused each with his own counsel, the trial is unduly prolonged and complicated with no real substantial end accomplished as to the doubtful or minor offenders; with the limited personnel now available for Allied Military Courts it is obvious that long trials must be avoided whenever possible.

3. When such persons are brought to trial for such an offence, it is frequently necessary for reasons of security that such persons should be interned after the conclusion of the trial even in the event of their acquittal.

4. In such cases, the fact that the accused is not set at liberty when acquitted is liable to create an unfortunate impression. It is realized, however, that the requirements of security must override this consideration, and in order to dispell or forestall any misunderstanding or undue criticism, the following procedure should be followed.

a. When the Iq or security agency which is responsible for bringing the case to trial considers that the accused should be interned even in the event of acquittal, this fact will be notified before the commencement of the trial to the President of the Court and to any other AGO/JMG officers who may be directly concerned with the case. It will then be made quite clear to the accused, at the opening of the Court, that, if he is acquitted of the charges preferred against him, he will nevertheless be interned immediately after the trial, as he is considered a danger to Allied security. It will be explained to him that internment is distinct from imprisonment.

b. At the conclusion of the trial it will be the responsibility of the Iq or security agency concerned to arrange for the accused, after his acquittal, to be moved under escort from the Court to the nearest PW Camp or Camp for evacuation to J71 PW Camp. He should NOT be returned to prison.

1. When any person is convicted by an Allied Military Court of an offence under Italian Law, it is imperative that the Court should annex as part of the Record a short judgment setting out briefly

- (a) the findings of the Court on questions of fact which may amount to mitigating or aggravating circumstances
- (b) the provision of law under which the accused was convicted including any aggravating or mitigating circumstances which have been taken into consideration in deciding the sentence of the Court.

2. Unless the above is complied with it is impossible to carry out a proper review: e.g. a case recently came up for Review, accompanied by a petition alleging that the sentence was above the permitted maximum in view of the existence of certain mitigating circumstances. The existence (or otherwise) of these mitigating circumstances was a pure question of fact: but the record on its face did not show that the Court had addressed its mind to, or decided on, this question of fact.

3. Please ensure that this is communicated to all officers concerned. It applies equally to trials in Military Government Territory and to any trials which may be ordered by this H. Q. in Italian Government Territory.

1. Reference your L-2210 dated 21 July 1944.
2. I approve entirely of the programme outlined in paragraph 3 of your letter. Naturally it will be necessary for one of your officers to instruct the Italian Courts when necessary and to see that they properly dispose of the cases so assigned for trial. Likewise it is important for such officer to follow the cases from the standpoint of sentences so that we may be assured that the sentences imposed by Italian Courts are made to measure up with those that would be given under the same circumstances by A.M.C. Courts.
3. As to what you state in paragraph 4 of your letter, I believe you misunderstand the directions contained in paragraph 5 of Executive Memorandum No. 69. In the first place presumably you would not issue a Regional Order relative to transfer of additional cases to the Italian Courts, that being merely a matter for you to decide in conference with your legal officers. Secondly the provision referred to was to prevent the issue of Regional Orders which in specific language provide for the trial of the Regional Order offense by either Allied Military Court or Italian Court. While there is some ground for taking the position that if an Italian Court takes jurisdiction of a case it tries it on the basis of a violation of an A.M.C. Order rather than corresponding Italian Law nevertheless the better thought is that in Italian Courts cases should be tried under corresponding Italian Law.

1. In view of the impending further reduction of the legal officers in this Region it is essential to reduce further the load carried by AMG Courts in the Commune of Naples.

2. The transfer of cases to the Italian Courts effected by Administrative Instruction No.45, dated 15 June 44, has already removed a large number of cases from AMG Courts but there still remain in Naples Commune some 20 Summary Court cases a day apart from the Port Court. If these are to be tried by AMG courts it will mean that one officer's time will be devoted entirely to the trial of these cases and he will have to be assisted, part time, by another. This will amount to a large proportion of the remaining strength of this Division.

3. It is accordingly recommended that every charge of an offence against any AMG Proclamation or Order occurring in the Commune of Naples be tried by an Italian Court unless the charge is, in the opinion of a judicial officer or a public safety officer of AMG (to be given on the facts before him), sufficiently serious to warrant the charge being laid directly before a Superior Military Court or a General Military Court.

