TO: Major G. Hamford.

1. Through the kind offices of the bearer of this letter, Squadron Leader Johnstone, I am hoping to arrange for you to enter Rome on D.L. as part of "S" Force. Squadron Leader Johnstone will explain to you the setup and what you have heard. I think you will agree that you will be in close contact with the person responsible for personnel and archives and therefore in the best possible position to look after the interests of law and justice in Italy.

2. Your chief tasks are:-

- (a) To assist in the location and preservation of legal archives.
- (b) To assist in the location and screening and registration of Italian legal officials and to assist their moves to HQ 100 (Legal Section) as soon as communications and security regulations permit.
- (c) Generally to assist in the collection of all information which may be of assistance to the Minister of Justice in the reorganizing and organization of his staff, records and archives.

3. You will, for all tactical and disciplinary purposes, be under "S" Force Commander and you will be responsible through us to HQ 100 for the proper discharge of your functions set out in para 2, always subject to orders given you for reasons of military necessity by "S" Force Commander.

b. You will of course act in the closest possible contact with Squadron Leader Johnstone and other officers whose activities bear on your work.

4. You will not be responsible to or under the orders of HQ and you will probably enter the city sometime ahead of their representatives. It will not be any part of your functions to assist them in the opening of Civil Courts and in other matters properly the function of HQ on entering a town. If your functions under para 2 are for the time being excluded you will no doubt wonder at all assistance in opening Civil Courts, etc., but I do not want this work to interfere with your primary functions under

101 Major G. Hamnerford,

1. Through the kind offices of the bearer of this letter, Squadron Leader Johnstone, I am hoping to arrange for you to enter Rome on D.I. as part of "go" forces. Squadron Leader Johnstone will explain to you the setup and when you have heard it I think you will agree that you will be in closest touch with the persons responsible for personnel and archives and therefore in the best possible position to look after the interests of law and justice in Italy.

2. Your chief tasks are:-

- (a) To assist in the location and preservation of legal archives.
- (b) To assist in the location and securing and registration of Italian legal officials and to submit their names to the AGI (legal sub-commission) as soon as communications and security regulations permit.
- (c) Generally to assist in the collection of all information which may be of assistance to the Minister of Justice in the reforming and organization of his staff, records and archives.

3. You will, like all tactical and financial purposes, be under the direct command and you will be responsible through me to the AGI for the proper discharge of your functions set out in para 2, always subject to orders given you for reasons of military necessity by the AGI Commander.

4. You will of course act in the closest possible contact with Squadron Leader Johnstone and other officers whose activities bear on your work.

5. You will not be responsible to or under the orders of AGI and you will probably enter the city actions ahead of their representatives. It will not be any part of your functions to assist them in the opening of Civil Courts and in other matters properly the function of AGI on entering a town. If your functions under para 2 are for the time being completed you will no longer under AGI all assistance in opening Civil Courts, etc., but I do not want this work to interfere with your primary functions under para 2 above.

6. You will keep me informed as closely as possible of the progress of events having regard to security requirements.

7. If your departure is for any reason delayed please keep in touch with AGI (Naples) and return there if possible.

8. I hope to obtain a letter authorizing your departure with "3" force from the Deputy President AGI. This will be sent under separate cover.

20 January 1944.

To Col. Smith, O.C. "S" Force Unit, 15 Army Group.

I should greatly appreciate it if even at this late stage you would allow a representative of the Legal Subcommittee, ACC, Major Hannaford, to accompany "S" Force to assist in the discovery and preservation at the earliest stage of legal archives and the location, screening and registration of legal officials.

I must apologise for the lateness of this suggestion but I regard the preservation of legal archives and the location of legal officials at the earliest possible moment as so vitally important to the Italian Government that I hope you will include Major Hannaford in your list.

Major Hannaford has had experience with this work in Sicily, knows Italian law and lawyers well and has my full confidence.
