1. Reference is made to your G-5: 383.4 of 24 July 45.
2. There appears to be a misunderstanding between us.
3. We were of opinion that the procedure in your directive of 18 January 45 was intended to apply only to cases of death sentences upon spies and similar personnel who could not, for security reasons, be executed by Italian authorities. In such cases we agree entirely with the directives.
4. A case has now arisen, and several more appear probable, in which a death sentence has been imposed for murder and kindred offences. There appears to be no reason why such persons should not be executed by the Italian CC.FR. or police agencies according to normal Italian custom. In this case there would seem to be no need to trouble your HQ or the military authorities.
5. However the directive of 18 January 45 is stated to apply to "any person".
6. We wished to know whether this was, or is, intended to cover cases of the type mentioned in para 4.

Reference your AC/4040/L of 28 May 45.

1. It is agreed that the procedure set out in the first three paragraphs of your letter substantially represents the policy of this HQ.
2. It has already been decided not to proceed with the preparation of cases of agents due for trial by AMG courts at the time of the surrender who had not been formally committed. The persons concerned have in fact either been made over to the Italian authorities for trial by Italian Tribunals or else interned.
3. In the case of other agents apprehended before the surrender it is not intended to recommend trial by AMG courts. Such persons will be offered to the Italians for trial by Italian Tribunals if the merits of the case warrant it. If no case can be made against them they will then be interned. The same general principle will apply in the case of post-surrender arrests. Only in the event of acts of espionage, sabotage or subversion of a more serious nature, perpetrated since the surrender, will the culprits be recommended for trial by AMG courts provided there are reasonable prospects of the prosecution being successful.

1. This Commission understands that there are a number of persons who have been arrested by allied security agencies as enemy agents and whom it was originally intended to bring to trial before AMG Courts but who have not yet been formally committed for such trial.
2. It is believed to be your view with which this Commission fully concurs that it is no longer necessary or desirable for persons who were apprehended before the conclusion of hostilities to be brought to trial. It is understood that you have in fact issued orders that all such persons be interned.
3. Naturally if any persons are apprehended in the future who have been guilty of acts of espionage since the conclusion of hostilities such persons will be brought to trial in the usual way.
4. It would be appreciated if this Commission could be officially informed that the above policy represents the views of your Headquarters, in order that an appropriate disposition may be made of the very limited number of legal officers at the disposal of this Commission some of whom might otherwise have to be kept available for the trial of the enemy agents who have not yet been tried.

1. We will inform G-2 of your requirements before trial, namely:
 - a. 21 days notice of the date on which the prosecution case will be ready for trial.
 - b. where the crime took place in Italian Government territory, the documents in the case.
 - c. the present address of the accused and witnesses.
 - d. transfer of the accused to the place of trial at least 7 days before trial.
2. With regard to para 4 of your letter it appears that para 4 of our letter of 16 April may have been misunderstood. The officers available to static HQs and Replacement depots will normally be a floating population and further it is difficult to anticipate military requirements; therefore it would be impracticable to detail individual officers in advance of your requirements. It is the intention that when a court is known to be required you should arrange locally with the most appropriate HQ for the loan of suitable officers in the same manner as additional officers are obtained for the Naples courts (British Area HQs normally keep a roster of officers in the area with legal experience -- primarily with a view to providing suitable defending officers for Courts Martial). Your estimated requirements were requested so that instructions could be issued by this HQ to the appropriate HQs and some indication given to them of your probable requests.

3. Reference para 5 of your letter DJAG has stated as follows:

"I regret it is impossible for me to lend Lt-Col. Raphael as suggested in para 5 of AC letter of 19 April.

I had agreed to release this officer to A.C. for permanent employment as Chief Judicial Officer subject to the approval of the Judge Advocate General.

In that event a replacement could have been made as there would have been a vacancy on establishment.

The Judge Advocate General, however, would not agree to release and I cannot therefore spare him."

SUBJECT : Trial of espionage and sabotage cases.

3-MAG 1945

TO : VP, CA Sec.