4. Having regard to paragraph 5 of ACC Executive Memorandum No.66 dated 4 July 44, reference 17/43/CA, the approval of ACC is necessary to the recommendation set out in para 3 above. May this approval be given please.

Provincial Legal Officers will therefore report to the R.I.O. any such cases that come to their notice, giving the names of the personnel concerned, their units, the nature of the offence, the punishment awarded, and any comments it is desired to make on the adequacy or otherwise of the punishment.

76. Court Record of Punishments.

(a) The following procedure has been agreed between the Legal Division and the Public Safety Division, and identical instructions are being circulated to all Public Safety and Police Officers.

(b) The object is to ensure that all orders made by an Allied Military Court are in fact carried out--i.e. that fines are paid, that persons condemned to imprisonment do actually reach the prison, or that persons ordered to be released are in fact released.

(c) For this purpose there will be maintained in each Summary Court a book containing a record of all punishments inflicted by the court. Pro forma of the book is annexed hereto as Appendix I. Copies of books are being circulated by the Public Safety Division to all Provincial Commissioners for distribution to Courts.

(d) The first group of columns will be entered at the time of trial by the prosecutor, or if more convenient by the judge's clerk, but must be initialled personally by the judge. These columns record the case No., the name of the accused and the punishment actually awarded.

(e) The case No. will be the number allotted by the prosecutor or by the representative of the police at the time of the arrest or issue of the summons, and this number should already be entered in the top right-hand corner of the summons or charge sheet. (Note. It does not follow that cases will be tried in the exact order in which they arise, and consequently it cannot be expected that case numbers will necessarily run consecutively in the book.)

(f) As stated in the consolidated Instructions it will be necessary for the judge to complete Form 6 in every case in which an accused is sentenced to imprisonment. Similarly, in every case in which an accused already under arrest is to be released, a Form 12 must be completed.

(g) On receipt of a prisoner, or group of prisoners, the prison officer will make a return to the Court; on the pro forma annexed as Appendix II, acknowledging receipt of the prisoner or prisoners. Similarly upon the release of a prisoner (whether on acquittal or on completion of sentence) the prison officer will make a return to the Court on the Pro forma annexed as Appendix III.

(h) On receipt of these forms from the prison, the Prosecutor will satisfy himself that the Court's orders have in fact been carried out, and the necessary entry will be made in the subsequent columns of the Court Record Book in respect of each case.

(i) Similarly, where the sentence of the court con-which they arise, and consequently that case numbers will necessarily run consecutively in the book.)

(f) As stated in the Consolidated Instructions it will be necessary for the judge to complete Form 6 in every case in which an accused is sentenced to imprisonment. Similarly, in every case in which an accused already under arrest is to be released, a Form 12 must be completed.

(g) On receipt of a prisoner, or group of prisoners, the prison officer will make a return to the Court, on the pro forma annexed as Appendix II, acknowledging receipt of the prisoner or prisoners. Similarly upon the release of a prisoner (whether on acquittal or on completion of sentence) the prison officer will make a return to the Court on the pro forma annexed as Appendix III.

(h) On receipt of these forms from the prison, the prosecutor will satisfy himself that the Court's orders have in fact been carried out, and the necessary entry will be made in the subsequent columns of the Court Record Book in respect of each case.

(i) Similarly, where the sentence of the court consists in, or includes, a fine, the payment of the fine will be entered in the book, immediately on payment if the fine is paid to the Court, or on receipt of notice from the Finance Office where, as in large centres like Rome, it may be necessary to establish a central office for the payment of fines.

(j) For easy reference afterwards it is necessary, when completing Form 6 or Form 12, that the judge endorse in the top right-hand corner (a) the case No. allotted by the Police and (b) the book, page and line of the entry in the Court Book -- e.g. "1/10/4", meaning Book 1, Page 10, Line 4.

(k) Similarly all records of cases forwarded to the R.L.O. for examination and review (i.e. Forms 2, 4 or 8, whichever is used, and Form 11 in case of Petitions) will be endorsed in the top right hand corner with the case No. and the Book, page and line of the Entry in the Court Record Book. This will afford means of easy reference in case of future correspondence and when the decision on review is received.

