Major John A. Steel,
C.A.O., Castelfrentano.

1. Subject records, ~~plus the case against La Rosa Tito~~ have been forwarded to C.L.O. for examination and file.

2. The following comments are offerred, following the reference numbers which you assigned to the respective cases:

No.1 (a) The charge does not show an offence of which an Allied Military Court has jurisdiction.
(b) Record does not show whether a Summary or Superior Court.
(c) Charge does not lay the time or place of offence.
(d) ~~Alternative sentence of imprisonment if fine not paid is disproportionate to the fine. Roughly the relation of fine to imprisonment should be 50 lire to one day.~~
(e) Record does not show whether fine was paid.
(f) Do not allow time within which to pay fine. Commit accused to jail and if fine is paid while still confined let him out. If 30 days allowed you are likely to be somewhere else and it is unwise to leave a hold over for your sucessor.

No.2. Same comments as under No. 1.

No.3. (a) Charge does not state an offence.
(b) No time or place is laid.
(c) The sentence is not within your jurisdiction and amounts to involuntary servitute. You may only fine or imprison.

No.4. (a) Charge does not state an offence.
(b) No time or place is laid.
(c) Time should not be given within which to pay this small fine.
(d) Record does not show whether or not fine was paid.

No.5. Same comments as made under No.4. Alternative sentence of imprisonment is disproportionate to the fine.

No.6. Same comments as made under No.5.
No.7. Same comments as made under No.5.
No.8. Same comments as made under No.5.

Case against La Rosa Tito, unnumbered.

(a) No paragraph of the Proclamation is stated in the case.
(b) The particulars do not state time nor place nor is there any showing as to who issued the order.
(c) Alternative sentences disproportionate to fine.
(d) No showing as to whether fine paid.
(e) Commitment is only to be filled out when ~~just~~ jail sentence is imposed.

Remarks: The British soldier practically forced Barnett to take him to a brothel. As Perkins was a homosexual and married, I understand, he was stupid enough to buy the drinks for 2 CID Lieutenants found the above about Dec 18, 1943 in the Eaton Room.

Barnett is a good citizen here and has been employed for 14 years by the same employer. He even warned the said Perkins not to buy drinks.

Perkins is a refugee and needless to say he was forced to leave Poland a few days after the incident.

At the time the articles were given to the Lieutenants by the Barnetts, no "Proofs" were required, understand Perkins was a very stupid man.

Under the circumstances I fined both.

P.S. As I understand other articles were acquired during this period I have given the natives a short period to turn them in, without fear of punishment. After that the sentences will be heavier.