1. The surrender of the German forces in Italy raises the question of the desirability of continuing the trials in AMG Courts of enemy espionage and sabotage agents.
2. The purpose of these trials, and of the heavy sentences imposed, is to be deterrent and to protect the security of the Allied Forces.
3. There are at present a large number of agents who have been apprehended and whose cases are being prepared by the security authorities but are not yet ready for trial. It is suggested that in present conditions in Italy there can be no object, on security grounds, in the trial of any offenders previously apprehended, and still less in the imposition of death sentences. This argument will apply more strongly when hostilities are officially declared to have ended throughout Europe.
4. Naturally, if offences of this kind are committed in the future, the offenders must be tried in AMG Courts, and if an investigation of any offences already committed suggests that a group of enemy agents is likely to be still at large and active in AMG Territory, it may be desirable to proceed with these trials for deterrent purposes. In other circumstances, however, it is suggested that the trials of enemy agents by AMG Courts could safely be discontinued.
5. It should be observed that in the case of all agents who are Italian subjects, charges of collaborating with the Germans can be preferred by the Italian Courts under the Fascist Sanctions decree. It would seem to be more satisfactory for such persons to be handed over to the Italian Courts than to be tried by AM Courts.
6. The present situation also raises the question of the confirmation of the death sentence in some 5 espionage cases which are at present awaiting review. While the death sentence is recognized as the normal deterrent penalty for these cases in war, the necessity for such deterrent action has presumably ceased and it is for consideration whether all sentences not so far executed should not be commuted. It would be appreciated if the Chief Commissioner could be asked to give a decision on this policy, particularly in view of the typing and other work involved in the preparation of these cases for review by him.

SUBJECT : Trial of Espionage Cases.
TO : AFHQ, G-5.

1. The assistance indicated in your G-5 85.4 of 16 April 1945 is appreciated.
2. In order that the necessary courts for the trial of alleged spies may be convened from time to time and the estimated requirements for such courts detailed, it will be necessary for G-2 to forward to the Legal Sub-Commission in each case :-
 - a. The proposed date at which all prosecution witnesses will be made available for trial. Not less than 21 days notice of this date should be given in view of the time necessary for (a) communicating with the state to be concerned and securing the loan of the necessary legal officers, (b) making arrangements for the holding of the court and the consequential postponement of other work, (c) the defending officer to interview the accused and secure the attendance of the defence witnesses, if any.
 - b. The documents in the case, in order that where the crime took place in Italian Government territory the trial may be duly authorized and the charges correctly settled in accordance with Italian law.
 - c. Any information available as to the present addresses of the accused and the witnesses in order that the most convenient place in AMG territory may be selected for the trial.
3. In order that unnecessary delays may be avoided in such cases it will probably be necessary for the accused to be transported to the proposed place of trial at least 7 days before the actual date of trial in order to give time for the defending officer to prepare the defence and secure the attendance of the defence witnesses.
4. It is noted that legal officers may be loaned on a "short term" basis. It will obviously be an advantage if the same legal officers could be detailed from time to time and it is suggested that this Commission be informed of the Station and identity of the officers proposed, as this may well be an important factor in fixing the place of trial.

5. It is believed that the JAG, Col Lord Russell of Liverpool, might be prepared to loan Lt.Col. Raphael for work on these courts on a temporary basis. Could this be considered, please?

Q6A

17 APR 1945

Reference your AC/4040/L dated 6 April.

1. From the beginning of AMG, the trial of spies has been accepted as a Military Government concern and the procedure and practice is well established and well known. Proclamation No. 1 in Italy recognizes espionage as the first crime against the Allied Military and provides for trial of such cases in AMG Courts. As recognized by G-2, valuable assistance to the Military has been rendered by AMG in this respect.
2. At this stage of the campaign it is most undesirable to start trying spies by court martial. Among the reasons against doing so are:
 - a. Every effort should be made by AMG to relieve the military of additional tasks. To shift the burden to courts martial would impair the excellent record of AMG in this respect.
 - b. Various unnecessary difficulties will arise as to the composition, procedure, rules of evidence etc., of courts martial.
3. It is therefore considered that the trial of spies should continue to be the responsibility of AMG.
4. It may well be that you would find it helpful to have assistance from other Army branches of additional officers with legal background to sit on AMG courts. In principle G-1 British and American are favorably disposed to the issue of instructions to static headquarters and replacement depots to lend you officers with legal background on a short term basis if military considerations allow. Before issuing such instructions they will require to know details of your estimated requirements, including particularly the areas where and periods during which you are likely to require them.
5. The place of trial is for AMG authorities to decide, having due regard to the convenience of those responsible for producing the accused and the witnesses. G-2 is being informed that, owing to withdrawal of Allied Commission personnel in Italian Government territory, some inconvenience to them with regard to place of trial must be expected.