(1) General Courts and Superior Courts, being permanent Courts, will not maintain Court Record Books of their own. The records of punishments inflicted by the and of the carrying out of such punishments, will be entered by the prosecuting officer in the Court Record Book of the Summary Court whose Court room is used for the hearing of the General or Superior Court.

77. Publicity and Propaganda.

The taking of photographs; moving or still, of any proceedings of an Allied Military Court or of any service personnel engaged in any capacity in such proceedings or the taking of a sound recording of any such proceedings will not be permitted.

1. Confirming conversation, Col. Upjohn - Lt.Col. Michie recently
I wish to assure you

- (a) That Allied Military Courts try cases involving Allied personnel and interests impartially whichever of the Allied Forces are involved and that no distinction is made between whether an injury be done to a British, U.S., French or other personnel.
- (b) The principles on which the Court acts are set out in the Consolidated Instructions for Allied Military Courts. In particular everyone tried before the Court is (unlike the presumption of guilt at the trial under continental systems) presumed innocent until he is found guilty beyond a reasonable doubt and the sentence, where the accused is found guilty, is appropriate to all the circumstances of the case: see the principles fully set out in Art 26 of the Consolidated Instructions. There is no question of a Court erring on the side of leniency or on the other hand of undue severity. The sentence is made appropriate in each case bearing in mind the necessity for a deterrent sentence.

I. Attached are 3 cases tried before one of your Summary Courts together with your respective comments thereon.

2. I endorse these comments. In former cases heard by this officer and reviewed by me it has seemed that the sentences were inadequate.

3. The question asked by the court in the IOTYI MARIO case is particularly disturbing. He says "If Army personnel can not be controlled how can AMU be expected to control civilian personnel?"

4. The answer is simple. By AMU courts imposing sentences of sufficient severity that some will deter others from acquiring W.D. property.

5. Undersigned has tried or supervised the trial of thousands of such cases within the past 10 months. During that entire time, all through Sicily and Italy troops have been scattering W.D. property about the countryside in violation of Army regulations and published orders. That such practice impedes our war effort is not a matter of argument, it has been so stated by Commanding Generals whose command embraces both troops and AMU.

6. On two different occasions, to the knowledge of undersigned, Eighth Army Routine orders have carried a stern injunction to troop commanders to discipline personnel who violate regulations by selling, bartering or giving away W.D. property.

7. Undersigned has visited several times the A.C.C., Eighth Army, in company with other officers of this HQ and on one occasion in company with the C.I.O., for the purpose of discussing this problem, emphasizing the widespread disregard of regulations as discovered by AMU courts and asking for greater efforts on the part of troop commanders to control the troops. Each of such visits has resulted in action tending to reduce such violations. In view of the foregoing, the question of whether or not troop commanders are doing their full duty is not properly a subject of debate or criticism on our part. They have their own problems.

8. Upon first occupation of your Province this HQ presented to the acting Provincial a letter setting forth certain violation offenses, such as wire cutting and possession of W.D. property, which our experience had shown would likely be committed by his people without their assignment of the seriousness of the offense or of the severity of the punishment which of sufficient severity that same will deter others from acquiring W.D. property.

5. Undersigned has tried or supervised the trial of thousands of such cases within the past 10 months. During that entire time, all through Sicily and Italy troops have been scattering W.D. property about the countryside in violation of Army regulations and published orders. That such practice impedes our war effort is not a matter of argument, it has been so stated by Commanding Generals whose command embraces both troops and MG.

6. On two different occasions, to the knowledge of undersigned, Eighth Army Routine orders have carried a stern injunction to troop commanders to discipline personnel who violate regulations by selling, bartering or giving away W.D. property.

7. Undersigned has visited several times the A.S.G., Eighth Army, in company with other officers of this HQ and on one occasion in company with the C.L.O., for the purpose of discussing this problem, emphasizing the widespread disregard of regulations as discovered by MG courts and asking for greater efforts on the part of troop commanders to control the troops. Each of such visits has resulted in action tending to reduce such violations. In view of the foregoing, the question of whether or not troop commanders are doing their full duty is not properly a subject of debate or criticism on our part. They have their own problems.

