1. In my letter to you AC/4074/L of 17 February 1945 reference was made to an order applicable to German occupied territory.

Dear

I have been informed that the plans for the occupation of Germany include a proposal to print a proclamation forbidding the transfer or export of works of art and that a Proclamation has been prepared for that purpose.

I do not know whether the same is true in relation to Austria but if it is and if you have a proclamation prepared I should be grateful if you could send me a copy as it has been suggested we might print a similar order in Northern Italy.

Yours

1. There is attached hereto a draft of a proposed General Order and on a separate sheet, an additional clause dealing with the prohibition against sale, hypothecations, etc.
2. The draft is intended as a basis for discussion and it is hoped that we can explore the matter fully on Col. De Wael's return.
3. I feel that the additional clause forbidding sales, etc. presents almost insurmountable problems of enforcement. The wisdom of inserting it is, therefore, highly doubtful.
4. In point of fact, I understand that many Italian families are forced by present economic conditions, to sell possessions coming within the intendance of this order. Would it not be more appropriate to try to prevent the inter-provincial movement and exportation of works of art rather than to try to forbid all dealings therein?
5. If a copy of the Allied Military Government order issued for occupied German territory is obtainable, I shall refer it to you for consideration.