6. Your difficulties are appreciated but it is considered that AMC must continue to support the military in their successful efforts to combat enemy espionage.

SUBJECT : A.M.G. Courts - ROME.

TO : AFHQ, G-5 Section.

1. In reply to your G-5: 250-5-5 of 3 April 1945 the desirability for espionage cases to be heard before military tribunals is fully appreciated.

2. The trial of spies is basically a military and not a military government concern, and the normal procedure would be for such cases to be heard by Courts Martial. A.M.G. undertook, at a time when a reasonable supply of A.M.G. legal officers was available, to render assistance to the military formations concerned by providing courts for these cases; this Commission is naturally ready and willing to continue this assistance so long as it is in a position to do so.

3. In accordance with the recent directive from GCS all AMG legal officers have been, or are in the process of being, withdrawn from Italian Government Territory, including ROME, with the exception of one liaison officer at BARI and HQ Legal Sub-Commission in Rome. HQ Legal Sub-Commission obviously has neither the personnel nor the time to conduct such trials itself.

4. Of the 84 officers assigned to Legal Sub-Commission, 35 are for operational reasons and at the request of IV Corps, concentrated in the north, 38 are fully employed in TOSCANA, UMBRIA MARCHE and EMILIA regions, handling spy trials and other AMG cases, 4 are in NAPLES and BARI and the remainder in HQ.

As soon as any substantial part of the north is occupied the 38 officers above mentioned will be reduced and some of the existing activities curtailed.

5. There are at present two spy courts operating, in FLORENCE and RICCIONE, and it is intended to continue these courts as long as it is practicable to do so and there are cases to be tried. You will however appreciate that there are no officers available to form a spy court anywhere in Italian Government Territory. Such a court requires a minimum of 4 legal officers, and for satisfactory continuous working 6. On the basis of the time taken to dispose of previous cases one court could expect to hear 11 cases in 5 weeks.

6. On the grounds explained above it is not possible to put forward any proposal for the establishment of an AMG Court in ROME so long as this Commission is expected to continue to discharge throughout Military Government Territory its present commitments.

The following suggestions are made :-

- (a) Cases should be moved to FLORENCE or RICHMOND until such time as the present city courts have to close for lack of personnel;
- (b) Cases should be moved to Perugia, where in present conditions courts could be convened from time to time;
- (c) When neither of the above is possible cases should be heard by Courts Martial under Military Law.

1. This letter was referred to G-2 at this HQ for their comment who replied as under.

- "(1). The recommendation that the large majority of future espionage cases should be tried by Italian courts is strongly objected to.
- (2). The procedure of Italian courts is extremely slow and from the cases they have dealt with up to date there is evidence that sufficiently severe sentences will not be inflicted.
- (3). The deterrent effect of the death penalty cannot be too strongly stressed. Of the 40 odd cases in which spies have been executed since the arrival of the Allies in ITALY all have been sentenced by AMG Courts.
- (4). There are at present 11 cases of espionage awaiting trial in ROME and 12 cases in other areas under AFHQ command which are likely to be recommended for trial by AMG Courts. It is therefore recommended that an AMG Court be constituted first in Rome to try cases now ready and subsequently that it be moved to FLORENCE or some such suitable centre for the trial of the other cases mentioned above."

2. This Section is in agreement with the views expressed by G-2 concerning the necessity for trial of espionage cases in Allied Military Courts.

LAZIO-UMBRIA Region, AMG.

