RESUMPTION OF REMITTANCES FROM U.S., SECURITY ASPECT
SEPT. 1943

P.S.D.

6/9/43

Lt Col. Clough

In re assumption of re entrances from the U.S. (your note 2/9/43) would be inclined to approve this in general rather than specific grounds. The security angle at this time would not be overly important - Other Public Safety Considerations are of minor nature -

At a later date when Italian situation more certain matter will undoubtedly require decision
by higher authority

Chief Public Safety Div.

In considering the assumption of responsibility from the U.S. several thoughts occur, first, these fall into two classes, namely:

- a. When U.S. Gov't is presumed to exercise res. including Gov't employees.
- b. Private persons from relatives who are a much larger class and make a considerable figure for all of society.

2. When the security angle:

- a. Can or will funds be applied to improper use - and how accepted at?
- b. Encouragement of black market by people who have money to spend.
- c. Can funds be forwarded into Italy.

3. You raise one aspect, this is of other questions involved. At any rate, will you give some thought to the problem. And then give me the benefit of your insight in the form of a brief study report which I can use.

Though

into two classes, namely:

- a. From U.S. Govt as persons to examine men, including Govt. employees.
- b. Private persons from various sources, who is a much larger class and makes a considerable figure for all of daily.

2. From the security angle:

- a. Can or will funds be applied to improper use - and have control it.
- b. Encouragement of black market by people who have money to spend.
- c. Can funds be funneled into Italy.

3. You saw me about this of other questions involved at any rate, will you give some thought to the problem. And then give me the benefit of your advice in the form of a brief study at your earliest convenience.
