1. The Director of Property Control has decided that copies of Proclamation No. 6 (old style) should be posted in Poggia and Campobasso Provinces, since this has not already been done.
2. No copy of this Proclamation is available at this H.Q. and it would be appreciated if you could therefore send 50 copies as soon as possible.
3. You will recollect that the new style proclamations are not being posted in these provinces and therefore the old style No. 6 should be forwarded.

A signal has been received from A.P.H.Q. requesting particulars from this H.Q. as to the supply of proclamations and forms required in 5th and 8th Army areas.

2. A form is, accordingly, enclosed for completion and return in respect of your Army area. The return is only needed in respect of proclamations, etc., which will be required by you over and above your present stock.

3. Owing to the time which it takes to get printing done and to arrange transport the return should cover your estimated requirements to 31 Jan. 44.

4. It is appreciated that requirements will depend on the rate of advance and that any estimate will be very rough; however, it will enable this H.Q. to have available a reasonable stockpile to meet your requirements as and when they arise, and save constant reprintings.