To : Commanding General, Allied Force Headquarters.

1. Since 5 June 44 the LAZIO-UMBRIA Region, AMG (formerly Region IV, AMG) has provided AMG courts in the city of ROME to try those cases which may properly be presented to them. The cases of particular interest to this headquarters have been the security cases; that is, the trials of persons accused of espionage or sabotage. Until 1 March 45 there have been 13 such cases, involving 27 individuals.

Since 15 Aug 44 trials have been "elective" in the sense that cases may appear before Italian Military Courts or AMG Courts. The decision as to court of reference is made by the G-2(CI) Section of AFHQ whose policy is to relegate all trials to Italian courts except those which must appear before Allied courts to protect military security or for other special reasons.

At this time the cases of 9 accused persons are pending before an AMG court. Three of these cases should be completed prior to 1 April 45; the other cases may not come to trial because of lack of evidence. There are 13 cases pending before an Italian Military Court.

2. It is understood that after 1 April 45 the legal officers (AMG) available to and under the control of Legal Sub-Commission, Allied Commission, will not be present in ROME. Each AMG Court requires the services of at least four legal officers. If no legal officers are available to form a court, then future security cases originating with this command can be handled in one of the following ways :-

a. A court operating North of ROME can be sent to ROME for a specific trial or trials.

b. The accused and witnesses in ROME could be sent North so that the cases may be tried at the location of some existing AMG Court.

CONFIDENTIAL

Recd HQAC
6 APR 1945

CONFIDENTIAL

c. The trials, instead of being heard by an AMG Court, could be heard by Courts Martial created either by the U.S. Army or the British Army.

d. To obviate trials either by AMG Courts or by Courts Martial all cases could be handed over to the Italian Military Courts for disposal.

3. Discussion of Alternatives Mentioned Above.

a. Reference 2 (a). This plan is not considered feasible because of the time consumed in travelling. Consider a court moving from FLORENCE to ROME. Two days will be consumed in travel and a minimum of two days to hold the court, making a total of four days in which a court designed to operate in FLORENCE and take care of cases originating in that area, is inoperative. Should we have a case of sufficient importance, that loss of time would be justified. However, it is anticipated that trips of this nature would not be encouraged by AMG.

b. Reference 2 (b). This plan would be more inconvenient than Plan (a) because it would place upon this headquarters the burden of collecting witnesses, transporting them to the designated place of trial, feeding, housing, and securing witnesses and accused and eventually transporting them back to ROME.

c. Reference 2 (c). This plan is practicable, but it is felt that it would create an unfortunate precedent, inasmuch as since the initial occupation of ITALY espionage and sabotage cases have been handled by AMG Courts. In this connection Legal Sub-Commission, Allied Commission, have stated that "spy" cases should be performed by Army and service unit headquarters rather than by AMG headquarters, but as a service to the Armies they have in ITALY accepted such cases.

d. Reference 2 (d). It is felt that the large majority of future cases could be brought to trial before Italian Military Courts without prejudice to Allied military security.

4. This matter has been discussed with Legal Sub-Commission, Allied Commission, and with Headquarters, LAZIO-UMBRIA Region, AMG. All concerned have been most cooperative, but the crux of the situation would seem to be the availability of legal personnel in this area.

It is asked, therefore, that your advice be given us for the termination of those future security cases which necessitate trial.

1. In a recent spy trial evidence was given of confessions made by the accused during his investigations. The accused protested that the confessions had been forced out of him and were in several respects untrue. The court disbelieved, or attached no importance to these protestations which were, of course, denied by the officers who conducted the interrogations, convicted the accused and sentenced him to death.

2. After sentence he was again interviewed by CSDIC. CSDIC have forwarded to this sub-commission a full report on this interview. The following is a verbatim extract from part of this report: "Subject's earlier statements now shown to be fabrications produced as the result of harsh treatment. His present story which is accepted as truthful in all essentials, confirms a large amount of previous information...."

3. It is essential that courts should realize the extreme danger of convicting accused persons upon confessions which have been obtained, or which they have reason to believe have been obtained by force.