8. Upon first occupation of your Province this HQ presented to the Acting Archbishop a letter setting forth certain proclamation offences, such as wire cutting and possession of W.D. property, which our experience had shown would likely be committed by his people without their appreciation of the seriousness of the offense or of the severity of the punishment which would follow. He in turn wrote a communication to each Priest within his Archdiocese warning of the seriousness of the offenses and their consequences. This letter was read in every church in every Mass every day for two weeks. This is standard operating procedure of this H.Q. upon occupation of any territory.

9. All officers acting as Summary Courts within Eighth Army area are sitting in the capacity of Army officers and their duties and obligations are entirely different from those of a civil judge at home. They are subject to orders which must be obeyed.

10. These orders are to impose sentences which will be a deterrent to others. The objective is to further the success of the campaign. It is an officer's command that it in his conscience to carry out such orders he should be relieved from duty as a Court Officer. This H.Q. should be advised in such instances in order that such relief may be effected by the Officer Commanding.

11. This subject has been dealt with at some length for the information and guidance of all officers sitting as Courts or as members thereof while under Command of this H.Q.

Dear,

Further to our conversation in Naples a day or two ago. The Chief Legal Officer has the question of your extra transport very much in mind. He is awaiting your report as to alternative accommodation (he understands you have inspected the Albergo dei Poveri) and is then going to take up both questions together with the Chief Commissioner.

I have also discussed with the CLO your ideas as to maintaining the Allied military Courts in Naples with personnel supplied by P. B. S. For reasons which it is not for me to go into here, it has been decided that such a solution is not acceptable and that the progressive transference of more and more work to the Italian courts must be accepted and proceeded with as quickly as possible.

The whole question of prostitutes and the "Prostitutes Court" is under consideration at this HQ, and I hope that the question will be taken up between HQ ACC and P.B.S.

You will, of course, receive word on these subjects through normal channels: this is which way things are likely to go.

1. I would refer to your letter of the 9th April, 44, ACC/4002/1, with attached Appendix 'A'. In para 3 (a) (3) there would appear to be a discrimination against S.C.A.Os and S.I.Os of Amies.

2. Why this H.Q. be informed why right of review can be given to Regions despite appeal, whereas S.C.A.Os and S.I.Os of Amies can only review when there is no appeal.

37. General and Superior Courts.
 Paragraph 3 of Legal Instructions No. 1 is amended to read as follows:-
"Appointment of General and Superior Courts.
 "(a) General Military Courts are established by the Chief Commissioner, H.C., A.C.C.. Applications for the appointment of a General Military Court will be addressed, through the R.L.O., to the C.L.O., H.C., A.C.C., and will specify:-
 (i) the nature of the charges;
 (ii) the date on which the prosecution will be ready to proceed with the case;
 (iii) the names of the officers available to sit on the court;

(lv) the names of the prosecuting officer, interpreter, and officers available to act for the defence in the event of the accused not being represented by Counsel;

(v) the expected duration of the case.

"(b) Superior Military Courts are constituted by the P.C., to whom your applications should be directed, together with your recommendations as to the members. The following Directive issued by H.Q., S.C.C., will be strictly complied with:-

"(i) Except where a judicial officer is specially authorised by the C.L.O., HQ S.C.C. to sit alone as a Superior Military Court, a Superior Military Court, shall consist of at least two officers, one of whom shall be a judicial officer. Application for such special authorisation may be made forthwith accompanied by a statement of the officer's experience and qualifications.

"(ii) Every Superior Court shall be properly convened by the S.C.A.O. of the province in which the court shall sit.

"(iii) In no case shall an officer while sitting as a Summary Court assume the powers of a Superior Court by an announcement to that effect or otherwise. If the case which he is hearing as a Summary Court proves to be one which should be dealt with by a Superior Court, the officer shall remit the case for trial by a Superior Court and a Superior Court will be duly convened. Such Summary Court Officer is not disqualified from sitting as a member of the Superior Court to try the case so remitted.

