Pr-tola 4411000 20-3-1949

The under-signed Di Neo Lucia, resident in via Cesare Battisti n:4, Portola Palisna, Aquila, applies to the Commission in order to obtain the release of her husband Di Neo Turcato, son of late Donato, who is from 3 months prisoner in the Judicial Partisan prison of Sulmona, with the accusation to have pillaged together with the partisan Dante Liberatore, a store, belonging to the Germans. He says as follows:

"The store in the country has been pillaged by the population taking care of your Radio communications. Therefore my husband had to leave on the 25 September for the line and breach the Maiella brigade, but in the evening of the 23 was arrested by G.D.R.R., while the partisan Liberatore was not arrested because he left on the 17 September.

My husband soon after the armistice helped some English prisoners who escaped from the concentration camps: he robbed from the German car guns and bullets who brought to the partisans, and when he was obliged to hide himself in order to avoid the German persecutions.

My economical conditions are terrible. I have sold all what I had, enclosing linen, but now I cannot go on, and I apply to you in order to obtain his release."

Hoping for a favourable consideration.