LEGAL SUB-COMMISSION

RE ALLIED COMMISSION

AFO 394

3 March 1945

Dear

Ian Campbell has asked me to reply to your letter about the girl spies and give reasons for the commutation.

On the subject of decisions on review in general and the case of the two girl spies in particular, may I explain the position. In cases in which a sentence other than death is imposed, the case is reviewed exclusively by some member of the Legal Sub-Commission and when the Regional Legal Officer concerned is notified of the decision, it is hoped that a sufficient reason is always given for any variation of the finding or sentence of the trial court. It is the responsibility of the Regional Legal Officer to bring these reasons to the notice of the trial judge if he considers them of sufficient general importance; indeed courtesy may suggest that they should be brought to the judge's notice in any event.

In cases where a death sentence is imposed, the review is made personally by the Chief Commissioner. I do not, of course, suggest that the Legal Sub-Commission does not make a preliminary review of the case. Indeed, I peruse all such cases personally and make my own recommendation to the Chief Commissioner. The Chief Commissioner, however, confines himself to a simple decision for which he never gives reasons in writing and very seldom orally. In cases where he follows my recommendations I can reasonably assume that he has accepted the sum of the reasons I have suggested to him. There have been cases, however, when he has commuted sentences contrary to my recommendation without giving any explanation for the course he has adopted. As a general rule, therefore, I consider that it is safer simply to forward his decision without further comment.

Dealing specifically with the case you mentioned, I did recommend to the Chief Commissioner that both sentences should be commuted and that "a reasonably long term of imprisonment" should be imposed and I suggested a maximum of 15 years of imprisonment. My reasons for this course were the sex of the accused, the age of the accused, the report of the security officers on the conduct of the accused, and the lack of unanimity in the court.

It is not possible to lay down a general rule as to cases in which a death sentence should not be imposed. However, you probably know that the record in all cases where a death sentence is imposed have to be typed in this office for submission to the Chief Commissioner. As a matter of fact, the Chief Commissioner always commutes sentences on juveniles of either sex up to and including 19 years of age and also all sentences on women of whatever age. He has not given any general ruling on either of these points, but I know that that is the policy which he follows. You may think, therefore, in future cases, if only to save typing by this sub-commission, that it is unnecessary for the trial court to impose a death sentence in such cases.

SUBJECT : Disposition of Personal Property of Enemy Agents.
TO : Public Safety Sub-Commission
(Attn: Col DOMESTY).

1. In answer to your oral request we have to advise you that we have been unable to discover any directives dealing with the disposition of the possessions which may be found on enemy agents.

2. The property of a person arrested on suspicion of espionage should be treated as that of a person arrested on any other charge, e.g. murder. The prisoner retains possession of his property subject to custodial or security exigencies. Such property as may be removed from his possession must be held subject to any order the Court may make; or, in the event there is no such order, must be returned to the prisoner upon his discharge.

3. If the alleged enemy agent is ultimately convicted, the trial court should be asked at the conclusion of the trial to make an order of confiscation with respect to such property as may properly be said to be an integral part of the mission of espionage. Such property could include for instance, a radio transmitter, or photographic equipment. It would not include personal clothing. Money could be made the subject of a confiscation order depending on whether the facts of the case showed it to be connected with the mission of the accused.

4. The strict legal position is in the event of the execution of an enemy agent, that such property as is not confiscated, is held by an appropriate public official for the benefit of his executor or legal representative.

1. Herewith for the information of the VP, the record in the case of COSTA Carla. The documents are sent solely to enable the VP to raise with higher authority the desirability of the discontinuance of practices of the nature which were admitted in the course of the case. There is no need for the VP to read any of the documents except the portions of the record which are flagged.

2. COSTA Carla is a girl who was born on the 1st July 1927. She was interrogated on and after the 23rd October 1944 by agents of the CIC. According to the evidence of the fourth witness, Special Agent Richardson, she admitted on 23 October that she was an enemy agent and made a voluntary statement on that date.