 Paragraph 22 of Legal Instructions No. 1 is amended by the deletion of Sub-paragraph (c), for which the following is substituted:-

"(c) Petitions will be reviewed by the Chief Commissioner A.C.C., or an officer appointed by him, and will be forwarded by the Provincial Legal Officer to the R.L.O. for onward transmission. 39. Procedure in Allied Military Courts.
 The following directive from H.Q., A.C.C., dated 10 Feb. 44, is quoted for your information and compliance by all Allied Military Courts:-

"(1) Attention is called to the statement in Special Administrative Instruction Legal No. 1 that "It is as important that justice should seem to be done as that it should be done". Every care should be taken:

(i) to ensure not only that judges are impartial but that they appear to be impartial alike to prosecution and defense. No officer who has taken part in the investigation of any case (other than merely determining whether the case is suitable for trial by a General, Superior or Summary Court) is eligible to hear that case;

(ii) to ensure that the evidence is fairly and accurately interpreted, particularly where evidence for the prosecution is given in a language other than Italian. The judge should address his remarks directly to the witness and the interpreter should interpret literally the judge's words. Interpreters should not be allowed to frame questions and answers unless they give merely the purport of questions and answers.

(iii) A time limit for speeches should not be imposed on defending advocates, but they may be directed to confine themselves to arguments based on facts adduced in evidence.

40. Disposal of Property

It is important to ensure that property seized in connection with any case before Allied Military Courts is not disposed of otherwise than in pursuance of the order of the Court. If in an exceptional case it is necessary to dispose of the property in advance of trial (e.g. on the ground that it consists of goods of a perishable nature or of stores urgently required for operational purposes), a certificate of the officer ordering such disposal must be attached to the Record of Proceedings, together with a receipt signed by the authority taking delivery of the property. Otherwise property will remain at the disposal of the Court, who may order (a) restitution to the accused, (b) restitution to the true owner, or (c) forfeiture to A.M.G. In the last-named event the order should specify the officer or organisation to whom the property is consigned. In all cases a receipt must be obtained from the person taking delivery and attached to the Record of Proceedings, and the Record itself must contain a note of the order made.

41. Trial in Camera

(a) Except in unusual and compelling circumstances all trials before Allied Military Courts should be open to the public.

(b) Any Allied Military Court, however, has power to direct that a trial may be conducted in camera. The Chief Commissioner and also the Reg. Com. have similar powers.

(c) If it is obvious to the judge at any time during the trial that the evidence to be given may prejudice the security of the Allied Forces, he should spontaneously order the case to be heard in camera, in whole or in part, as may be required.

41. Trial in Camera

(a) Except in unusual and compelling circumstances all trials before Allied Military Courts should be open to the public.

(b) Any Allied Military Court, however, has power to direct that a trial may be conducted in camera. The Chief Commissioner and also the Reg. Com. have similar powers.

(c) If it is obvious to the judge at any time during the trial that the evidence to be given may prejudice the security of the Allied Forces, he should spontaneously order the case to be heard in camera, in whole or in part, as may be required.

(d) Where application is made that a trial be conducted wholly or in part in camera, the judge, if satisfied as to the reasonableness of the application, should so order. If the judge is not so satisfied, he should postpone the hearing and submit the circumstances, through the Provincial Legal Officer and the R.L.O., to the R.C. for decision.

(e) Whenever a case has been heard, wholly or in part in camera, a report is required from the presiding judge, giving the reasons for such trial in camera and stating on whose application the trial was so conducted. If the judge is of the opinion that it was in fact unnecessary to hear the case in camera, he will so state in his report, giving reasons for his opinion. The report of the presiding judge will be addressed to the Chief Legal Officer, A.C.C., and forwarded through the Provincial Legal Officer and the R.L.O.

42. Mail Theft Cases

All cases where theft of Allied Mail is alleged will be most carefully investigated, and the offence if proved will be punished with the utmost severity. The following special instructions apply to cases of mail theft:-

(a) Such cases will normally be remanded for trial before a General Military Court;

b) No bail will be granted at all, except in the light of most unusual circumstances, and then the amount will be fixed so high as to render it most unlikely that the accused will fail to be present at his trial;

(c) A special report will be rendered by the presiding officer, through the Provincial Legal Officer, to the F.I.C. setting out full details of the case.

