TO: Sir General Morgan

I, the undersigned, Genoveffa Sabbadin, married to Fagiani, take the liberty to send you my pleading for a curtailment of the term given to my son Rino. He was given a 10 year-term by the Bologna Court-Martial which he is serving in the 32nd M.F. and D.B.

I dare not discuss the righteousness of this sentence but, being a mother with the heart overflowing with affection and tenderness for my son I take the liberty to appeal to your heart and entreat you, for the sake of your well-known magnanimity and justice, to return my beloved son to my motherly care.

I point out to you that my husband is unable to perform proficient work while another son of mine is suffering from an incurable disease and that, for the foregoing reasons, a numerous and destitute family is dependent on myself.

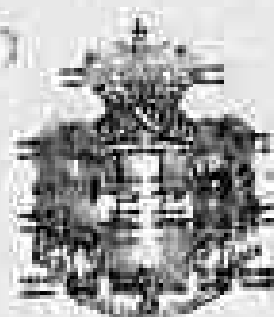

In the cherished hope that you will take my case at heart I send you the expressions of my profound gratitude. 32

Subject: Offences committed by Allied soldiers.

The "Procuratore Generale" of the Court of Appeal of Bari has sent to the Ministry of Pardon and Justice on the 16th inst. the following letter N° 13526:
Beginning from the very first days of the present year, all files relating to offences committed by Allied soldiers to the detriment of Allied citizens have been forwarded, in accordance with Allied orders, to the "U. S. Claims Commission", if the guilty soldiers were American, and to "Claims and Hirings", if they were British.

It was subsequently ordered that these files should be forwarded to the "Claims Office" of D. C. C. O. at Padova.

However, since September last, several "Procuratori della Repubblica" of this district have reported that the files forwarded to the a/p.m. office

t. o. p.

were returned, due to the absence of the addressee.

Therefore, your Ministry is requested to indicate the competent Allied Office, to which the files should be forwarded."

This Legal Division is urgently requested to furnish the Ministry with the necessary elements, in order that they may answer to the "Procura Generale" of Bari.

For the Minister