3. The sixth witness, Gordon M. Messing of the CIC, gave evidence of the steps that were taken after the statement had been given to obtain further intelligence information. He states in examination in chief, "We adopted various psychological tricks. We starved her and limited her sleep. American Army nurses were present to see she did not suffer unduly. The accused went two days without food except for coffee and toast and fruit juice. She was deprived of sleep on the night of the 26th and 27th for one night only. About the 26th or 27th a telegram purporting to be addressed to Count Sforza was prepared asking for the arrest and trial of her parents for harboring spies; a bogus news release was also got out as to what would happen to the accused if she was sent to America."

4. The accused herself amplified the story slightly in her own evidence.

AC/4040/L

Dear

By memorandum 00/2602 of 22 January 1945 the Chief Commissioner has directed that a typewritten copy of the transcript is to be forwarded in all cases where the death sentence has been imposed.

Needless to say I fully realize the Chief Commissioner's position. I do myself review all the cases before I send them to the Chief Commissioner and I know how badly written the records are and how much time is consumed in studying them.

At the same time the difficulties in producing a typewritten transcript are considerable. In the first place all spy cases are held in camera by order of Security and I conceive that if the record is to be typed the work must be carried out by an EM/OR.

At the present moment we have seven spy cases for review. One of these cases consists of approximately 20,000 words. The others average about 6,200 words. I am informed by my clerks that to copy a badly written manuscript involves typing at the rate of 20 words a minute. It would be seen therefore that the long case referred to would take one clerk some 16 hours. The other cases, which are all shorter than the average, would take about 5½ hours a case.

There are two Espionage Courts sitting permanently in Florence. They dispose of about four cases a week; in most cases the death sentence is imposed. There is a similar court in 8th Army area; the work there is less but spies are continually being arrested.

I think that you will see from the above that to comply with the Chief Commissioner's order I shall require the whole time services of an EM/OR typist together with a typewriter for his use. This, of course, is only an estimate and in any case the situation may vary as time passes.

Would you be good enough to explain the situation to the Chief Commissioner. Perhaps he will issue the necessary order to Establishment Section to have the extra clerk assigned to this Sub-Commission.

Incidentally in the 20,000 word case before mentioned the time for review has expired and I have already written the covering letter to the Chief Commissioner. If the record of this case is to be typed perhaps the additional clerk can be assigned immediately as my existing staff cannot possibly take on this extra work.

1. (a) On 26 October 1944, by letter ACC/4540/L addressed to AFHQ G-2, it was pointed out that delay had been taking place in carrying out death sentences, particularly in espionage cases, and a revised procedure based on our experience was suggested.

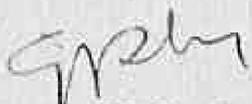

(b) On 9 November 1944 a copy of that letter was sent to AFHQ G-5.

(c) The question was further discussed with a staff officer from AFHQ G-5 at the HQ on 14, 15 and 16 November 1944.

(d) On 4 December 1944 this HQ by signal, reference number 7558, requested early confirmation of the procedure to be adopted : to which a reply, P63454 of 5 December, stated that the draft of the directive to be issued had not yet been agreed.

2. Over two months have now elapsed since this question was first raised. A large number of alleged spies have recently been tried or are awaiting trial in both 5th and 8th Army areas. It is therefore very strongly urged that a directive be issued in the very near future.

SUBJECT : Espionage Trial.

TO : H.E., the Minister of Pardon and Justice.

1. There are at present in prison in Rome, three persons accused of having crossed the lines to commit acts of espionage against the Allied Forces. As these acts, wholly or in part, took place within Military Government Territory, it is quite clear that they are subject to the jurisdiction of the Allied Military Courts.

2. Proceedings against these persons had not been commenced prior to the 15th August, and it is thought, therefore, that the Allied Commission has not the right to convene a court in Rome to try these cases.

3. It is, of course, possible for the trials to be held in some town within Military Government Territory. However, the members of the court, the prosecuting and defending officers, the court interpreter, the military witnesses, and the accused are all in Rome, and to transport all this personnel to another town and to find temporary accommodation there for them would be a matter of considerable practical difficulty.