43. Meaning of the phrase "Allied Forces"

The following directive from Chief Legal Officer, H.Q. A.C.C., dated 29 Feb. 44, is quoted for your information and compliance by all Allied Military Courts:-

"The question has recently arisen as to proclamation offences against members of armed forces such as Yugoslav and Polish contingents and the Corps Expeditionnaire Francaise who are fighting on the Allied side in Italy and the following directive is issued for your guidance.

"1. The expression "Allied Forces" when used in Proclamation No. 2 and other relevant proclamations in describing offences against the Allied Forces will be construed to include organized contingents of other nationalities (such as the above) who are under the command of C in C Italy.

" This does not include Italian troops who are only combatants and who in any event have ample resources in their own courts for punishing offenders.

"2. In some cases e.g. Proclamation 2 Art II Sec 30 a different wording is used and in this case the normal construction will be used and if for instance words disrespectful to members of the C.E.F. are used it is not an offence under that section.

"3. Allied Military Courts have no jurisdiction over members of the "Allied Forces" (Proc 4 Art. II Sec 2 (a)) and Courts will not therefore try members of organized contingents of armed forces of other nationalities who are under the command of C in C Italy. This does not preclude trial in A.M. Courts (1) of soldiers of other nationalities who are not in an organized body under the C in C. (2) of Italian soldiers but normally and in the absence of some reason to the contrary they will be handed over to their own Military Courts for trial."

44. Provision of Interpreters.

Attention is directed to Regional Circular No. 2, dated

(b) The R.G. will look to Provincial Commissioners for information and recommendations with regard to such cases. Provincial Legal Officers are, therefore, required to do their utmost, in collaboration with Provincial Public Safety Officers, to assist Provincial Commissioners in obtaining information with regard to such cases.

(c) The above instructions are in amplification of those contained in Legal Instructions No. 1, paragraph 2(b)(vi). Any information with regard to the above points should be brought to notice in the Provincial Legal Officer's monthly report.

46. Right of Pardon.

(a) The following directive from H.Q., G.C.O., dated 7 February 44, is quoted for your information with regard to procedure in occupied territory in connection with petitions for pardon.

"1. During the period of Military Occupation the exercise of the powers of the Crown of Italy are suspended and all powers of government and jurisdiction in the Occupied Territory and final administrative responsibility are vested in the Military Governor (Paragraph 1). Accordingly the power of pardon vested in the King of Italy is suspended during the period of Military Occupation, and in consequence petitions for pardon, should be addressed through channels to the Military Governor and not to the King.

"2. The Military Governor may deal with petitions for pardon whether the offense on which sentence was before or after occupation.

"3. The procedure and channels to be pursued are the same as under usual Italian Practice save only that the documents will be forwarded to the Regional Commissioner in lieu of the Minister of Justice, and the Regional Commissioner, acting upon the advice of the R.C.I.O., will forward the same to the G.I.O. HQ. ASC for transmission to the Military Governor.

"4. The subject of provisional or conditional liberty pending consideration of petition of pardon is fully covered by previous directives (see memorandum on Italian petitions for pardon.

"4. The subject of provisional or conditional liberty pending consideration of petition of pardon is fully covered by previous Directives (see memorandum on Italian Courts and Legal Set Up; appendix A).

"5. For your information the following is the Italian Procedure in connection with application for pardons and is to be followed subject, however, to the foregoing (i.e. Pardons will be addressed to the Regional Commissioner).

"The request for Royal Pardon is addressed to the King but forwarded to the Minister of Justice. It must be signed by the prisoner, a near relative, his guardian or his legal attorney.

"The request in stamped paper, can be presented to the competent Procuratore del Re, or Proctore, as the case may be for transmission to the Minister, with all information available about the case and comments.

"It can be also done through the Director of the Prison where the prisoner is serving his sentence.

"The King acts on the formal recommendation of the Minister.

"6. It is the duty of the R.C.I.O. to bring the contents of this directive to the notice of all Directors of prisons, Procuratore del Re' and Pretore in his Region."

46. Right of Parion (continued)

(b) Provincial Legal Officers will be responsible for bringing the contents of the above directive to the notice of all Directors of Prisons, Procuratori del Re, and Pretori within their respective Provinces.