4. In these circumstances, I am writing to ask Your Excellency to waive any technical objection that there may be to the holding of these trials in the Palace of Justice in Rome.

5. An answer at your earliest convenience will be very much appreciated. The cases will be ready for trial within a very few days.

W. E. BARRERS,
 Colonel,
 Deputy Chief Legal Advisor.

SUBJECT: Carrying out of executions.

TO: A.P.H.Q., C-5.

1. The question of the carrying out of the execution of persons sentenced to death by Allied Military Courts has been discussed with Lieut. Bullow from your section.

2. The position is now as follows :-

(a) Future cases.

(1) The confirmation will be made out in the form as required by you and will be accompanied by a copy of the delegation of authority to confirm sentences which will be authenticated by the Adjutant here.

(11) A draft of your proposed directive has been considered. This provides that (unless other instructions are received here in any particular case) the confirmation and copy delegation are to be sent to AMHQ. Cannot this be avoided? Trials of spies usually take place now either in HQHQ or to the North of HQHQ. To send these documents to AMHQ for return northwards must inevitably take time. Is it not possible for AMHQ to authorize the transmission of these documents direct from HQ AG to the designated formation or unit?

Similarly, may these documents be returned, after completion of the execution, direct from the designated formation or unit to HQ AG, with a copy of the covering letter to AMHQ.

(b) Sentences already confirmed by Comedopre Staff.

The following cases fall under this heading :-

- VIANDRO Carmelo
- LANTUZZI Gino
- MACHIELI Giampino
- BLASI Ray Blas
- ABATE Nicola

In respect of each of these cases, there is enclosed herewith a new confirmation (in the new form) and a copy of the

This provides that (unless other instructions are received here in any particular case) the confirmation and copy delegation are to be sent to AMHQ. Cannot this be avoided? Similarly, may these documents be returned, after completion of the execution, direct from the designated formation or unit to HQ AG, with a copy of the covering letter to AMHQ.

(b) Sentences already confirmed by Compendo store.

The following cases fall under this heading :-

FLANCO Carmelo
 LAMBERTI Gino
 MARCHI Giovanni
 RUGI Ruy Blas
 ABATE Nicola

In respect of each of these cases, there is enclosed herewith a new Confirmation (in the new form) and a copy of the delegation, certified by the Adjutant.

It is hoped that with these documents there will be no further delay in carrying out these executions. You will, no doubt, bear in mind that BAC would be the most convenient formation to carry out certain of these executions.

(c) Sentences already confirmed by Brigadier Lash.

It is not possible to procure new Confirmations: Brigadier Lash is not at present at this HQ, and his power to confirm has been revoked.

There are two cases under this heading in which the execution has not been carried out :-

FIZZI Lorenzo
 MASIN Iaro

Enclosed herewith are the original confirmations signed by him, each accompanied by a copy of the delegation duly certified by the Adjutant.

In fact, there is no fundamental difference between the confirmation as signed by him and the new form of confirmation and, in view of the long delay which has already occurred, it is urged strongly that those confirmations be accepted and that the substitutions be carried out as soon as possible.

For the Chief Commissioner.

SUBJECT : Enemy agents, non-execution of.

TO : Colonel Mitchell, AF HQ.

1. On 26 Oct 44 I had a conversation with Freedom 307, understood to be the office of Colonel HILL-DILLON. In Colonel HILL-DILLON's absence I spoke to an American Colonel whose name I did not catch.

2. I informed this officer that there were 3 enemy agents whose execution was causing difficulty. Their names are : PIZZI Lorenzo, MASIN Lino and BERLENDIS Riccardo.

I informed the officer that PIZZI and MASIN were held by Rome Area Command but that orders had been issued for their execution by P.B.S. A deadlock had been reached in the matter and I asked him to issue instructions to all concerned for the executions to be carried out by the authority selected by him.

3. The officer stated that the cases were familiar to him and that he would issue that day the necessary orders.

4. BERLENDIS has now been executed.

5. I understand that no order has yet been issued and PIZZI and MASIN are still held by RAAC.

6. It would be appreciated if you could arrange for the necessary order to be issued as soon as possible.
